Viet Peace Effort Eyed By Romania

Red Leaders Acting As 'Go-Betweens,' Austrians Report

VIENNA, Austria, (AP) — Romania's Communist leaders are acting as go-betweens for another Viet Nam peace effort, Austrian diplomats say.

The Austrian sources said Romanian efforts to achieve peace talks began last June after North Viet Nam put out peace feelers through Bucharest.

The diplomats said Romanian Premier Ion Gheorghe Maurer reported the moves to Austrian officials during an official visit to Vienna last week.

The diplomats said Maurer gave this account:

After the overtures from Hanoi, Romanian officials approached U.S. Ambassador William Crawford in Bucharest. The results of these contacts formed a basis for follow-up talks between Romanian Foreign Minister Cornelius Manescu and Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the United Nations in New York last month.

The outcome of these talks was not indicated.

Maurer told Austrian officials Romania is ready to mediate between the United States and North Viet Nam "whenever there is a chance of bringing the war to an end."

Restrictions On Number Of Planes

LeMay Cites 'Checkrein' On Attacking Viet Targets

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Curtis E. LeMay says there was a checkrein on the way targets in North Viet Nam could be attacked.

LeMay, retired Air Force chief of staff, was asked by The Associated Press whether there have been restraints on U.S. pilots operating against North Viet Nam.

"When I left active duty, there were some restrictions on the number of airplanes that could be used on a mission and also on types of ordinance that could be delivered," LeMay replied.

Asked for comment, the Defense Department said, "We do not discuss tactics followed in carrying out combat air operations over North Viet Nam."

LeMay retired Feb. 1, just prior to the first air strike against North Viet Nam.

He said: "I am not familiar with the activity since I retired."

The founder of the Strategic Air Command did not say who imposed the restrictions.

However, since the air attacks started last Feb. 7 a number of senior Air Force and Navy officers have spoken privately — and with irritation — about the limits they said were established by top civilian officials.

Many of these curbs since have been relaxed and much greater leeway is allowed military commanders.

The number of missions to be flown into the North in a given period is subject to approval in Washington.

Military targets in and around Hanoi and its port city of Haiphong are still off limits to U.S. bombers.

LeMay's statement put on the record for the first time what other officers have said in less open fashion.

At one stage in the early months of the bombing, one top officer said that, in effect, President Johnson was functioning almost like a squadron commander and Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara as an executive officer. This officer said the President and McNamara approved or disapproved specific targets to be hit; that top civilian officials determined the way the targets were to be attacked, the size of the attacking force, and the type of bombs and rockets to be used.

Defenders of this policy have said it was necessary because the bombings have a political as well as a military purpose, that the intent is to limit damage as much as possible to military targets and thus demonstrate to the Communists that the United States does not want to destroy North Viet Nam.

During his 35 years of military service LeMay achieved a reputation as a leader in devel-

2 American Army Advisers Killed In Pre-Dawn Fighting

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese forces beat back two heavy Communist assaults on the central coast today with help from bombarding U.S. Navy ships off shore and air strikes later. U.S. and South Vietnamese officers said at least 300 of about 1,500 attackers were killed.

The attack broke before dawn and the U.S. advisers called for the bombardment from two 7th Fleet destroyers lying offshore. The Navy shells kept the attackers down until the weather cleared later in the day. Then U.S. and South Vietnamese planes and U.S. Marine helicopters attacked with napalm bombs and rockets.

Two U.S. Army advisers were killed in the heaviest assault, by 1,500 Viet Cong on a battalion of 500 rangers near Thach Tru, in Quang Ngai Province 320 miles northeast of Saigon.

"I got the S.O.B.'s that shot them," said Staff Sgt. Henry McNeal of Pittsburgh, Pa., who with a fourth American adviser was not hurt.

The Americans were killed at an outpost on a hill about half a mile west of the government fort. A battalion of U.S. Marines was lifted by helicopter onto the hill to reinforce the Vietnamese rangers.

Viet Cong bodies were strewn inside the fort, in the rice paddies in front of it and on the outpost hill.

Attack planes silenced six 81mm Viet Cong mortars that were firing on the hill.

U.S. and South Vietnamese officers on the scene said at least 200 Viet Cong were killed. Associated Press correspondent George Esper said he counted more than 100 bodies.

Officials said government casualties were light, but Esper said their casualties appeared to be moderate. Many of the rangers were killed inside the fort in close-in fighting.

The Viet Cong assaulted the fort six times during an eight-hour period. They were beaten off by small arms, automatic weapons and hand grenades.

Many of the Viet Cong were wearing brown khaki shirts and short black pants. A commemoration button reading "Dien Bien Phu Battalion" was found on one of the bodies. This battalion fought in the decisive bat-

Machinists' Strike Talks Being Pushed

Walkout May Hold Up Launching Of Gemini 7 On Dec. 4

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators move into their fourth round of talks today in an effort to break a McDonnell Aircraft strike that could delay the Dec. 4 launching of Gemini 7.

A conference presided over by the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service broke up after midnight. There was no report on whether any progress had been made.

The 17,000-member International Association of Machinists, AFL-CIO, walked off the job at McDonnell's St. Louis plant Thursday in a contract dispute.

About 200 McDonnell machinists at Cape Kennedy, Fla., went out the next day, although they had voted to accept the company's contract proposals.

The Cape Kennedy crew was preparing for next month's launching of astronauts Frank Borman and James A. Lovell on a 14-day space journey.

McDonnell sent 38 management and technical experts to the Cape to try to keep preparations on schedule.

Thus far, they are succeeding, but the National Aeronautics and Space Administration was making no promise on how long a postponement could be avoided.

Furnace Fumes Fell 8 In Family

Two of eight members of an East End family remain in City Hospital today recuperating from fumes inhaled early Sunday morning from a defective gas conversion burner in the home where they had resided only three days.

Two police officers also were treated at the hospital for inhalation of carbon monoxide fumes and two firemen were made ill after responding to a call with a resuscitator.

In "fair" condition today at the hospital are Cathy, 8, and Sheila, 2, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Vantilburg, who had moved into the house at 1013 St. George St. late last week.

RELEASED from the hospital after receiving oxygen yesterday morning were the 39-year-old father; his wife, Doris, 32; two more daughters, Shirley, 13, and Ruth 12; a 3-month-old son, Robert, and his 74-year-old mother, Mrs. Cora Vantilburg, 225 3rd St., Wellsville.

The 2-year-old daughter originally had been treated and released, but was returned to the hospital later and admitted.

Police Lt. William McDaniel and Patrolman Jack Strobel, who joined in the investigation, also were treated at the hospital.

Asst. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne and Fireman Clarence Snediker became ill from the fumes but were not treated at the hospital. Van Dyne's report indicated both still were ill when they went off duty at 7:45 a. m. yesterday.

VAN DYNE said the mother of the children called the fire department at 4:24 a. m. yesterday and the squad car with the resuscitator answered the alarm. It was manned by Van Dyne and Snediker.

Van Dyne said members of the family were sent to the hospital for oxygen treatment.

His investigation showed the fumes came from the faulty gas conversion burner. The gas was turned off until the unit could be repaired, Van Dyne reported.

Explosions Rock Homes Of Four Rights Leaders

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — The homes of four Negro civil rights leaders, including the state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, were rocked by explosions early today, but no one was injured.

Chief of Police John S. Hord said the homes of Kelly Alexander, state president of the NAACP, and of his brother, Fred Alexander, were the most seriously damaged.

Blasts also occurred at the home of Dr. Reginald Hawkins, a dentist and militant civil rights leader, and the home of Julius Chambers, a young attorney who had handled many suits in behalf of Negro groups.

Hord, who arrived in the area 30 minutes after the blasts, said that in his opinion "it was a well-organized group.

"I'll guarantee you it was people who knew what they were doing. Whoever it was knew explosives and they knew the sections and how to get in and get out quickly."

In Raleigh, Gov. Dan Moore offered Charlotte officials the "full resources of our state investigative and law enforcement agencies."

Mayor Stan Brookshire of Charlotte said:

The Federal Bureau of Investigation joined the investigation of the blasts, which occurred at the four homes on Charlotte's West Side about 2:30 a.m.

Kelly Alexander, long-time state president of the NAACP, said:

"Anytime four blasts happen like this, it's organized. I don't know who organized it, but it was organized force whose efforts it was to kill us."

Kelly Alexander's two sons, Kelly Jr., 17, and Alfred, 13, were sleeping in a front bedroom of the brick, ranch-style home, when the explosions occurred. The window over their heads was blown out with such force that splinters of glass were imbedded in the paneling of the opposite wall. Drapes

Officials Eye Charge After Gasoline Fire

Firemen and city officials are scheduled to confer Tuesday on possible charges against a young city man accused of dropping a match into the gasoline - laden East End Run Saturday "to see what would happen."

Authorities said the man, about 21, dropped the match into the run filled with a large quantity of gasoline which had leaked from an underground tank at the Gulf Service Station at Boyce and Mapletree Sts.

The match caused an explosion and the fire spread some 500 feet along the run, officials said.

The man was taken into custody by Patrolman Sam Hayes and taken to police headquarters for questioning, then released.

Asst. Fire Chief Alfred Van Dyne said the man is scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff tomorrow morning.

Van Dyne said the man dropped the match into the open section of the run near Virginia Ave. and the flames followed the gasoline through the run and into a culvert which runs underneath the station and Pennsylvania Ave.

The assistant chief said the chief danger was that the flames would cause gasoline remaining in the tank to explode. He estimated approximately 80 gallons of gasoline had escaped from the tank and said company officials were instructed to pump out the remaining amount.

The alarm was received at 4:14 p. m. and firemen spent over an hour quelling the flames with Van Dyne and Fireman Clarence Snediker entering the culvert.

Services will be held Tuesday for Mrs. Minnie Wright, 60, of Stratton, who died Saturday about 3 p. m. in City Hospital of multiple injuries suffered Nov. 15 when a car went off the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. just inside the city limits and crashed into a large rock on the hillside overlooking the right-of-way.

Mrs. Wright was a passenger in a 1963 model auto operated by Donald E. Martin, 22, of 408 N. 4th St., Toronto, which was involved in a collision with another auto and then plunged diagonally off the highway, according to police reports.

Martin and his wife, Mrs. Betty Martin, 21, also were injured in the collision, which was timed at 6:44 p. m.

Mrs. Wright was the mother of Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Martin remains in the hospital in "fair" condition.

Police said Martin's car was traveling an estimated 50 miles an hour when it left the highway and struck the boulder with such force that the motor was torn from its mounting and shoved through the firewall toward the front seat.

Before striking the embankment, Martin's car was involved in a collision with a 1961 four-

Forecaster Expects Rain Will End Tonight

The Ohio weatherman said the district's showers should end tonight, but the memory may linger on in the form of dark skies and dampness Tuesday.

Today's high will be 45-55 degrees. The skies will clear at least partially tonight and the mercury will drop to a low of 30-36, the weatherman said. Tuesday will be partly cloudy with little change in temperature.

7 Children Die In Blaze

Fire, Wounding Are Investigated

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—State police were investigating today the shotgun wounding of a farm couple and the cause of a fire that killed seven of their 13 children.

The parents and six older children escaped the flames that destroyed their log house in a remote farm area Saturday night.

State Trooper John Sherosick, a fire marshal heading the investigation, would say only that it was a "mysterious fire."

The father, Paul Bordner, 38, said he did not know the source of the shotgun blast, only "that it was a shotgun." He said he kept several guns in the house.

"The woman (his wife) said she saw the blast, but we don't know who fired it," said Bordner. He was treated for pellet wounds in the arm at a hospital and was discharged.

Bordner and his oldest son, Harold, 17, tried in vain to save the victims, who ranged in age from one to 10.

Bordner said the blast aroused him and his wife from their sleep and enabled them to flee to safety along with their six oldest children.

Mrs. Bordner underwent surgery at Sunbury Community Hospital. She was listed in critical condition. Harold also was reported in critical condition with burns suffered while attempting a futile rescue.

The other surviving children also were hospitalized. They are Marlene, 15; Kenneth, 14; Virginia, 12; Kathy, 10, and Shirley 9. Marlene was listed in poor condition, and all the others were fair.

State police investigators sought the cause of the fire in the community of Herndon, 15 miles south of this central Pennsylvania borough. They said they also were at a loss to explain the shotgun blast.

By the time firemen arrived, the two-story house was engulfed in flames. The bodies of the dead children were recovered Sunday.

The dead were: Cindy, 10; Jerry, 9; Steven, 6; Rogec, 5; Ruby, 3; John, 3, and Erich, 1.

Bordner, employed by a cement-block contractor, said he and his wife were alone in the first-floor bedroom when they heard the shotgun blast. He was hit in the right arm, and his wife was hit in the left arm and stomach.

Token From Slain President's Widow

Bouquet Of White Lilies Placed At Kennedy Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the drizzle-damp chill of a gray day of remembrance, a bouquet of small white lilies was placed today at the base of the eternal flame that flickers over the grave of John F. Kennedy.

The token from Jacqueline Kennedy, young widow of the slain President, was delivered by her mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, to the burial site on a hillside in Arlington National Cemetery.

Meantime other Americans across the land observed the second anniversary of the young President's slaying in ways of their own.

No formal service was planned at the graveside, but the inclement weather was no bar to the individual visitors, thousands of whom walked up the long pathway Sunday.

Other members of the Kenne-

Mrs. Auchinchloss came at 7:50 a.m., before the cemetery gates were opened to the public. She knelt for a few moments and placed sprigs of lilies also at the headstone for the two infant Kennedy children buried on each side of their father.

President Johnson directed Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to lay a presidential wreath on the grave. Johnson was with Kennedy in Dallas when the young chief executive was gunned down by an assassin's bullets.

On the eve of the anniversary, thousands walked up the long pathway to the grave.

Third Sought In Kidnaping Surrenders

He is James Edward Evans, a 31-year-old father named as an accomplice in the kidnaping by its admitted mastermind.

Sheriff's officers said Evans turned himself in to Chief Criminal Deputy George Janovich. He was immediately whisked into an interrogation session with officers.

They would not say where Evans had been. They reported, however, he had just driven into Tacoma.

Detective Capt. Ernest Keck of the Pierce County sheriff's office disclosed Sunday he had received a telephone call Saturday night, presumably from California. Evans has a brother in Hayward, Calif.

Keck said Evans told him he understood he was wanted and STAY ALIVE IN '65!

Services will be held Tuesday for Mrs. Minnie Wright, 60, of Stratton, who died Saturday about 3 p. m. in City Hospital of multiple injuries suffered Nov. 15 when a car went off the East Liverpool - Wellsville Rd. just inside the city limits and crashed into a large rock on the hillside overlooking the right-of-way.

Mrs. Wright was a passenger in a 1963 model auto operated by Donald E. Martin, 22, of 408 N. 4th St., Toronto, which was involved in a collision with another auto and then plunged diagonally off the highway, according to police reports.

Martin and his wife, Mrs. Betty Martin, 21, also were injured in the collision, which was timed at 6:44 p. m.

Mrs. Wright was the mother of Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. Martin remains in the hospital in "fair" condition.

Police said Martin's car was traveling an estimated 50 miles an hour when it left the highway and struck the boulder with such force that the motor was torn from its mounting and shoved through the firewall toward the front seat.

Before striking the embankment, Martin's car was involved in a collision with a 1961 four-

Forecaster Expects Rain Will End Tonight

The Ohio weatherman said the district's showers should end tonight, but the memory may linger on in the form of dark skies and dampness Tuesday.

Today's high will be 45-55 degrees. The skies will clear at least partially tonight and the mercury will drop to a low of 30-36, the weatherman said. Tuesday will be partly cloudy with little change in temperature.

7 Children Die In Blaze

Fire, Wounding Are Investigated

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—State police were investigating today the shotgun wounding of a farm couple and the cause of a fire that killed seven of their 13 children.

The parents and six older children escaped the flames that destroyed their log house in a remote farm area Saturday night.

State Trooper John Sherosick, a fire marshal heading the investigation, would say only that it was a "mysterious fire."

The father, Paul Bordner, 38, said he did not know the source of the shotgun blast, only "that it was a shotgun." He said he kept several guns in the house.

"The woman (his wife) said she saw the blast, but we don't know who fired it," said Bordner. He was treated for pellet wounds in the arm at a hospital and was discharged.

Bordner and his oldest son, Harold, 17, tried in vain to save the victims, who ranged in age from one to 10.

Bordner said the blast aroused him and his wife from their sleep and enabled them to flee to safety along with their six oldest children.

Mrs. Bordner underwent surgery at Sunbury Community Hospital. She was listed in critical condition. Harold also was reported in critical condition with burns suffered while attempting a futile rescue.

The other surviving children also were hospitalized. They are Marlene, 15; Kenneth, 14; Virginia, 12; Kathy, 10, and Shirley 9. Marlene was listed in poor condition, and all the others were fair.

State police investigators sought the cause of the fire in the community of Herndon, 15 miles south of this central Pennsylvania borough. They said they also were at a loss to explain the shotgun blast.

By the time firemen arrived, the two-story house was engulfed in flames. The bodies of the dead children were recovered Sunday.

The dead were: Cindy, 10; Jerry, 9; Steven, 6; Rogec, 5; Ruby, 3; John, 3, and Erich, 1.

Bordner, employed by a cement-block contractor, said he and his wife were alone in the first-floor bedroom when they heard the shotgun blast. He was hit in the right arm, and his wife was hit in the left arm and stomach.

Token From Slain President's Widow

Bouquet Of White Lilies Placed At Kennedy Grave

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the drizzle-damp chill of a gray day of remembrance, a bouquet of small white lilies was placed today at the base of the eternal flame that flickers over the grave of John F. Kennedy.

The token from Jacqueline Kennedy, young widow of the slain President, was delivered by her mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, to the burial site on a hillside in Arlington National Cemetery.

Meantime other Americans across the land observed the second anniversary of the young President's slaying in ways of their own.

No formal service was planned at the graveside, but the inclement weather was no bar to the individual visitors, thousands of whom walked up the long pathway Sunday.

Other members of the Kennedy family were expected during the day.

Mrs. Auchinchloss came at 7:50 a.m., before the cemetery gates were opened to the public. She knelt for a few moments and placed sprigs of lilies also at the headstone for the two infant Kennedy children buried on each side of their father.

President Johnson directed Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach to lay a presidential wreath on the grave. Johnson was with Kennedy in Dallas when the young chief executive was gunned down by an assassin's bullets.

On the eve of the anniversary, thousands walked up the long pathway to the grave.

Third Sought In Kidnaping Surrenders

He is James Edward Evans, a 31-year-old father named as an accomplice in the kidnaping by its admitted mastermind.

Sheriff's officers said Evans turned himself in to Chief Criminal Deputy George Janovich. He was immediately whisked into an interrogation session with officers.

They would not say where Evans had been. They reported, however, he had just driven into Tacoma.

Detective Capt. Ernest Keck of the Pierce County sheriff's office disclosed Sunday he had received a telephone call Saturday night, presumably from California. Evans has a brother in Hayward, Calif.

Keck said Evans told him he understood he was wanted and

Farm Manager Hurt

Work Mishaps Injure 3; Hospital Treats 8 Others

Three men injured in work mishaps and eight other area residents hurt in various accidents were treated at City Hospital over the weekend.

John Anderson, manager of Hillcrest Farms near Chester, suffered an injury to the right foot in a fall at work.

Robert Bonidie of 822 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, received injuries to a finger which caught between a battery and auto while he was at work.

Meg Ellen Allison, daughter of Jerry Allison of 444 Florida Ave., Chester, was treated for a cut of the cheek after she fell onto a coal bucket.

While playing basketball, William Alfred Taylor, son of Riley Taylor of Yeager Dr., Wellsville, received a chip fracture of the foot on which another boy stepped.

Juliet Emmerling, daughter of Edward Emmerling of 7th Ave., LaCroft, suffered bruises and a cut of the eye and abrasions of the cheek in a fall.

Garry Hennis, son of Allen Cunningham of LaCroft, received abrasions of the roof of the mouth on a toy.

Joseph Alford, son of Kenneth Alford of 1529 Wyoming Ave., suffered fractures of two toes of the right foot while riding on a motorcycle.

In a fall onto a step, Christopher Calhoun, son of Jeffrey Calhoun of 205 Beechwood Ave., received a cut lip.

Billy Gene Walls, son of Billy Walls of 1646 Cleveland Ave., was treated for a bruised eye after he ran against another boy playing football.

Steubenville College To Add Floor To Hall

STEUBENVILLE — Plans for construction of an additional third floor to Egan Hall, largest classroom building on the campus of The College of Steubenville, were announced today by the Rev. Columba J. Devlin, T.O.R., president.

The project was given priority in the almost continuous expansion campaign in an effort to overcome the crowded condition of classrooms and laboratories.

Joseph F. Bontempo, college architect, is preparing the final draft of plans, after consultation with divisional and departmental heads, and final approval of the projected construction is expected before the New Year.

Total cost will be $673,000. A grant of $224,000 made to the college under Title I of the Federal Facilities Act, and administered by the Ohio Board of Regents, made immediate consideration of the expansion possible.

Premier Of Japan Set For Visit To Soviet

TOKYO (AP) — Prime Minister Eisaku Sato of Japan will make a 10-day state visit to the Soviet Union next June, reliable sources said today.

The trip is considered to be a significant step toward improving Soviet-Japanese relations.

Who Needs A Driver's License?

Next time you're practicing your defensive driving on the highway, here's a thought that will be no comfort:

About 5 per cent of the autoists in Ohio have no driver licenses. Warren C. Nelson, Ohio highway safety director, is authority for the estimate.

They lost them by being chronic traffic violators.

Their licenses were suspended for a traffic violation and they are driving anyway, to show their contempt for the law.

They cannot qualify for a driver license.

They never have had a license; they don't believe in obeying the law.

Most dangerous of these violators are the drivers whose licenses have been suspended for previous offenses. Theoretically, the driver license law keeps them off the highways as part of the penalty they must pay for traffic violations which reveal they are unsafe drivers.

It has been a standing scandal for years that many of these people think a license suspension is a joke. They walk out of traffic court, climb into a car and keep right on driving.

Why?

Because they know nothing is going to happen if they get picked up. Some judge will fine them the equivalent of a night on the town and send them on their way rejoicing.

Every judge in Ohio knows what is going on and is aware that chronic drunks and four-wheeled killers picked up time and again for traffic violations, many of them after causing fatal accidents, consistently drive without licenses.

We do not know what the judges think about when they let these people off with light fines and suspended sentences. Maybe they feel sorry for them.

How about feeling sorry for the rest of us? The maximum fine for driving while a license is suspended is $500. The maximum jail sentence is six months. How about some maximum penalties?

Does anyone doubt that if word got around of intent to throw the book at the habitual traffic scofflaws they would straighten up and drive right—and if they didn't they'd be in a safe place for the next six months.

The rest of us would settle for that, too.

Crying Over Spilt Diplomacy

With due respect to Eric Sevareid, Look magazine, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant and the pundits, the dust-up over something the late Adlai E. Stevenson said before he died seems like crying over spilt milk.

Mr. Stevenson, says Mr. Sevareid, told him North Viet Nam put out feelers a year ago for negotiations to end hostilities in Viet Nam.

In the course of reporting this in Look magazine, Mr. Sevareid, made it clear Mr. Stevenson was disturbed because the feelers were disregarded on the grounds the United States didn't think they were sincere. Secretary of State Rusk apparently made a personal decision to disregard them.

At that time, Washington was holding firmly to the belief if U.S. efforts to bring Hanoi to its knees were strong there could be no doubt of the outcome. Hanoi would beg for peace, though at that time it had no troops engaged in combat. It was not then nor is it now at war with the United States, nor is the United States at war with it.

Belated disclosure of feelers put out a year ago can have no possible good effect now. That is not to say Mr. Stevenson should not have mentioned them nor that Mr. Sevareid should not have reported them, only that the belated disclosure can be used in no constructive way.

The clock cannot be made to run backward. The United States now is deeply involved in a war that finds it fighting for the lives of every American in Viet Nam and every American whose life may have to be laid on the line to avert a debacle.

It is interesting to know Hanoi was putting out peace feelers a year ago, but all that matters a year later is that Hanoi now has its regular army in South Viet Nam meeting U.S. fighting men in head-on combat.

No Offense—Just Asking

Every time the United States goes to war — declared or not — the same question pops up:

Where are the miracle weapons?

Between wars, U. S. taxpayers are told to keep their chins and their payments up because military experts need more money to develop new weapons.

The Army, Navy, Air Force and Marines must have up-to-date fighting equipment. The idea is to make one U.S. fighting man the equivalent of a half dozen less-well-equipped fighting men. It costs money but it's worth it.

We are given a steady diet of reassuring information about the progress of the arms race, all to the general effect that the United States either is ahead of everybody else or catching up to everybody else by leaps and bounds.

Then what happens?

War breaks out.

U. S. fighting men go to combat zones to face their individual and composite moments of truth.

And suddenly nothing more is heard about the miracle weapons that were going to make mincemeat of anyone silly enough to take on Uncle Sam and his arsenal.

We hear, instead, about the enemy's fiendish and devilish weapons and how good they are.

We are given photographs and reports of our young men being hacked, chopped, cut to ribbons and blown to bits by what must be extremely good weapons in the hands of a dedicated and skilled enemy.

What becomes of the miracle weapons when war starts?

No offense — we're just asking.

Letter From Max

Dear Truman Twill:

After all the trouble that electric power failure in the northeast U.S. caused it was reassuring the cause finally was discovered.

You have been right all this time in reminding us that the bigger things get, like the giant power grid, the smaller and smaller the things get that can cause snafus. Like that tiny relay device that turned out the lights in millions of homes.

Some of us skeptics figured the government never would announce the cause of the failure for fear of tipping off possible saboteurs as to how easily such a thing could be done.

But an electrical engineer told me any expert knew such a disaster could be caused any time if a would-be saboteur wanted to do it. He was as surprised as anybody that the cause was discovered. Such are the mysteries of electricity.

That is what I want to talk to you about, Twill. Nobody knows what electricity really is and my theory is that electricity, itself, is changing.

Everything else changes, so why not electricity?

If this mysterious force begins to undergo some change in its form and characteristics, we sure will be in the soup.

I mentioned this to my electrical engineer friend, and he almost had a stroke.

Long live electricity, just as she is.

I'm still laughing over President Harry ("Give 'em hell") Truman calling Rev. Martin Luther King a "trouble maker." It takes one to know one.

We keep getting cans of Mixed Nuts and someone always has to say, "They are very suitable for this family."

A friend who gave up smoking is faced with that old problem of how to let his friends know they shouldn't give him the customary carton of cigarettes this Christmas. If you have a painless method of accomplishing this, I could relay it to him.

Speaking of how a foreign-born football player improves on the way to kick a football, by using the soccer-style of booting with the side of the foot, reminds me of automobiles. I read once that just about every improvement in American-made cars has first been used in European-made cars. Did you ever hear that?

The war on poverty has come in for some kidding, but the sad part is that the whole subject couldn't draw one yuk among the poor.

Faithfully yours,

I am impressed with the damage modern teen-agers can do when they set out to wreck a house, which appears to be a current pastime. We used to do almost as much damage without making a project of it in our teen-age era.

When people rebuke me, as they do sometimes, for talking about nonsense topics like wayward antics of dogs, I can only say in my defense there are few things left these days that can be talked about without making somebody mad enough to call you either a commie or an antediluvian.

It would be interesting to do a roundup story on injuries to pro football players, to confirm a suspicion that bed cases and walking wounded outnumber healthy specimens toward the end of each season.

This is the time of year when, looking ahead to Christmas, one sees the complications instead of the compensations and wishes the whole thing could be postponed indefinitely. It makes me think about the Maine farmer who said he "had to go to Bangor to get drunk and sure dreaded it."

There are times when I wonder if a dog exchange would be a good idea. You know, like an art exchange, so if you get tired of one picture you exchange it for another. If the wrong dog reads this, I'm kidding.

When the temperature dropped, I got out a favorite overcoat with considerable mileage on it and was all set for another season until an associate asked me if I was made up to represent Napoleon on the retreat from Moscow. The coat was longer than the ones they're wearing in this era.

You don't need to be a diplomat to know why the worst thing that could happen in South Viet Nam would be another change in the government there. It would obliterate the last connection between the war U.S. troops are fighting there now and the regime that originally asked for help against "rebels."

Even Unto Thee . . .

Reds Bid To Choke Off War Material

By Victor Riesel

A global campaign is being launched by the Soviets' labor strategists to cut the production and paralyze the transportation and slash the supply of war material to allied troops in South Viet Nam.

Victor Riesel

Deadline for action has been set for Dec. 20.

What the Soviets' "labor desk" in the Central Committee of the Communist party USSR hopes for are mass action movements in the free nations of the world. This is a drive targeted at inspiring wide defections of foreign crews aboard freighters shuttling war cargo to South Vietnamese ports from American harbors, from Indian and Chinese oceanic islands as well as from the key supply centers in Japan and the Philippines.

To parallel this effort at waterfront disruption, the Soviet global labor apparatus will attempt to stir mass street demonstrations, as well as disruption in "factories, workshops and offices."

Just how much disruption, if any, can be wrought by the Soviets' labor front, the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU), will be measurable only on and in the weeks after that deadline.

But no one needs a man in the Kremlin to document the orders for such an ambitious worldwide attack upon the supply lines to U.S. troops on the jungle and rice paddy fronts.

Headquarters are in Czechoslovakia at Prague 1, Curieovych 1, telephone 67-856, where the Soviets have gathered a considerable number of American specialists. His instructions were dispatched to thousands of unions, Communist and anti-Communist, in many lands including the United States.

The Communist labor forces behind the Iron Curtain are expected to run mass demonstrations against "American Imperialism." The U.S. is to be denounced and charged with using poison gas against civilians as well as for allegedly preparing to unleash bacteriological and chemical warfare against women, children and cattle.

On this side of the Iron Curtain, Mr. Saillant, WFTU general secretary, hopes to stir action even among non-Communist unions.

The most vigorous and immediate reaction sprang from Joe Curran, leader of the National Maritime Union (NMU). He acted swiftly on an international as well as national front.

After examining the Saillant letter and document of instruction sent from Prague on Oct. 29, Curran notified all crews on all ships to be on the alert for Communist action in ports across the world.

Curran also plans to call on his colleagues inside labor throughout the U. S. to funnel information into the NMU headquarters if anything develops on the rails or airports or in any communication and transport centers.

He communicated with the anti - Communist world coalition known as the International Transport Workers' Federation in London urging it, in turn, to alert its many affiliates.

"We have to fight as hard for our side," said Joe Curran, "as they are fighting for theirs. This is the kind of thing we should have been doing to them on the Cuban run and to the ships which carry supplies to North Vietnamese ports.

"Let's make certain that Defense Secretary McNamara knows what the other side is up to. Now perhaps he will put more American freighters on the high seas and stop chartering foreign flag ships, whose crews keep deserting just when we need to rush equipment into key Viet Nam ports."

What especially aroused Curran in the long document which Saillant rushed to thousands of unions on all continents was the following Communist call for sabotage:

"The Congress (of the WFTU) appeals to the workers and trade union organizations of all countries, and especially to the transport workers and trade unions, those in other branches in connection with the production, transport and supply of war material for the United States' war of aggression in Viet Nam, to make all efforts and adopt suitable forms and methods of struggle in order to boycott and prevent production and transport or supply for the American imperialists in their war of aggression in Viet Nam."

This mass movement on the labor front has been skillfully built for two years now. It began with the convening in Hanoi of the Conferences of the International Trade Union Committee for Solidarity with the Workers and People of Viet Nam against the American Imperialist Aggressors in October 1963.

Another such meeting was held early last June. There the action program was planned. Final touches were added in Warsaw last month.

Finally the Soviet-controlled global labor apparatus set Dec. 20 as its own labor action day.

Soon we'll know if this "apparat" is a paper tiger or whether they can chew up some of our supply lines.

Antarctic Base

The United States is building a new Antarctic base on what may prove to be the world's coldest occupied site.

The tiny outpost, to be known as Plateau Station, will sit atop a 13,000 - foot ridge on Antarctica's ice — mantled continental plateau. Men at the station will have no neighbors closer than the South Pole, 600 miles away.

The present world's record low temperature —127 degrees below zero Fahrenheit — was reported some 800 miles away at the Soviet Union's Vostok station on Aug. 24, 1960, the National Geographic Society says.

Vostok has an altitude of 11,444 feet. Plateau Station will be about 1,500 feet higher and slightly closer to the Pole.

Pricing Powers

Defense Stockpile Use Hit

President Johnson doesn't have any legal power to fix copper prices but he is doing so anyway. He didn't have the power to roll back aluminum prices either, but he accomplished that objective just the same by threatening to dump on the market aluminum from the government's stockpile. Mr. Johnson isn't, however, doing anything about controlling the rise in wages, which was, of course, the direct cause of the upward trend in prices.

David Lawrence

Both the copper and aluminum industries have recently been coerced into granting big wage increases under threat of costly strikes. There are, of course, valid reasons why prices should be restrained and wage-and-price stability maintained but the power to do all this is not vested in one man just because he happens to be President of the United States. Constitutionally, Congress alone can impose wage-and-price control.

The administration doubtless will be reluctant to advocate any restraint upon labor, because the financial support given by organized labor in political campaigns now has reached substantial proportions and is generally believed here to be responsible for the election of a majority in both houses of Congress.

But Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo., ranking member on the Joint Economic Committees and Rep. William B. Widnall, R-NJ, ranking member on the Joint Committee on Defense Production, have just recommended that their two committees undertake an exhaustive investigation as soon as Congress meets.

THE TWO CONGRESSMEN issued a comprehensive statement declaring that the administration's recent activity in relating the stockpile to the price situation "was clearly in violation of the intent of the Defense Production Act of 1951 and raised the crucial issue of the rights of management to make decisions about the use of privately owned resources."

The statement points out that the Joint Defense Production Committee in its 1959 annual report declared that "the stockpile should be limited to defense needs, and that it is not the purpose of these programs to regulate prices or to solve economic problems."

Even as recently as Oct. 4, 1965, the deputy director of the Office of Economic Planning, Franklin B. Dryden, in testifying before the Joint Congressional Committee on Defense Production, restated his agency's position that large disposal of stockpile items should be made "without adversely affecting market conditions."

What President Johnson has done is, of course, just the opposite of these declarations. If governmental action is necessary, the feeling is growing that Congress should spell it out in a statute and that arbitrary steps should not be taken which could shake confidence in the whole economic system.

THE BIG MYSTERY here is why the administration has been operating in such a curious way in the last two weeks with respect to both aluminum and copper prices. At first, it was announced that the government would sell in the next year 300,000 tons of aluminum. When the companies went to Washington to urge restraint, they were told that the administration was going ahead anyhow. As soon, however, as the aluminum companies rolled back their prices, the administration reversed its position and cut down the amount of aluminum to be sold to something between 100,000 and 200,000 tons a year, which is what the industry all along has been in favor of doing.

But during the controversy over aluminum, criticism was voiced that nothing had been done by the administration about the recent rise in copper prices. So Secretary McNamara was selected again by the President to make public announcement of the government's intention to sell 200,000 tons of copper from the national stockpile.

There are, of course, various reasons why prices should be fixed in the midst of a war crisis.

While the objective is to prevent inflation, the method being used today by the administration is not likely to accomplish stability but will produce an uneasy feeling among businessmen and perhaps even disturb international trade by invading the field of prices abroad.

Mr. Johnson isn't, however, doing anything about controlling the rise in wages, which was, of course, the direct cause of the upward trend in prices.

David Lawrence

Both the copper and aluminum industries have recently been coerced into granting big wage increases under threat of costly strikes. There are, of course, valid reasons why prices should be restrained and wage-and-price stability maintained but the power to do all this is not vested in one man just because he happens to be President of the United States. Constitutionally, Congress alone can impose wage-and-price control.

The administration doubtless will be reluctant to advocate any restraint upon labor, because the financial support given by organized labor in political campaigns now has reached substantial proportions and is generally believed here to be responsible for the election of a majority in both houses of Congress.

But Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo., ranking member on the Joint Economic Committees and Rep. William B. Widnall, R-NJ, ranking member on the Joint Committee on Defense Production, have just recommended that their two committees undertake an exhaustive investigation as soon as Congress meets.

THE TWO CONGRESSMEN issued a comprehensive statement declaring that the administration's recent activity in relating the stockpile to the price situation "was clearly in violation of the intent of the Defense Production Act of 1951 and raised the crucial issue of the rights of management to make decisions about the use of privately owned resources."

The statement points out that the Joint Defense Production Committee in its 1959 annual report declared that "the stockpile should be limited to defense needs, and that it is not the purpose of these programs to regulate prices or to solve economic problems."

Even as recently as Oct. 4, 1965, the deputy director of the Office of Economic Planning, Franklin B. Dryden, in testifying before the Joint Congressional Committee on Defense Production, restated his agency's position that large disposal of stockpile items should be made "without adversely affecting market conditions."

What President Johnson has done is, of course, just the opposite of these declarations. If governmental action is necessary, the feeling is growing that Congress should spell it out in a statute and that arbitrary steps should not be taken which could shake confidence in the whole economic system.

THE BIG MYSTERY here is why the administration has been operating in such a curious way in the last two weeks with respect to both aluminum and copper prices. At first, it was announced that the government would sell in the next year 300,000 tons of aluminum. When the companies went to Washington to urge restraint, they were told that the administration was going ahead anyhow. As soon, however, as the aluminum companies rolled back their prices, the administration reversed its position and cut down the amount of aluminum to be sold to something between 100,000 and 200,000 tons a year, which is what the industry all along has been in favor of doing.

But during the controversy over aluminum, criticism was voiced that nothing had been done by the administration about the recent rise in copper prices. So Secretary McNamara was selected again by the President to make public announcement of the government's intention to sell 200,000 tons of copper from the national stockpile.

There are, of course, various reasons why prices should be fixed in the midst of a war crisis.

While the objective is to prevent inflation, the method being used today by the administration is not likely to accomplish stability but will produce an uneasy feeling among businessmen and perhaps even disturb international trade by invading the field of prices abroad.

Through The Years

From The Review Files

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Boy Scout Troop 38 of the Methodist Protestant Church, with Harold J. Gallimore scoutmaster, conducted a drive for used toys for needy children.

The Board of Education ruled that any child in the East Liverpool schools who refused to salute the American flag would be expelled.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — The deed for property east of 13th St., at the eastern end of the borough, was received by the Midland School Board for the erection of a stadium and football field.

Treasured red points became worthless, but East Liverpool housewives held their meat purchases to normal despite the unexpected end of rationing after almost three years.

One Key Figure In 1964 Scandal

9 Young Darien Persons Arrested On Dope Charge

DARIEN, Conn., (AP) — Nine young persons, including Michael J. Smith, a key figure in a teen-age drinking scandal that shook this fashionable city a year ago, are free on bond today on narcotics charges.

Smith, 20, and eight friends were arrested Sunday in a predawn police raid on Smith's apartment. Eight were charged with violating the state narcotics act, and freed on bonds of $3,000 to $5,000.

The other, a 15-year-old girl, whose name was withheld, was released in custody of her parents and will be referred to juvenile authorities.

Police said a "quantity of a substance believed to be marihuana" was found in the apartment shared by Smith and Jack White, 19.

Thirteen months ago, four socially prominent Darien couples and several other adults were arrested on charges of serving liquor to minors at private parties.

The charges resulted from reported drinking at coming-out parties for two debutantes and the death of an Eastern Air Lines executive's daughter, Nancy Hitchings, 17, in an automobile accident after the parties.

Smith was convicted of negligent homicide in the death of Miss Hitchings. He has an appeal pending.

During Smith's trial, Circuit Judge Rodney S. Eielson ordered the arrests of the adults involved in the parties.

A psychiatrist and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. George Hughes, appealed to the State Supreme Court their $500 fines on the charge of serving liquor to minors. The court declined to review their cases.

The others convicted did not appeal. Charges against 5 of the 13, including two caterers and a bartender, eventually were dropped.

Acting Police Chief Hugh McManus declined to say how Sunday's raid took place, except to say that the officers had search warrants, and that the raid was "a planned affair."

Among those arrested was Glenn Carter, 20, of neighboring New Canaan. Carter had testified as a prosecution witness in Smith's trial last year.

Carter said that he and some friends were visiting Smith and White. He said none of the six boys or three girls present had marihuana on his person, as far as he knew.

Besides Smith, White and Carter, others at the apartment were Thomas Alpert, 19, and William Weir, 20, Darien; Allen G. Lanier, 19, New York City; and Marilynn Zodda, 16, and Judy Melfi, 19, Darien, police said.

Police said that because of the 15-year-old girl's presence, the boys also were charged with violating a state law dealing with injury or risk of injury to children.

Police Bare Version Of Goldilocks Fable

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police reported a version of the Goldilocks fable sans porridge over the weekend here.

Judy Christie returned to her northside home in the early morning hours Sunday to find glass in the front door broken. The official police report added:

"She found that two people had been in her bed and they had drank two bottles of beer which they had brought with them. They had turned on her lights and radio and left."

Cregar Named Again By Veterans' Council

Others named include Kenneth Yost, vice president; Mrs. Mary E. Wines, secretary; Ray Cunningham, treasurer, and Mrs. Helen Jones, chaplain.

John Ruhe was re-appointed Americanism officer and Harry Price was named as chairman of a by-law committee. Reports were heard on Veterans Day activities.

A Christmas party will feature the Dec. 17 meeting at City Hall. Mrs. Gertrude Ward is chairman of arrangements.

When modern recipes call for brown sugar, the term "firmly packed" follows. To measure the sugar this way, fill the cup (or fraction of a cup) with the brown sugar and as you do so press it down so tightly and firmly that when turned out it holds its shape; level off the measure with a spatula.

Wellsville Event Draws 150

Awards Given At Band's Banquet

Twelve senior members of the band were recognized. They are Tom Geer, Juanita Montgomery, Debbie Pittenger, Gwen Parker, Olivia McCuen, Susan Steele, Keith Thorn, Nancy McClellan, Jane Fieldings, Mary Kay Bratt, Arloski and Virginia Holowaty.

Letters were presented the majorettes. Also recognized were first and second year band members.

Pangle was presented a sweater as a gift from the band. He served as master of ceremonies.

The banquet was sponsored by the Wellsville Band Parents and the meal was served by the Ladies Fellowship of the church.

New band officers announced are Miss Pittenger, president; Miss Bratt, secretary-treasurer, and Geer, vice president and property manager.

A record hop followed at MacDonald School.

The band will perform in the East Liverpool Christmas parade Friday night and at Toronto Saturday night. It also will march in Wellsville's Christmas parade Dec. 4.

The annual Christmas concert will be Dec. 23. It will feature the marching band, Junior High Band, Elementary Band and Swing Band. Pangle said this is the first performance by the Junior Band in six years and the first time the district has had a performing elementary band of fifth and sixth grade students.

Government troops also captured nearly 100 enemy weapons, many of them late-model types including recoilless rifles, light machine guns and Chinese-type assault rifles.

About 1,000 Viet Cong hit a Vietnamese regimental and artillery command post 40 miles northwest of Saigon. A few of the attackers penetrated the post's defense perimeter but were thrown back. The Vietnamese claimed they killed 100 of the attackers.

There was no report of government casualties in the action.

U.S. troops suffered light casualties and U.S. Army helicopters, refueling trucks and buildings were damaged by a 15-minute mortar barrage on the Soc Trang airfield 95 miles southwest of Saigon, a U.S. spokesman said.

The spokesman refused to disclose the extent of damage under a new restriction on press coverage of the war.

There were no reports of new fighting between troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division and North Vietnamese soldiers in the Ia Drang Valley 220 miles north of Saigon.

Fighting in the valley Sunday was termed light to moderate, and the spokesman said the Americans suffered light casualties. Four North Vientamese were reported killed.

This action took place near the site of a battle Saturday night in which a Vietnamese paratroop task force said it killed 180 North Vietnamese and suffered light casualties. There was no confirmation of the casualty claim.

The 180 Communists reported killed would raise to 1,952 the number of enemy dead during fighting in the central highlands near the Cambodian border since an attack on a Special Forces camp at Plei Me last month.

U.S. 1st Infantry troops killed 40 Viet Cong and suffered light casualties in beating off an attack along the edge of the Communist D Zone about 40 miles north of Saigon. U.S. planes destroyed a village from which the Viet Cong was operating, a spokesman said.

In other action over the weekend:

A U.S. Air Force B123 suffered a power failure and crashed short of the runway at Dan Nang, seriously injuring the seven crewmen aboard and a Marine guard on the ground.

Special Train Taking Ike To Washington

The 75-year-old general is recovering from his second heart attack, and doctors report they are pleased with his progress. He has been hospitalized at the Army hospital here since Nov. 9.

An Army ambulance will take Eisenhower to the railroad siding where he will be placed in his special compartment aboard the Army-ordered eight-car train. Another Army ambulance will meet the train about 14 hours later somewhere in the Washington area to move him to the Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Eisenhower's 8 - by 11 - foot compartment in the train's third car has been equipped with a hospital bed and assorted emergency and heart monitoring equipment.

The rest of the car will be occupied by doctors and nurses.

Mrs. Eisenhower and members of the general's staff will travel in the fourth car — a private car belonging to an official of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

The train will make only one stop en route, for equipment servicing. The location of the stop is classified information.

Saturday afternoon, Eisenhower made his first public appearance since suffering his heart attack. He was wheeled onto the porch of his hospital suite to talk briefly with newsmen and have his picture taken.

"I am really feeling ready to go," he told the reporters.

Would he play golf again? Eisenhower said he was willing to obey his doctors' orders, but added with a grin:

"If they order me not to play golf, then there'll be an argument."

working conditions. McDonnell President David Lewis contends the proposed contract offer of a 9-cent-an-hour increase in each of the next three years is the best offered in the aircraft industry this year.

McDonnell, a major defense contractor, is doing key work in the Gemini and Phantom jet fighter plane programs.

The union says McDonnell gets the government jobs because it can underbid other firms whose wages rates are almost $1 higher.

opment of doctrine and practice in air warfare. He has accepted a job with a California electronics firm.

In the exclusive interview, LeMay underscored and elaborated on what he has said previously about the air war against North Viet Nam.

"What I propose is stepping up the attacks and making it progressively more expensive for the North Vietnamese to continue the war in the South," LeMay said.

"I don't advocate complete devastation of the North (although we have the capability of doing this if necessary). I do not advocate attacking the people; rather, they should be warned away from targets.

"I do advocate attacking more important targets such as air fields with MIGs on them, power plants, oil storage, industrial targets, ports, etc."

LeMay said there is "a real danger" that the Chinese Communists "might find it attractive to escalate their support (for North Viet Nam's aggression) slowly, hoping to prolong the war, increase our losses, and thereby weaken our will and support here at home."

He said "I am not advocating" any preventive air strikes against Communist China's atomic installations.

However, the general did not rule out the possibility of such strikes, saying that "if this were the solution arrived at, and if the strikes were directed by the President, the Air Force could do the job."

Wellsville Event Draws 150

Awards Given At Band's Banquet

Letters were presented the majorettes. Also recognized were first and second year band members.

Pangle was presented a sweater as a gift from the band. He served as master of ceremonies.

The banquet was sponsored by the Wellsville Band Parents and the meal was served by the Ladies Fellowship of the church.

New band officers announced are Miss Pittenger, president; Miss Bratt, secretary-treasurer, and Geer, vice president and property manager.

A record hop followed at MacDonald School.

The band will perform in the East Liverpool Christmas parade Friday night and at Toronto Saturday night. It also will march in Wellsville's Christmas parade Dec. 4.

The annual Christmas concert will be Dec. 23. It will feature the marching band, Junior High Band, Elementary Band and Swing Band. Pangle said this is the first performance by the Junior Band in six years and the first time the district has had a performing elementary band of fifth and sixth grade students.

Government troops also captured nearly 100 enemy weapons, many of them late-model types including recoilless rifles, light machine guns and Chinese-type assault rifles.

About 1,000 Viet Cong hit a Vietnamese regimental and artillery command post 40 miles northwest of Saigon. A few of the attackers penetrated the post's defense perimeter but were thrown back. The Vietnamese claimed they killed 100 of the attackers.

There was no report of government casualties in the action.

U.S. troops suffered light casualties and U.S. Army helicopters, refueling trucks and buildings were damaged by a 15-minute mortar barrage on the Soc Trang airfield 95 miles southwest of Saigon, a U.S. spokesman said.

The spokesman refused to disclose the extent of damage under a new restriction on press coverage of the war.

There were no reports of new fighting between troops of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division and North Vietnamese soldiers in the Ia Drang Valley 220 miles north of Saigon.

Fighting in the valley Sunday was termed light to moderate, and the spokesman said the Americans suffered light casualties. Four North Vientamese were reported killed.

This action took place near the site of a battle Saturday night in which a Vietnamese paratroop task force said it killed 180 North Vietnamese and suffered light casualties. There was no confirmation of the casualty claim.

The 180 Communists reported killed would raise to 1,952 the number of enemy dead during fighting in the central highlands near the Cambodian border since an attack on a Special Forces camp at Plei Me last month.

U.S. 1st Infantry troops killed 40 Viet Cong and suffered light casualties in beating off an attack along the edge of the Communist D Zone about 40 miles north of Saigon. U.S. planes destroyed a village from which the Viet Cong was operating, a spokesman said.

In other action over the weekend:

A U.S. Air Force B123 suffered a power failure and crashed short of the runway at Dan Nang, seriously injuring the seven crewmen aboard and a Marine guard on the ground.

Special Train Taking Ike To Washington

The 75-year-old general is recovering from his second heart attack, and doctors report they are pleased with his progress. He has been hospitalized at the Army hospital here since Nov. 9.

An Army ambulance will take Eisenhower to the railroad siding where he will be placed in his special compartment aboard the Army-ordered eight-car train. Another Army ambulance will meet the train about 14 hours later somewhere in the Washington area to move him to the Walter Reed Army Hospital.

Eisenhower's 8 - by 11 - foot compartment in the train's third car has been equipped with a hospital bed and assorted emergency and heart monitoring equipment.

The rest of the car will be occupied by doctors and nurses.

Mrs. Eisenhower and members of the general's staff will travel in the fourth car — a private car belonging to an official of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

The train will make only one stop en route, for equipment servicing. The location of the stop is classified information.

Saturday afternoon, Eisenhower made his first public appearance since suffering his heart attack. He was wheeled onto the porch of his hospital suite to talk briefly with newsmen and have his picture taken.

"I am really feeling ready to go," he told the reporters.

Would he play golf again? Eisenhower said he was willing to obey his doctors' orders, but added with a grin:

"If they order me not to play golf, then there'll be an argument."

Secretary In Brazil Interview

Rusk Claims Communism Recedes In Latin America

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that communism has receded in Latin America over the past few years.

"I think there is no doubt that it has lost strength in Latin America," Rusk said in an ABC television interview.

Rusk, who last visited South American in 1962, said there are indications Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro now "realizes that his type of activity cannot succeed."

He said Castro is perhaps less active now than before. And in some Latin-American countries the voters have rejected Castro as a solution to their problems, he said, adding:

"I think that undoubtedly the situation in the hemisphere is stronger today from that point of view than it was a year or two ago."

Rusk was to present the U.S. position to the inter-American conference this afternoon.

The hemisphere foreign ministers are discussing ways to update the inter-American system to deal with changing political and economic needs. Seven of the 19 foreign-policy leaders have spokesn since the two-week meeting begn Nov. 17.

The U.S. delegation has kept its specific proposals under wraps pending Rusk's speech but the general theme is known.

The United States would like to have the hemisphere ministers meet every year for general review sessions rather than at five-year intervals as prescribed by the charter of the Organization of American States.

The United States also wants less - cumbersome procedures for OAS action and more power for the secretary-general.

Firemen Drag River For Body Of Woman

CLARKSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Firemen dragged the Shenango River for the body of a woman Sunday night about a mile north of this Mercer County town where her car was found in ten feet of water, state police said.

They said the auto, owned by Mary P. D'Alonzo, 51, of Sharon, was discovered early Sunday morning just off Route 18 by a passing motorist who spotted its headlights beaming in the water.

Officers said they believe the woman's car went over an embankment and into the river as she returned home from work in Sharon.

Students Top $1,000 Goal For GI Goodies

FROSTBURG, Md. (AP) — Students at Frostburg State College have topped a goal to collect $1,000 to buy candy, cigarettes and chewing gum for an American battalion in Viet Nam.

Cochairman of the drive, John Stewart, Kensington, said the five-day effort which started last Monday netted $1,003. He said the gifts will be sent to the 3rd Battalion of the 3rd Marine Division, which includes residents of Maryland.

"In establishing American independence, the pen and the press had a merit equal to that of the world." — David Ramsey, American physician, historian and author of "The History of the American Revolution."

E. C. Crane, 65, Ohio Newspaper Executive, Dies

Crane, 65, was the son of a newspaperman and had been in the newspaper business most of his life. Death came in Lancaster Fairfield Hospital, on whose board of governors he had served, after a short illness.

Crane's newspaper career started on the century-old Miami Gazette, which his father published at Waynesville. After attending Wilmington and Kenyon Colleges, Crane worked on the Western Star at Lebanon, the state's oldest weekly.

He spent a year with the Fort Lauderdale News during Florida's land boom.

He returned to Ohio as city editor of the Wilmington News Journal, then after a year there joined the old Dayton Journal, now the Journal-Herald. Crane began as a reporter, rose to Sunday editor, city editor and then managing editor during 14 years with that newspaper.

He was named executive vice president of the Eagle Gazette Co. in December, 1957, by Charles Sawyer, president and publisher.

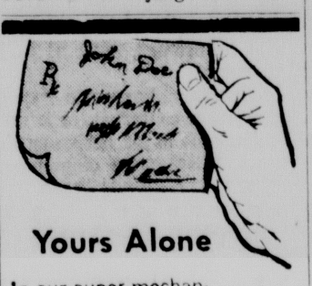

Throughout his life, Crane was active in civic affairs and in the Ohio Newspaper Association.

Secretary In Brazil Interview

Rusk Claims Communism Recedes In Latin America

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk said today that communism has receded in Latin America over the past few years.

"I think there is no doubt that it has lost strength in Latin America," Rusk said in an ABC television interview.

Rusk, who last visited South American in 1962, said there are indications Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro now "realizes that his type of activity cannot succeed."

He said Castro is perhaps less active now than before. And in some Latin-American countries the voters have rejected Castro as a solution to their problems, he said, adding:

"I think that undoubtedly the situation in the hemisphere is stronger today from that point of view than it was a year or two ago."

Rusk was to present the U.S. position to the inter-American conference this afternoon.

The hemisphere foreign ministers are discussing ways to update the inter-American system to deal with changing political and economic needs. Seven of the 19 foreign-policy leaders have spokesn since the two-week meeting begn Nov. 17.

The U.S. delegation has kept its specific proposals under wraps pending Rusk's speech but the general theme is known.

The United States would like to have the hemisphere ministers meet every year for general review sessions rather than at five-year intervals as prescribed by the charter of the Organization of American States.

The United States also wants less - cumbersome procedures for OAS action and more power for the secretary-general.

Firemen Drag River For Body Of Woman

CLARKSVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Firemen dragged the Shenango River for the body of a woman Sunday night about a mile north of this Mercer County town where her car was found in ten feet of water, state police said.

They said the auto, owned by Mary P. D'Alonzo, 51, of Sharon, was discovered early Sunday morning just off Route 18 by a passing motorist who spotted its headlights beaming in the water.

Officers said they believe the woman's car went over an embankment and into the river as she returned home from work in Sharon.

FROSTBURG, Md. (AP) — Students at Frostburg State College have topped a goal to collect $1,000 to buy candy, cigarettes and chewing gum for an American battalion in Viet Nam.

Cochairman of the drive, John Stewart, Kensington, said the five-day effort which started last Monday netted $1,003. He said the gifts will be sent to the 3rd Battalion of the 3rd Marine Division, which includes residents of Maryland.

E. C. Crane, 65, Ohio Newspaper Executive, Dies

Crane, 65, was the son of a newspaperman and had been in the newspaper business most of his life. Death came in Lancaster Fairfield Hospital, on whose board of governors he had served, after a short illness.

Crane's newspaper career started on the century-old Miami Gazette, which his father published at Waynesville. After attending Wilmington and Kenyon Colleges, Crane worked on the Western Star at Lebanon, the state's oldest weekly.

He spent a year with the Fort Lauderdale News during Florida's land boom.

He returned to Ohio as city editor of the Wilmington News Journal, then after a year there joined the old Dayton Journal, now the Journal-Herald. Crane began as a reporter, rose to Sunday editor, city editor and then managing editor during 14 years with that newspaper.

He was named executive vice president of the Eagle Gazette Co. in December, 1957, by Charles Sawyer, president and publisher.

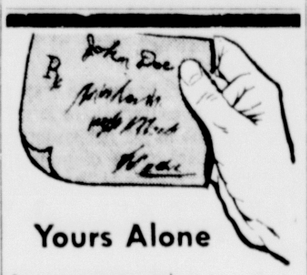

Throughout his life, Crane was active in civic affairs and in the Ohio Newspaper Association.

Survivors include the widow; a son, John R. Carne, Dayton, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Brooks, Circleville, and Mrs. Richard Crosthwait, Woodbury, N. J.

Your Floors Can Be Wallpapered

But wallpaper can be used successfully on floors, say those who do use it, providing it is applied properly. It even stands up in the kitchen, which gets the hardest wear and tear of all rooms in most homes, providing it is treated for extra protection.

THE METHOD suggested is one that involves putting a protective coating over the wallpaper after it is put down.

Two coats of clear liquid vinyl may be poured on, the second after the first has dried. It should give the wallpaper a good surface that will resist scuffing and tearing.

A floor of an entranceway in a home can look good after five months' wear on one coat of clear varnish. But lots of factors are involved.

Some homes take more abuse than others, and the surface should be finished to cope with it. Some people put a coat of wax over the varnish, but if an area rug is to be used over the paper, waxed floors can be a potential danger as little rugs may slide.

Wallpapering a floor involves the same principle as wall application — start at a corner, and work across, matching the pattern. If the design is large, it should be centered, working out from the middle of the floor, so that everything comes out even on both sides of it.

ONE IDEA in choosing patterns for wall and floor is to match them. Checks, plaids, tweeds, brick and pebble patterns all look good on floors.

Companion papers can be found for walls, but don't make the contrast too overwhelming. Some of the best wallpapered floors are done with the idea that the design will wear down, and the ultimate worn look is the one that will blend in well with furnishings, such as early American.

In Colonial times one way to stray from conservatism in decorating was to put design on the floors. These were often painted to look like designs in hooked rugs, inserting the designs in little octagonals or squares. They also liked spattered floors.

Wallpaper may be carried up the wall from the floor to make a room look larger, with a stripe going around the wall above it.

But it depends on the pattern of the paper. In narrow rooms stripes may be used to make the room look wider by running the wallpaper horizontally across the room.

Need Good Work Bench? Here's How To Make One

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

There is probably nothing more essential to the amateur home mechanic than a good, solid work bench or table.

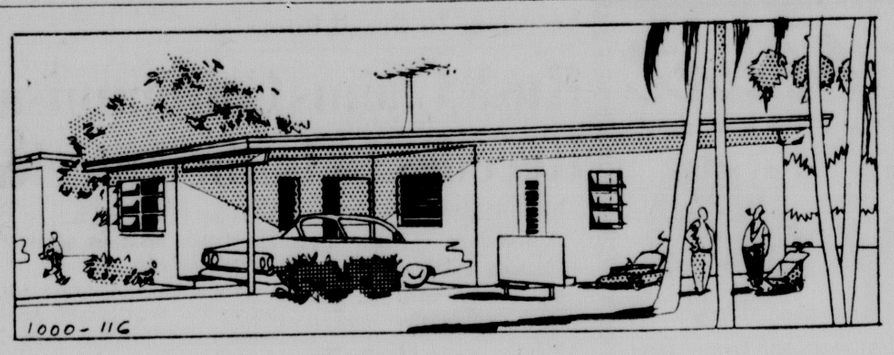

It is an item which takes very little time to construct. Probably nine out of 10 homemade work benches are put together out of odds and ends of lumber and without any basic idea of the construction which best yields a sturdy table, one to which a vise or other piece of equipment can be attached.

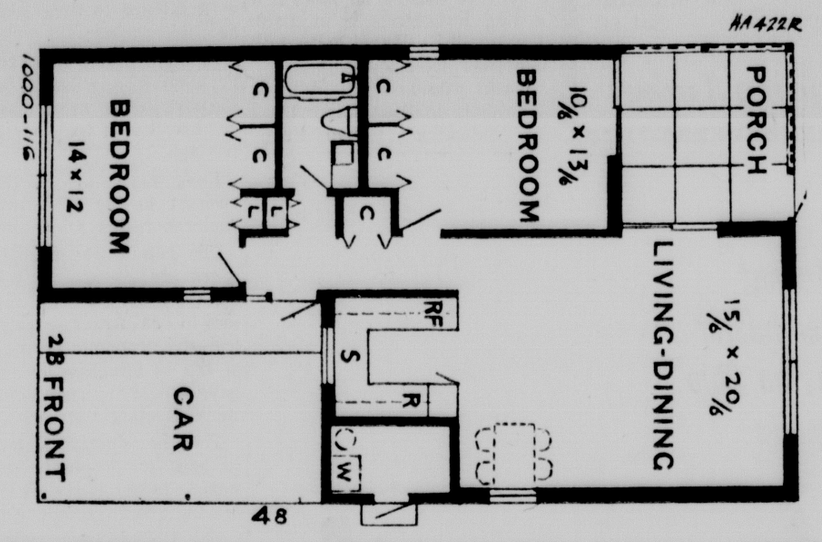

A good, substantial and workman - like item of furniture can be easily made by any home owner, according to the following specifications:

The work bench should be made of four pieces of 4' x 4' lumber set into the corners of a 2' x 4' frame. Then, across the top of this frame 1½" or 2" planks should be laid for the table top. Cross braces of 2'x4' should span the legs at the end. And then a 2'x4' stretcher should run across these under the table.

It is suggested that the table be first assembled and then nailed together with heavy nails; then that the various members can be bored through and lag-screws set in at the connections.

A table of this kind can actually be cut and then assembled in about two hours. One or two coats of heavy gray paint will then prevent penetration of dampness and will materially increase the value of the assembly. It is a very valuable asset to any handyman's workshop or basement.

THIS COMPACT two-bedroom home will fit on a 45-foot-wide lot. And no major windows face toward neighbors. If this is built as a vacation home on water, the windowed living room and screened porch front on the water. The home is entered through the extra-wide carport. An entrance hall leads to the living room and the bedrooms. Closets (which sound-proof the bathroom) have bifold doors. Kitchen may be separated from the living room by a folding door. The laundry room has back-to-back plumbing with the kitchen and is accessible from the outside only. HA422R was designed by Jan Reiner, 1000 52nd Street North, St. Petersburg, Fla., and contains 1,000 square feet.

Uncle Sam Loaning Reindeer To Eskimos

The Bureau of Indian affairs has agreed to ship 200 head from its Nunivak Island herd to three Eskimos who have leased grazing rights on Hagemeister island in Bristol Bay.

If the animals prosper and multiply, the loan will be repaid in the form of reindeer.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Stubborness Cured With Kind Words

If you have a child between two and five years of age, he may get very stubborn at times. Published studies reveal that stubbornness runs highest in youngsters during this age period. Suppose your youngster two or three scatters a box or basket of toys over the floor and is about to leave them there. Then suppose you command this child to pick up these toys. He probably won't. Suppose you proceed to make him obey, and say, "You must." You spank him, and he screams but doesn't pick up the toys.

Dr. Garry Myers

As your anger grows you spank him more times and harder. Still he doesn't obey. If you beat him almost to death, he almost surely won't. In desperation you may seize him bodily with one hand and his right hand with your other hand, drag him to a toy, close his hand over it, yank him to the box and release his hand.

—:—

YOU SAY to him or silently to yourself, "I'll show you that you must." Yet you just fooled yourself by supposing you made him obey; you only used him as a robot. He didn't really pick up the blocks.

In a single day you may have many tragic scenes like this one. You must have been practicing him in stubborness.

Some reader will ask, "What would you have done?"

My answer is that I wouldn't have told that little child in the first place to pick up the toys. I would have asked him in a quiet, persuasive tone to put the toys back into the box. Hoping to win him to do so I would have, cheerfully, helped him, and as he joined in helping me, I would have approved him with a loving pat and gracious words of praise.

If, however, he were 7 or 8 years old, I would have commanded him and then have punished him if he did not obey.

Having requested this youngster to pick up the toys I implied that he could choose whether to pick them up or not. If he didn't choose to do so he had not disobeyed. I had not commanded him at all. Then I had no occasion to punish him if he chose not to pick up the blocks. But once I had commanded him, told him he must pick up the blocks, I, naturally, felt obliged to make my word good.

HERE IS a nice distinction which makes sense. But in all the years I've been writing this column I don't think I have prevailed on very many parents to discern and observe this distinction. Most parents, regardless of their native intelligence or amount of education, consider a request they make of a child the same as if it had been a command.

If they ask the youngster of any age to do something and he doesn't, they are angry and add in word or deed, "You must."

When you wish your child two, three or four to do something, make of him a request; don't command him. But if he is doing or is about to do something you are sure he should not do, say "No" or "Don't" just once in a moderate tone.

If he does not obey promptly give him physical pain or some other effective discomfort immediately. As you do so you deter him; the forbidden act itself becomes repellent or less attractive.

BUT IF you command this little tot to do something and give him physical discomfort, the thing you want him to do becomes repellent and he inclines not to do it. Make pleasant the many things you want your young child to do in your presence and painful only the few things you want him never to do. Then you won't have a stubborn child.

My bulletins, "Celebrate Your Child's Successes," "How to Teach Child Meaning of No," and "Stubbornness: Its Prevention and Correction," may be secured by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Bottom Not Reached In Steel Output

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Although a demand appears to be strengthening, some analysts think the bottom has not been reached yet in steel production, Steel Magazine said today.

Their reasons are that some producers are still rebuilding mill inventories and holding ingot output at an artificially high level, Steel said. Also purchasers are under pressure to trim inventories by Dec. 31 to avoid yearend inventory taxes.

The workdown of user inventories is influencing some mills to make a three to five per cent downward revision in their projections for December and January operations, the metal working weekly added.

Nevertheless, order entry is edging upward, and steel melting has gone into a "sidewise pattern" after seven weeks of downtrend, the magazine said.

Sources of strongest demand are the construction and railroad industries and builders of railroad freight cars. Their needs keep plate demand strong, Steel said.

Steel said that although pressure for price increases continue to exist, government "persuasion" and competition from imports are restraints.

In the week ended Nov. 20 production of ingots and castings was estimated to be 2,045,000 net tons compared with 2,030,000 tons in the week ended Nov. 13 and 2,021,000 tons in the week ended Nov. 6.

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting scrap advanced 33 cents a ton to $30.50, reflecting strength in the Chicago market, the magazine added.

Tips Are Offered On Repainting Of Kitchen Cabinets

Question: The paint on the kitchen cabinets in the house we just bought is wearing thin.

In some places, touches of yellow show through the top coat of white. In other places, the paint seems intact and is nice and glossy. We would like to repaint the cabinets, which are made of wood, but we don't know what kind.

Do we have to take off all the best type of paint to use in repainting?

Answer: Removing all the old paint from the kitchen cabinets would be quite a job, but would be the best way to get a top-notch result.

It would be especially desirable if the original wood is of good quality, since then you might desire to use some kind of clear refinishing material.

However, assuming that you wish to repaint without removing the old finish, sand the cabinets — lightly in the area which is worn, with a little more pressure in the places that are still glossy. Be sure to sand down any spots where, during the previous painting, paint was allowed to drip and form bumps.

Apply a coat of primer or conditioner, then go ahead with two coats of a good quality enamel, which is desirable in a kitchen because of its excellent washability.

If, in addition to being worn, the present paint has a covering of dirt and grease, wash down the cabinets with water and a mild detergent. Wipe them off thoroughly with a dry, lintless cloth, then proceed with the above schedule.

Rights Field Officer Disagrees With King

CLEVELAND (AP)—A field officer for a Negro self-defense organization disagrees with Dr. Martin Luther King's policy of nonviolence in civil rights and says Southern whites merely think the nonviolent Negro is a coward.

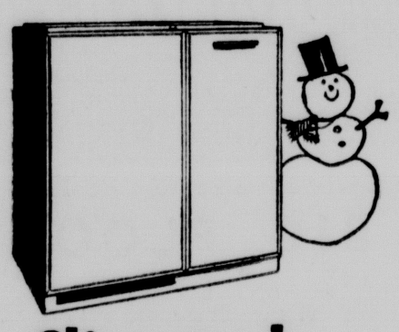

Henry Austan, a field officer from Louisianna for the Deacons for Defense and Justice, told a group at the J-F-K House Sunday that for nonviolence to be successful, your opponent must understand you are abstaining from violence. Austan said Negroes must defend themselves.

Ohio Liquor Director Warns On Gambling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Liquor Control Director Donald D. Cook has taken note of a "rash" of complaints about gambling activity on liquor permit premises and issued a word of advice.

"We think some permit holders have been allowing gambling for charitable purposes simply because they don't realize it is against the law," Cook said. The permit holders must make themselves fully aware, he said, that "gambling in any form, and for any reason, including charity," violates the law and could cost their licenses.

Need Good Work Bench? Here's How To Make One

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

There is probably nothing more essential to the amateur home mechanic than a good, solid work bench or table.

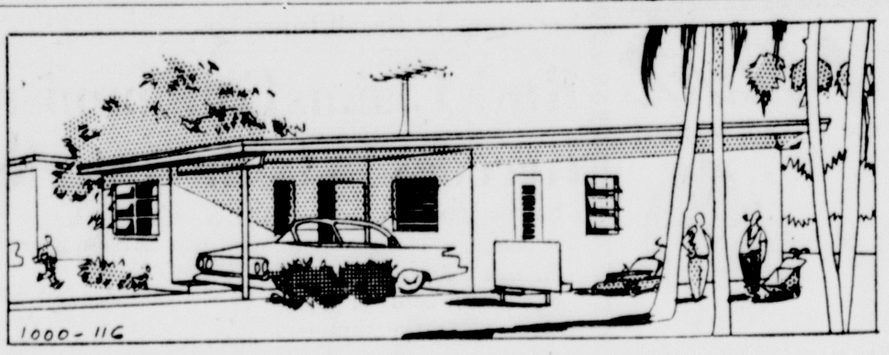

It is an item which takes very little time to construct. Probably nine out of 10 homemade work benches are put together out of odds and ends of lumber and without any basic idea of the construction which best yields a sturdy table, one to which a vise or other piece of equipment can be attached.

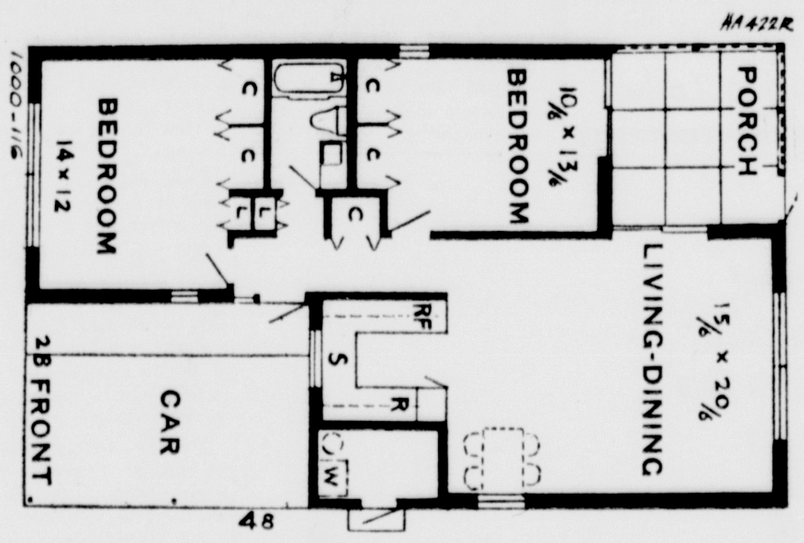

A good, substantial and workman - like item of furniture can be easily made by any home owner, according to the following specifications:

The work bench should be made of four pieces of 4' x 4' lumber set into the corners of a 2' x 4' frame. Then, across the top of this frame 1½" or 2" planks should be laid for the table top. Cross braces of 2'x4' should span the legs at the end. And then a 2'x4' stretcher should run across these under the table.

It is suggested that the table be first assembled and then nailed together with heavy nails; then that the various members can be bored through and lag-screws set in at the connections.

A table of this kind can actually be cut and then assembled in about two hours. One or two coats of heavy gray paint will then prevent penetration of dampness and will materially increase the value of the assembly. It is a very valuable asset to any handyman's workshop or basement.

THIS COMPACT two-bedroom home will fit on a 45-foot-wide lot. And no major windows face toward neighbors. If this is built as a vacation home on water, the windowed living room and screened porch front on the water. The home is entered through the extra-wide carport. An entrance hall leads to the living room and the bedrooms. Closets (which sound-proof the bathroom) have bifold doors. Kitchen may be separated from the living room by a folding door. The laundry room has back-to-back plumbing with the kitchen and is accessible from the outside only. HA422R was designed by Jan Reiner, 1000 52nd Street North, St. Petersburg, Fla., and contains 1,000 square feet.

Bottom Not Reached In Steel Output

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Although a demand appears to be strengthening, some analysts think the bottom has not been reached yet in steel production, Steel Magazine said today.

Their reasons are that some producers are still rebuilding mill inventories and holding ingot output at an artificially high level, Steel said. Also purchasers are under pressure to trim inventories by Dec. 31 to avoid yearend inventory taxes.

The workdown of user inventories is influencing some mills to make a three to five per cent downward revision in their projections for December and January operations, the metal working weekly added.

Nevertheless, order entry is edging upward, and steel melting has gone into a "sidewise pattern" after seven weeks of downtrend, the magazine said.

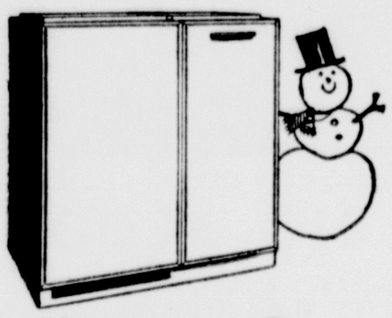

Sources of strongest demand are the construction and railroad industries and builders of railroad freight cars. Their needs keep plate demand strong, Steel said.

Steel said that although pressure for price increases continue to exist, government "persuasion" and competition from imports are restraints.

In the week ended Nov. 20 production of ingots and castings was estimated to be 2,045,000 net tons compared with 2,030,000 tons in the week ended Nov. 13 and 2,021,000 tons in the week ended Nov. 6.

Steel's composite price on No. 1 heavy melting scrap advanced 33 cents a ton to $30.50, reflecting strength in the Chicago market, the magazine added.

Bringing Up A Family

By Dr. GARRY MYERS

Stubbornness Cured With Kind Words

If you have a child between two and five years of age, he may get very stubborn at times. Published studies reveal that stubbornness runs highest in youngsters during this age period. Suppose your youngster two or three scatters a box or basket of toys over the floor and is about to leave them there. Then suppose you command this child to pick up these toys. He probably won't. Suppose you proceed to make him obey, and say, "You must." You spank him, and he screams but doesn't pick up the toys.

Dr. Garry Myers

As your anger grows you spank him more times and harder. Still he doesn't obey. If you beat him almost to death, he almost surely won't. In desperation you may seize him bodily with one hand and his right hand with your other hand, drag him to a toy, close his hand over it, yank him to the box and release his hand.

—:—

YOU SAY to him or silently to yourself, "I'll show you that you must." Yet you just fooled yourself by supposing you made him obey; you only used him as a robot. He didn't really pick up the blocks.

In a single day you may have many tragic scenes like this one. You must have been practicing him in stubborness.

Some reader will ask, "What would you have done?"

My answer is that I wouldn't have told that little child in the first place to pick up the toys. I would have asked him in a quiet, persuasive tone to put the toys back into the box. Hoping to win him to do so I would have, cheerfully, helped him, and as he joined in helping me, I would have approved him with a loving pat and gracious words of praise.

If, however, he were 7 or 8 years old, I would have commanded him and then have punished him if he did not obey.

Having requested this youngster to pick up the toys I implied that he could choose whether to pick them up or not. If he didn't choose to do so he had not disobeyed. I had not commanded him at all. Then I had no occasion to punish him if he chose not to pick up the blocks. But once I had commanded him, told him he must pick up the blocks, I, naturally, felt obliged to make my word good.

HERE IS a nice distinction which makes sense. But in all the years I've been writing this column I don't think I have prevailed on very many parents to discern and observe this distinction. Most parents, regardless of their native intelligence or amount of education, consider a request they make of a child the same as if it had been a command.

If they ask the youngster of any age to do something and he doesn't, they are angry and add in word or deed, "You must."

When you wish your child two, three or four to do something, make of him a request; don't command him. But if he is doing or is about to do something you are sure he should not do, say "No" or "Don't" just once in a moderate tone.

If he does not obey promptly give him physical pain or some other effective discomfort immediately. As you do so you deter him; the forbidden act itself becomes repellent or less attractive.

BUT IF you command this little tot to do something and give him physical discomfort, the thing you want him to do becomes repellent and he inclines not to do it. Make pleasant the many things you want your young child to do in your presence and painful only the few things you want him never to do. Then you won't have a stubborn child.

Tips Are Offered On Repainting Of Kitchen Cabinets

Question: The paint on the kitchen cabinets in the house we just bought is wearing thin.

In some places, touches of yellow show through the top coat of white. In other places, the paint seems intact and is nice and glossy. We would like to repaint the cabinets, which are made of wood, but we don't know what kind.

Do we have to take off all the best type of paint to use in repainting?

Answer: Removing all the old paint from the kitchen cabinets would be quite a job, but would be the best way to get a top-notch result.

It would be especially desirable if the original wood is of good quality, since then you might desire to use some kind of clear refinishing material.

However, assuming that you wish to repaint without removing the old finish, sand the cabinets — lightly in the area which is worn, with a little more pressure in the places that are still glossy. Be sure to sand down any spots where, during the previous painting, paint was allowed to drip and form bumps.

Apply a coat of primer or conditioner, then go ahead with two coats of a good quality enamel, which is desirable in a kitchen because of its excellent washability.

If, in addition to being worn, the present paint has a covering of dirt and grease, wash down the cabinets with water and a mild detergent. Wipe them off thoroughly with a dry, lintless cloth, then proceed with the above schedule.

Rights Field Officer Disagrees With King

Ohio Liquor Director Warns On Gambling

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Liquor Control Director Donald D. Cook has taken note of a "rash" of complaints about gambling activity on liquor permit premises and issued a word of advice.

"We think some permit holders have been allowing gambling for charitable purposes simply because they don't realize it is against the law," Cook said. The permit holders must make themselves fully aware, he said, that "gambling in any form, and for any reason, including charity," violates the law and could cost their licenses.

Wood Bleaching

Here's How To Go About It

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

The bleaching of wood should not, if you'll pardon the expression, be taken lightly.

If done properly, you can get the effect you want. If not, you'll be sorry you started it.

Learning how to bleach wood without botching the job takes practice.

Before you tackle a good piece of furniture, test your technique two or three times on scrap wood. And be sure to wear rubber gloves and old clothes to prevent burning your hands or damaging your apparel.

—:—

WHILE bleaching sometimes was used by professional wood finishers many years ago, it did not come into its own until the advent of the so - called blond finishes.

Rule No. 1 then and now. bleaching can be done only on raw wood or wood from which the old finish has been removed.

You can make your own bleach or buy one of the commercial types. The latter is likely to give better results, especially on woods which are naturally dark.

In either case, the first bleaching may not give you as light a color as you wish, which means you will have to repeat the process.

Home - made bleaching calls for the use of three solutions. The first is three ounces of oxalic acid crystals in one quart of water. It is applied with a stiff brush.

When it is partly dry, the second solution is put on. It consists of three ounces of sodium hyposulphate in a quart of water. When everything is thoroughly dry, a mixture of one ounce of borax in a quart of water is rubbed on. The borax destroys all traces of acid remaining on the wood.

WITH A commercial bleach, a two-part application is the usual procedure.

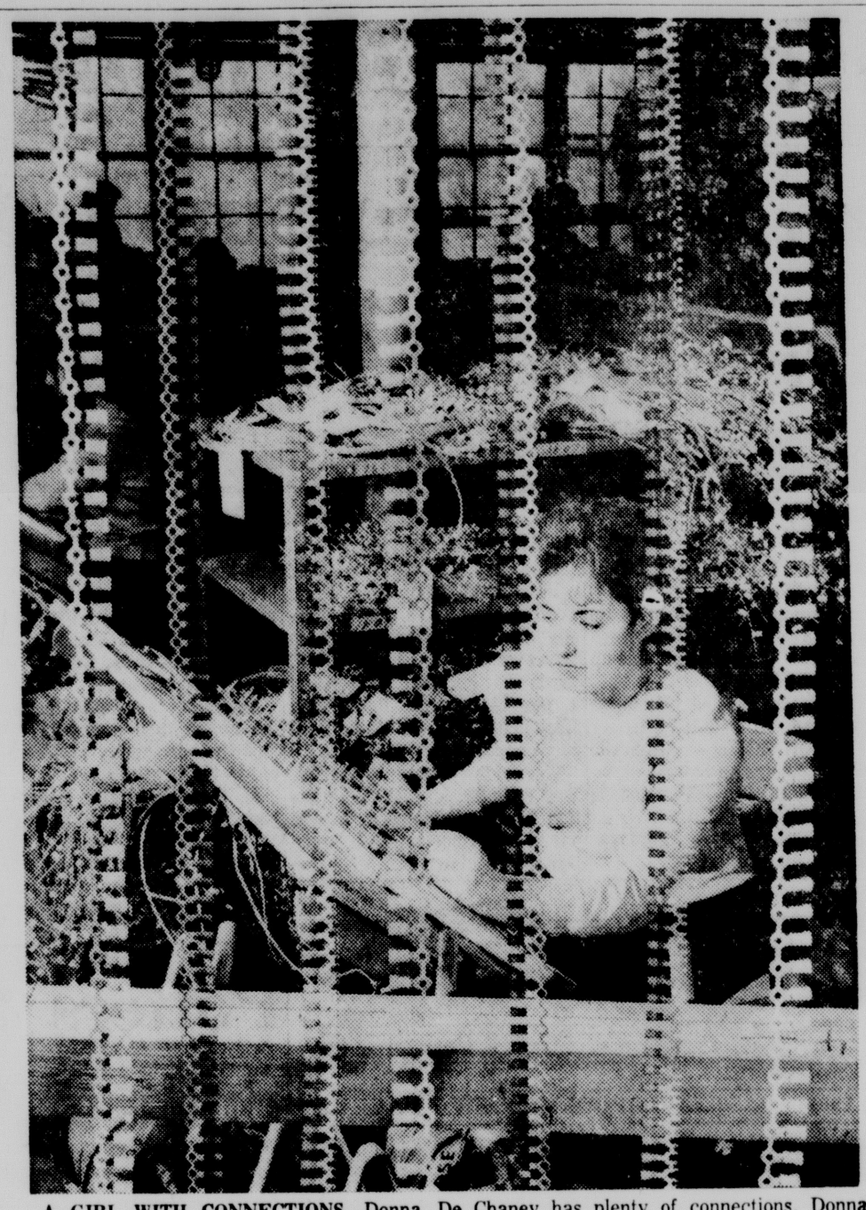

But since there are some differences in different brands, be sure to read the instructions carefully. Generally, the first solution is put on and allowed to dry about five minutes.

The second solution then is applied until the wood reaches as close to the desired color as possible. Soap and lukewarm water are used to clean off the brine left by the bleach.

Since any bleach is likely to raise the grain of the wood, be sure that the wood is sanded lightly before you go ahead with the finish.

For those who wish to make naturally light woods even lighter, what is called a blond sealer sometimes can take the place of the full bleaching process.

The sealer lightens the shade of the wood, yet allows the grain of the wood to show through. This, too, should be tested ahead of time on scrap wood to be sure the effect is what you wanted.

the State Department in Washington to the report of Romanian peace efforts.

In Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Rusk said in an ABC television interview that North Viet Nam has yet to show interest in any peace talks except on the basis of its "famous four points," which the United States has declared unacceptable.

Rusk was referring to a Hanoi statement last April setting these conditions for peace talks:

1. Withdrawal of all U.S. forces and bases from South Viet Nam;

2. A policy of no alliances for North and South Viet Nam;

3. Acceptance of the Viet Cong's political program for South Viet Nam;

4. Eventual unification of North and South Viet Nam without outside interference.

Rusk declined to elaborate on an earlier State Department comment that peace overtures made by Hanoi last year did not indicate a serious desire to negotiate.

In the fall of 1964, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant advised Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson that North Viet Nam was willing to send an emissary to Rangoon, Burma, for a secret meeting with a U.S. representative. The United States rejected that bid.

Observers in Washington said the U.S. government believed it was in too weak a position, militarily and diplomatically, to negotiate. It is felt that the U.S. position has improved considerably, and the Mansfield mission to Warsaw, Moscow, Romania, Saigon and other points could be a sign that the United States is actively seeking peace talks.

Ohio's first newspaper, published in Cincinnati in 1793, appeared 10 years before Ohio became a state.

After the collision with Larkins' car, Martin's auto traveled about four feet to the medial strip, then went 63 feet more on a long diagonal before crashing into the hillside, officers said.

Mrs. Wright became the 36th traffic victim of 1965 in Columbiana County and the fourth in East Liverpool. The county toll stood at 25 at the same time in 1964.

Mrs. Wright was born in Stratton Nov. 11, 1905, to the late Charles Thrasher and Augusta Westbrooke Thrasher. She was a member of the Port Homer Church of the Nazarene.

She is survived by four other daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Graham of Stratton, Mrs. Eugene Johnston of Wellsville, Mrs. Jack Pringano of East Liverpool and Mrs. Larry Grimm, in Germany; two sons, Clarence B. Martin of Empire and Charles Wright of Toronto; a sister, Mrs. John Keenan of Empire; two brothers, William Thrasher of Stratton and Harry Thrasher of Wellsville, and 13 grandchildren.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto by the Rev. James Conrad, pastor of the Port Homer Church of the Nazarene. Burial will be in Sugar Grove Cemetery in Empire.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight from 7 to 9.

$700,000 In Jewelry Stolen In London

LONDON (AP) — Jewelry worth more than a quarter-million pounds ($700,000) was taken from the strongroom of a fashionable West End shop today by a gang that worked its way in with acetylene torches.

A spokesman for Carrington's and Co., on Regent Street, made the estimate and added: "It is probably far in excess of a quarter of a million."

Insurance valuers, whose standard reward for stolen goods is 10 per cent, posted a reward of 30,000 pounds ($84,000).

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

An Irondale man was fined and jailed for drunken driving at a hearing Saturday afternoon before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

James Buckel was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail on the charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Buckel was arrested early Saturday morning after his car hit a parked car at 14th and Main Sts.

In a hearing today, Dorothy L. Pickens of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was fined for driving a car without an operator's permit and Terry L. Shields of East Liverpool R. D. 2 was fined for permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car.

They were cited Sunday by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol. The woman was fined $8.70 and Shields was fined $15 and costs.

them to a soldier standing guard. He placed them inside the picket fence.

Memorial services were scheduled in several cities today.

The President and Mrs. Johnson were to attend noon services at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fredericksburg, Tex., in a peaceful rural setting about 15 miles from their ranch.

In Dallas, the Rev. Oscar Huber, the priest who gave the last rites to the late president, today offers a dedicatory prayer at the John F. Kennedy Living Center, a home for exceptional youths.

Also in Dallas, various church services were scheduled for today, including a memorial Mass at the Sacred Heart Cathedral.

In Spokane, Wash., Sunday, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., delivered the dedicatory address at the new $1.1-million John F. Kennedy Pavilion at Gonzaga University.

The assassination of his brother, said Sen. Kennedy, forced "a clearer kind of thinking about the kind of people...we want to be" and "far from disrupting our country, kept it strong."

Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe has proclaimed this week as John F. Kennedy Memorial Week.

A memorial Mass will be held tonight at St. Francis Xavier Church, Hyannis, where Kennedy attended when he was in Hyannis Port.

In Boston, Richard Cardinal Cushing was to give an invocation and special prayer at noon today at the State House.

The Military District of Washington, in charge of the Kennedy grave site, estimated that by the time the cemetery gates close at dusk today, some 11,600,000 persons will have visited the grave since the assassinated leader was buried there two years ago.

Just below the grave site, workmen suspended construction today, in respect for the anniversary, on the permanent memorial for the grave. It is expected to be finished by this time next year.

Mrs. Wright became the 36th traffic victim of 1965 in Columbiana County and the fourth in East Liverpool. The county toll stood at 25 at the same time in 1964.

Mrs. Wright was born in Stratton Nov. 11, 1905, to the late Charles Thrasher and Augusta Westbrooke Thrasher. She was a member of the Port Homer Church of the Nazarene.

She is survived by four other daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Graham of Stratton, Mrs. Eugene Johnston of Wellsville, Mrs. Jack Pringano of East Liverpool and Mrs. Larry Grimm, in Germany; two sons, Clarence B. Martin of Empire and Charles Wright of Toronto; a sister, Mrs. John Keenan of Empire; two brothers, William Thrasher of Stratton and Harry Thrasher of Wellsville, and 13 grandchildren.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto by the Rev. James Conrad, pastor of the Port Homer Church of the Nazarene. Burial will be in Sugar Grove Cemetery in Empire.

Friends may call at the funeral home this afternoon and tonight from 7 to 9.

$700,000 In Jewelry Stolen In London

LONDON (AP) — Jewelry worth more than a quarter-million pounds ($700,000) was taken from the strongroom of a fashionable West End shop today by a gang that worked its way in with acetylene torches.

A spokesman for Carrington's and Co., on Regent Street, made the estimate and added: "It is probably far in excess of a quarter of a million."

Insurance valuers, whose standard reward for stolen goods is 10 per cent, posted a reward of 30,000 pounds ($84,000).

Man Fined And Jailed For Drunken Driving

An Irondale man was fined and jailed for drunken driving at a hearing Saturday afternoon before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

James Buckel was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail on the charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Buckel was arrested early Saturday morning after his car hit a parked car at 14th and Main Sts.

In a hearing today, Dorothy L. Pickens of East Liverpool R. D. 1 was fined for driving a car without an operator's permit and Terry L. Shields of East Liverpool R. D. 2 was fined for permitting an unlicensed driver to operate his car.

They were cited Sunday by the Lisbon State Highway Patrol. The woman was fined $8.70 and Shields was fined $15 and costs.

them to a soldier standing guard. He placed them inside the picket fence.

Memorial services were scheduled in several cities today.

The President and Mrs. Johnson were to attend noon services at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Fredericksburg, Tex., in a peaceful rural setting about 15 miles from their ranch.

In Dallas, the Rev. Oscar Huber, the priest who gave the last rites to the late president, today offers a dedicatory prayer at the John F. Kennedy Living Center, a home for exceptional youths.

Also in Dallas, various church services were scheduled for today, including a memorial Mass at the Sacred Heart Cathedral.

In Spokane, Wash., Sunday, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., delivered the dedicatory address at the new $1.1-million John F. Kennedy Pavilion at Gonzaga University.

The assassination of his brother, said Sen. Kennedy, forced "a clearer kind of thinking about the kind of people...we want to be" and "far from disrupting our country, kept it strong."

Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe has proclaimed this week as John F. Kennedy Memorial Week.

A memorial Mass will be held tonight at St. Francis Xavier Church, Hyannis, where Kennedy attended when he was in Hyannis Port.

The Military District of Washington, in charge of the Kennedy grave site, estimated that by the time the cemetery gates close at dusk today, some 11,600,000 persons will have visited the grave since the assassinated leader was buried there two years ago.

Just below the grave site, workmen suspended construction today, in respect for the anniversary, on the permanent memorial for the grave. It is expected to be finished by this time next year.

Countess To Act

LONDON (AP) — The pretty 27-year-old Countess of Kimberley will shortly make her film debut as Trevor Howard's secretary in "The Liquidator." The picture also stars Rod Taylor and Jill St. John. Jack Cardiff directs.

Orr Returns From Hospital To Help Colts Victory

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jimmy Orr has set a National Football League record.

He's the fastest in-out-in patient in NFL history.

The slender flanker back suffered an injured right shoulder in the second period at Baltimore Sunday, and later went to a nearby hospital for X-rays. By the fourth period and he was out of the hospital and back in the game—and helped the Colts to their eighth straight victory, 34-24 over the Philadelphia Eagles.

Orr, whose injury proved to be a pulled muscle, returned to Memorial Stadium with seven minutes to play and the Colts holding a tenuous 27-24 lead. While the crowd of 60,238 roared, he raced dramatically onto the field and directly to the Colts huddle.

Johnny Unitas and Lenny Moore hooked up on a 47-yard pass on the first play, then on the second Unitas lofted a 22-yarder to Orr in the end zone — and the game was clinched.

By winning, the Colts raised their record to 9-1 and maintained their one-game lead in the Western Division over Gree Bay. A ferocious defense fired a 28-point final quarter that enabled the Packers to rout the Minnesota Vikings 38-13.

The Cleveland Browns, with two key interceptions in the closing moments, added to their Eastern lead with a 24-17 decision over the Dallas Cowboys. New York's surprising Giants tied St. Louis for second place with a 28-15 victory over the Cardinals as defensive back Dick Lynch starred..

Gale Sayers' touchdown run in the third quarter and a tough defense led the Chicago Bears over the Detroit Lions 17-10; Tommy Davis' 23-yard field goal with six seconds to play gave the San Francisco 49ers a 30-27 victory over the Los Angeles Rams, and the Washington Redskins beat Pittsburgh's fumgling Steelers 31-3.

The Packers continued to suffer from offensive sluggishness, but their defense destroyed the Vikings in a last-period uprising. A 47-yard touchdown pass in the opening seconds of the final quarter, Bart Starr to Boyd Dowler, gave Green Bay a 17-13 edge.

Then Ray Nitschke's recovery of Bill Brown's fumble set up a Packer touchdown, Doug Hart scored another on a 20-yard run with another Brown fumble, Herb Adderley intercepted a Minnesota pass, and Lionel Aldridge fell on a Viking fumble that led to the game's final TD.

Dallas twice threatened to tie the Browns in the closing minutes but was thwarted both times by interceptions of Don Meredith passes. The first was by Vince Costello in the end zone, when Meredith threw on first down at the Cleveland one. Ross Fichtner made the decisive steal with about a minute to go.

Lynch set up the first Giant touchdown against St. Louis with a pass interception on Buddy Humphrey, subbing for the injured Charley Johnson, and scored the clincher on a 60-yard run with a fumble recovery. Earl Morrall passed for three New York touchdowns.

Sayers' raced 20 yards for his 12th touchdown of the season on the Bears' fifth play of the second half at Detroit. Chicago's defense then made the 17-10 score stand up by allowing the Lions to penetrate Bear territory only once in the last two periods.

The 49ers made a stirring fourth - quarter comeback against the Rams, with John Brodie's TD passes to Ken Willard and Dave Parks and Davis' two conversions tying it at 27-27.

After a Ram punt the 49ers staged their last drive from their 49 — and Davis climaxed it with his winning field goal. He kicked two earlier, from 50 and 39 yards.

The Redskins converted two Steeler fumbles and a pass interception into two touchdowns and a field goal. Sonny Jurgensen also threw a 47-yard scoring pass to Angelo Coia, and rookie Richie Harris got the other Washington touchdown with a 57-yard punt return.

Bluefield, Ceredo-Kenova Win West Virginia Titles

CHARLESTON (AP) — Most high school football coaches around the state are hoping Bluefield and Ceredo - Kenova don't get into a rut in the next few years.

At least not the same rut they've been in for the last few. Bluefield is Class AAA champion for the third time in seven years. And the Wayne Wonders of Ceredo-Kenova are Class AA titleholders for the second time in three years.

To get to the top this year, Bluefield rolled up eleven straight victories. The last one was the most important, a 13-0 decision over Dunbar in the championship game at Laidley field in Charleston Saturday.

C-K had to get by Mount Hope Saturday to take the Class AA crown, and the Wonders did it by the score of 26-6 at Dunbar.

Bluefield used a smashing ground attack in defeating Dunbar. The Beavers rolled up 293 yards on the ground but failed to complete a pass. The big buns for the new AAA champs were Jim Justice, Johnny Beckett, Andy Wood and Johnny Wright.

This foursome accounted for all the Beavers' scoring and virtually all the rushing. Wood scored a touchdown and an extra point while Beckett picked the other six points.

The Dunbar offense was almost a one-man show. Bulldog quarterback Mel Walker completed 11 of 25 passes for 123 yards and rushed for another 27 yards. Walker also helped in the kicking department, punting five times for a 45.8-yard average.

Walker's coach, Delmar Good, calls him "a whale of a football player and certainly all - state caliber." Bluefield Coach Merill Gainer also had words of praise for the Dunbar signal caller. He said Walker is "a real fine quarterback . . . and at times we didn't know what he was going to do."

In the Class AA game, Ceredo-Kenova used breaks to good advantage. The Wonders used a recovered fumble, an intercepted pass and a poor Mount Hope punt to set up three of their four touchdowns.

Fullback Tommy Dale and quarterback Mike Watts each scored two touchdowns for C-K. The lone Mount Hope touchdown was scored by Charles McKinney on a four-yard run.

Spartans, UCLA To Smell Roses Together

Irish Limited To Minus 12 Yards

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It isn't often that a winner, a big winner, is in the position of resorting to the old, old lament of the losers, "Wait 'til next year."

Michigan State qualifies.

The Spartans, the No. 1 team in the country, winner of 10 straight and secure in a Rose Bowl berth, now have only to wait until next year to find out if they win the national collegiate football championship.

They took a giant step toward that title — to be determined in an Associated Press poll after the Jan. 1 bowl games — with a rousing 12-3 victory over rugged Notre Dame Saturday, completing a perfect season.

Their Rose Bowl opponent — almost certain to be UCLA — was scheduled to be announced today. UCLA, the No. 7 team in the country, upset sixth-ranked Southern Cal 20-16 Saturday for a 7-1-1 mark that may have clinched the spot.

Washington State, another contender, had its hopes dashed 27-9 by Washington. The selection committee was to meet today. If it selects UCLA, that will make the major bowl line-up look like this:

ROSE BOWL — Michigan State, 10-0, vs. UCLA, 7-1-1.

SUGAR BOWL — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 6-3.

Arkansas, the second-ranked team in the country, wrapped up its second straight perfect season and Cotton Bowl berth with a 42-14 romp over Texas Tech, ranked No. 9. Jon Brittenum directed Arkansas scoring drives of 68, 72, 53, 73 and 69 yards that knocked Tech out of a possible Cotton Bowl spot. They settled for the Gator Bowl berth opposite Georgia Tech.

The victory was Arkansas' 22nd straight, longest in the nation. The second longest, 17, was halted at Princeton, N.J., when Dartmouth closed out a 9-0 season and won the Ivy League title by beating Princeton 28-24.

Louisiana State accepted a Cotton Bowl bid after a 62-0 rout of Tulane, while Florida backed into the Sugar Bowl, accepting a previously offered invitation after losing to Miami, Fla. 16-13. They will oppose Missouri, No. 8, which closed out with a 44-20 victory over Kansas.

Alabama, the No. 5 team in the nation, had a day off and took the opportunity to accept a bid to the Orange Bowl.

All the other major spots had been filled previously.

The last full weekend of play left only two conference titles undecided — the WAC and the Southeastern. Alabama and Auburn play Saturday and the winner gets the SEC, while Brigham Young and Arizona State U. each has a chance to win the WAC outright. Each has one more game to go.

Other major conference champions, some of which were decided earlier, include Michigan State in the Big 10, Dartmouth in the Ivy, Arkansas in the Southwest, UCLA in the AAWU, West Virginia in the Southern, South Carolina and Duke tied in the Atlantic Coast.

Nebraska, at 9-0 the No. 3 team in the country, has one more game to go and can do no worse than tie for the Big Eight title. The Cornhuskers were idle Saturday.

Tulsa clinched the Missouri Valley title with a 13-3 victory over Wichita and the Hurricane boasts a 7-2 record heading into Colorado State game Thanksgiving Day.

Michigan State's magnificent defense dominated in the clash with Notre Dame, Saturday's top game. Notre Dame's impressive corps of running backs were limited to a minus 12 yards rushing.

It was the third time this season the front line defense of Harold Lucas, Bubba Smith, Don Bierowicz, Buddy Owens and Bob Viney had limited the opposition to negative rushing yards.

CLEVELAND'S ERNIE GREEN must feel as though he is surrounded as the front line of Dallas' fearsome defense takes off after him after he had taken a short pass from Frank Ryan in the second quarter of Sunday's game at Dallas. The Browns defeated the Cowboys, 24-17. (UPI Telephoto)

Patterson Is 3-1 Underdog In Bout With Clay Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Floyd Patterson, who made fistic history several times in his erratic career, gets what has to be his last chance at boxing's most prized crown when he takes on heavyweight champion Cassius Clay tonight.

The onetime boy wonder of the ring, knocked out by Sonny Liston in the first round here 28 months ago, is a 3-1 underdog to the all-conquering 23-year-old Clay at Convention Center in a 15-rounder that very few believe will go more than a few rounds.

Patterson, two-time holder of the title and the youngest ever to win it at 21, will be pitting the dynamite of his leaping left hook against the speed and power of the taller and heavier defender.

The consesus is that if the 30-year-old 6-foot New Yorker doesn't nail the 6-foot-3 Clay early with a jarring hook, he will crumble from the jolting jabs and flashing, two-hand combinations of the Louisville Lip.

Clay, cocky and confident as a Las Vegas night club comic with a 10-year contract, had a couple of parting words to newsmen Sunday:

"Come early," he said.

"If I take him out in one round, people will say it's a fix," said Clay, or Muhammad Ali, as he prefers to be called. "If I give him a hard beating and knock him out in the seventh or eighth round, people gonna say I'm cruel."

The betting is 5-6 and take your pick—even money in man-to-man odds — that the fight won't go more than five rounds.

It will be broadcast by ABC radio and telecast by closed circuit to more than 200 outlets in the United States and Canada. It also will be beamed via Early Bird satellite to early-morning viewers in theaters in the British Isles.

Starting time for the title fight will be about 7:30 p.m. or 10:30 p.m., EST.

The fans will come early. Most remember that three of the last four heavyweight fights — two of them involving Patterson — ended in the first round.

The sensitive, introverted challenger became the first man ever to win the heavyweight crown twice when he regained the crown from Sweden's Ingemar Johansson on a fifth-round knockout in 1960.

"I feel that I'm in fine condition, mentally and physically, as I was for the second fight with Ingemar," said Patterson at a press conference Sunday. "I feel just as confident now as I did then. I just feel I'm going to win."

Potters Surprise Canton, Split 2 Games In Preview

The East Liverpool Potters turned in the surprise of the Big 8 Conference basketball preview Saturday night by nipping a veteran Canton McKinley five, 8-7, in one of the four abbreviated contests at Memorial Auditorium.

A good turnout of some 900 fans saw the four eight-minute contests which found the Potters splitting their two games. After edging McKinley East Liverpool's second unit dropped a 22-8 verdict to Massillon.

Steubenville Big Red was the only team to lose both games as Massillon took a 21-9 nod and McKinley picked up a 22-15 victory.

A foul shot by co - captain Chuck Winters enabled the Potters to break a 7-7 tie and gain the one point advantage. Winters and Vern Smith with three points each paced Coach Frank Chan's outfit. Jerome Jackson scored four markers in McKinley's losing effort.

Ezra Pittman dropped in eight points and Will Foster added six to spark Massillon's win over East Liverpool. Mike McVay tallied three points for the Potters.

Cliff Block and Bob Sistrunk with six points apiece led McKinley's victory over Big Red. Bob Pancoast and Glenn Hardney scored six each for the losers.

Will Foster dropped in eight and Dave Sheegog, Massillon's quarterback in football, scored seven to pace the Tigers over Big Red. Don Osby's four points led Big Red.

During intermission the Big Eight coaches were introduced.

Hall Honored For 327 Basketball Victories

During intermission ceremonies Saturday at the Big 8 Conference preview Merrill Hall who coached Potter basketball teams from 1946 through 1956 was inducted into the Ohio basketball coaches Hall of Fame for winning 327 games in his coaching career.

Of those victories 169 came at East Liverpool and Hall never had a losing season.

Season Basketball Ticket Books Ready

Season basketball ticket books for East Liverpool home games are ready and can be picked up at the Athletic Office at the high school any afternoon, Harold Ginder, ticket manager, announced.

Oak Glen Named OVAC Champion

The Ohio Valley Athletic Conference has declared Oak Glen the 1965 champion in the Class AAA ranks after final statistics were released.

Oak Glen finished the finest season in the school's brief history with an 8-2 record giving the Bears 490 championship points and an average of 49.0.

Following are the final team standings:

Dallas twice threatened to tie the Browns in the closing minutes but was thwarted both times by interceptions of Don Meredith passes. The first was by Vince Costello in the end zone, when Meredith threw on first down at the Cleveland one. Ross Fichtner made the decisive steal with about a minute to go.

Lynch set up the first Giant touchdown against St. Louis with a pass interception on Buddy Humphrey, subbing for the injured Charley Johnson, and scored the clincher on a 60-yard run with a fumble recovery. Earl Morrall passed for three New York touchdowns.

Sayers' raced 20 yards for his 12th touchdown of the season on the Bears' fifth play of the second half at Detroit. Chicago's defense then made the 17-10 score stand up by allowing the Lions to penetrate Bear territory only once in the last two periods.

The 49ers made a stirring fourth - quarter comeback against the Rams, with John Brodie's TD passes to Ken Willard and Dave Parks and Davis' two conversions tying it at 27-27.

After a Ram punt the 49ers staged their last drive from their 49 — and Davis climaxed it with his winning field goal. He kicked two earlier, from 50 and 39 yards.

The Redskins converted two Steeler fumbles and a pass interception into two touchdowns and a field goal. Sonny Jurgensen also threw a 47-yard scoring pass to Angelo Coia, and rookie Richie Harris got the other Washington touchdown with a 57-yard punt return.

Bluefield, Ceredo-Kenova Win West Virginia Titles

CHARLESTON (AP) — Most high school football coaches around the state are hoping Bluefield and Ceredo - Kenova don't get into a rut in the next few years.

At least not the same rut they've been in for the last few. Bluefield is Class AAA champion for the third time in seven years. And the Wayne Wonders of Ceredo-Kenova are Class AA titleholders for the second time in three years.

To get to the top this year, Bluefield rolled up eleven straight victories. The last one was the most important, a 13-0 decision over Dunbar in the championship game at Laidley field in Charleston Saturday.

C-K had to get by Mount Hope Saturday to take the Class AA crown, and the Wonders did it by the score of 26-6 at Dunbar.

Bluefield used a smashing ground attack in defeating Dunbar. The Beavers rolled up 293 yards on the ground but failed to complete a pass. The big buns for the new AAA champs were Jim Justice, Johnny Beckett, Andy Wood and Johnny Wright.

This foursome accounted for all the Beavers' scoring and virtually all the rushing. Wood scored a touchdown and an extra point while Beckett picked the other six points.

The Dunbar offense was almost a one-man show. Bulldog quarterback Mel Walker completed 11 of 25 passes for 123 yards and rushed for another 27 yards. Walker also helped in the kicking department, punting five times for a 45.8-yard average.

Walker's coach, Delmar Good, calls him "a whale of a football player and certainly all - state caliber." Bluefield Coach Merrill Gainer also had words of praise for the Dunbar signal caller. He said Walker is "a real fine quarterback . . . and at times we didn't know what he was going to do."

In the Class AA game, Ceredo-Kenova used breaks to good advantage. The Wonders used a recovered fumble, an intercepted pass and a poor Mount Hope punt to set up three of their four touchdowns.

Fullback Tommy Dale and quarterback Mike Watts each scored two touchdowns for C-K. The lone Mount Hope touchdown was scored by Charles McKinney on a four-yard run.

Spartans, UCLA To Smell Roses Together

Irish Limited To Minus 12 Yards

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It isn't often that a winner, a big winner, is in the position of resorting to the old, old lament of the losers, "Wait 'til next year."

Michigan State qualifies.

The Spartans, the No. 1 team in the country, winner of 10 straight and secure in a Rose Bowl berth, now have only to wait until next year to find out if they win the national collegiate football championship.

They took a giant step toward that title — to be determined in an Associated Press poll after the Jan. 1 bowl games — with a rousing 12-3 victory over rugged Notre Dame Saturday, completing a perfect season.

Their Rose Bowl opponent — almost certain to be UCLA — was scheduled to be announced today. UCLA, the No. 7 team in the country, upset sixth-ranked Southern Cal 20-16 Saturday for a 7-1-1 mark that may have clinched the spot.

Washington State, another contender, had its hopes dashed 27-9 by Washington. The selection committee was to meet today. If it selects UCLA, that will make the major bowl line-up look like this:

SUGAR BOWL — Missouri, 7-2-1, vs. Florida, 6-3.

Arkansas, the second-ranked team in the country, wrapped up its second straight perfect season and Cotton Bowl berth with a 42-14 romp over Texas Tech, ranked No. 9. Jon Brittenum directed Arkansas scoring drives of 68, 72, 53, 73 and 69 yards that knocked Tech out of a possible Cotton Bowl spot. They settled for the Gator Bowl berth opposite Georgia Tech.

The victory was Arkansas' 22nd straight, longest in the nation. The second longest, 17, was halted at Princeton, N.J., when Dartmouth closed out a 9-0 season and won the Ivy League title by beating Princeton 28-24.

Louisiana State accepted a Cotton Bowl bid after a 62-0 rout of Tulane, while Florida backed into the Sugar Bowl, accepting a previously offered invitation after losing to Miami, Fla. 16-13. They will oppose Missouri, No. 8, which closed out with a 44-20 victory over Kansas.

Alabama, the No. 5 team in the nation, had a day off and took the opportunity to accept a bid to the Orange Bowl.

All the other major spots had been filled previously.

The last full weekend of play left only two conference titles undecided — the WAC and the Southeastern. Alabama and Auburn play Saturday and the winner gets the SEC, while Brigham Young and Arizona State U. each has a chance to win the WAC outright. Each has one more game to go.

Other major conference champions, some of which were decided earlier, include Michigan State in the Big 10, Dartmouth in the Ivy, Arkansas in the Southwest, UCLA in the AAWU, West Virginia in the Southern, South Carolina and Duke tied in the Atlantic Coast.

Nebraska, at 9-0 the No. 3 team in the country, has one more game to go and can do no worse than tie for the Big Eight title. The Cornhuskers were idle Saturday.

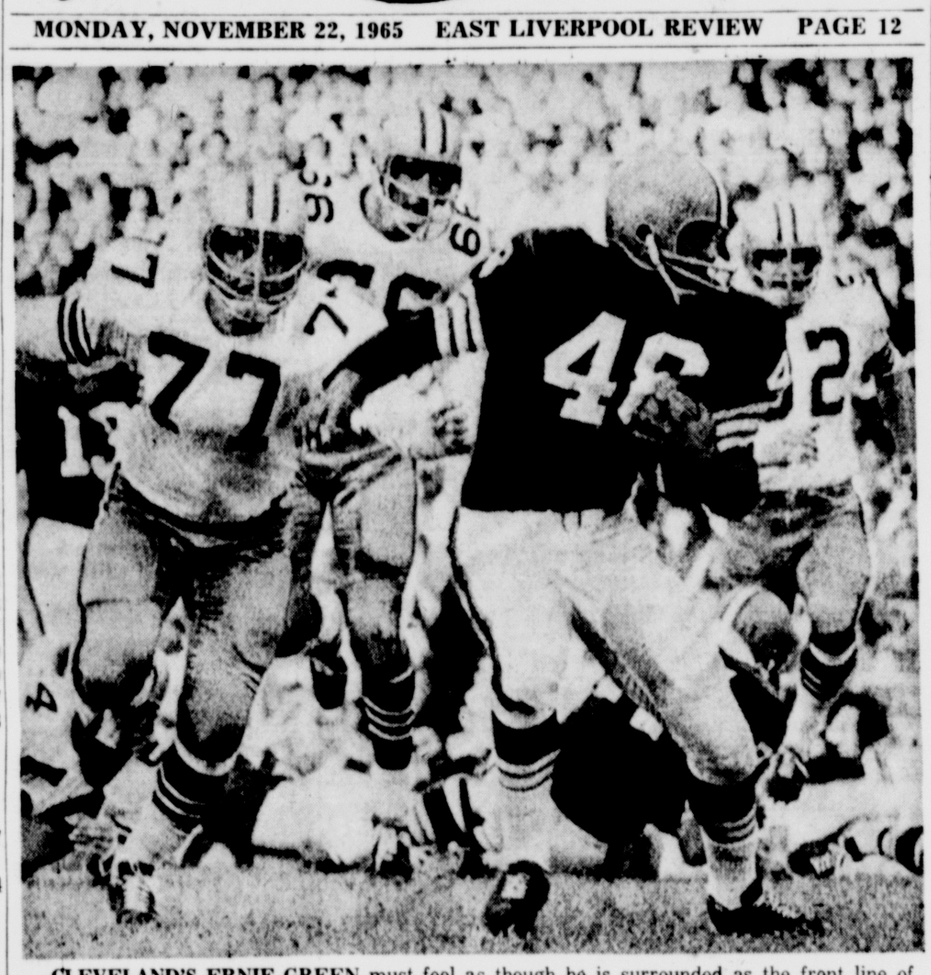

Tulsa clinched the Missouri Valley title with a 13-3 victory over Wichita and the Hurricane boasts a 7-2 record heading into Colorado State game Thanksgiving Day.

Michigan State's magnificent defense dominated in the clash with Notre Dame, Saturday's top game. Notre Dame's impressive corps of running backs were limited to a minus 12 yards rushing.

It was the third time this season the front line defense of Harold Lucas, Bubba Smith, Don Bierowicz, Buddy Owens and Bob Viney had limited the opposition to negative rushing yards.

Patterson Is 3-1 Underdog In Bout With Clay Tonight

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Floyd Patterson, who made fistic history several times in his erratic career, gets what has to be his last chance at boxing's most prized crown when he takes on heavyweight champion Cassius Clay tonight.

The onetime boy wonder of the ring, knocked out by Sonny Liston in the first round here 28 months ago, is a 3-1 underdog to the all-conquering 23-year-old Clay at Convention Center in a 15-rounder that very few believe will go more than a few rounds.

Patterson, two-time holder of the title and the youngest ever to win it at 21, will be pitting the dynamite of his leaping left hook against the speed and power of the taller and heavier defender.

The consesus is that if the 30-year-old 6-foot New Yorker doesn't nail the 6-foot-3 Clay early with a jarring hook, he will crumble from the jolting jabs and flashing, two-hand combinations of the Louisville Lip.

Clay, cocky and confident as a Las Vegas night club comic with a 10-year contract, had a couple of parting words to newsmen Sunday:

"Come early," he said.

"If I take him out in one round, people will say it's a fix," said Clay, or Muhammad Ali, as he prefers to be called. "If I give him a hard beating and knock him out in the seventh or eighth round, people gonna say I'm cruel."

The betting is 5-6 and take your pick—even money in man-to-man odds — that the fight won't go more than five rounds.

It will be broadcast by ABC radio and telecast by closed circuit to more than 200 outlets in the United States and Canada. It also will be beamed via Early Bird satellite to early-morning viewers in theaters in the British Isles.

Starting time for the title fight will be about 7:30 p.m. or 10:30 p.m., EST.

The fans will come early. Most remember that three of the last four heavyweight fights — two of them involving Patterson — ended in the first round.

The sensitive, introverted challenger became the first man ever to win the heavyweight crown twice when he regained the crown from Sweden's Ingemar Johansson on a fifth-round knockout in 1960.

"I feel that I'm in fine condition, mentally and physically, as I was for the second fight with Ingemar," said Patterson at a press conference Sunday. "I feel just as confident now as I did then. I just feel I'm going to win."

Potters Surprise Canton, Split 2 Games In Preview

The East Liverpool Potters turned in the surprise of the Big 8 Conference basketball preview Saturday night by nipping a veteran Canton McKinley five, 8-7, in one of the four abbreviated contests at Memorial Auditorium.

A good turnout of some 900 fans saw the four eight-minute contests which found the Potters splitting their two games. After edging McKinley East Liverpool's second unit dropped a 22-8 verdict to Massillon.

Steubenville Big Red was the only team to lose both games as Massillon took a 21-9 nod and McKinley picked up a 22-15 victory.

A foul shot by co - captain Chuck Winters enabled the Potters to break a 7-7 tie and gain the one point advantage. Winters and Vern Smith with three points each paced Coach Frank Chan's outfit. Jerome Jackson scored four markers in McKinley's losing effort.

Ezra Pittman dropped in eight points and Will Foster added six to spark Massillon's win over East Liverpool. Mike McVay tallied three points for the Potters.

Cliff Block and Bob Sistrunk with six points apiece led McKinley's victory over Big Red. Bob Pancoast and Glenn Hardney scored six each for the losers.

Will Foster dropped in eight and Dave Sheegog, Massillon's quarterback in football, scored seven to pace the Tigers over Big Red. Don Osby's four points led Big Red.

During intermission the Big Eight coaches were introduced.

Hall Honored For 327 Basketball Victories

During intermission ceremonies Saturday at the Big 8 Conference preview Merrill Hall who coached Potter basketball teams from 1946 through 1956 was inducted into the Ohio basketball coaches Hall of Fame for winning 327 games in his coaching career.

Of those victories 169 came at East Liverpool and Hall never had a losing season.

First Time He Ever Threw Four

Has Jets Joe Namath Come Of Age? Rich Passer Hits On 4 Touchdowns

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Namath, the New York Jets $400,000 quarterback, stood in the dressing room peeling the tape off his knee brace as club owner Sonny Werblin leaned over and whispered:

"Joe, I'm ready to re-negotiate."

For Namath had just finished his first four-touchdown day ever—in high school, college or pro ball — and continued his rapid development by passing the Jets to a 41-14 victory over the Houston Oilers Sunday.

The triumph, their fourth in a row, moved the Jets into second place in the Eastern Division of the American Football League. But more significant was the fact that Namath had his best day as a pro and led the Jets to these notable achievements:

—Namath himself tied Dick Wood's record for most touchdown passes in a single game.

—Namath, who completed 17 of 26 passes for 221 yards before being relieved at the start of the fourth quarter, engineered an offense that gained a club record 522 yards over-all.

—Matt Snell gained 135 yards in 19 carries and Bill Mathis 126 in 14 tries as the team set a rushing high of 284.

—The Jets have won four in a row for the first time in the team's six-year history.

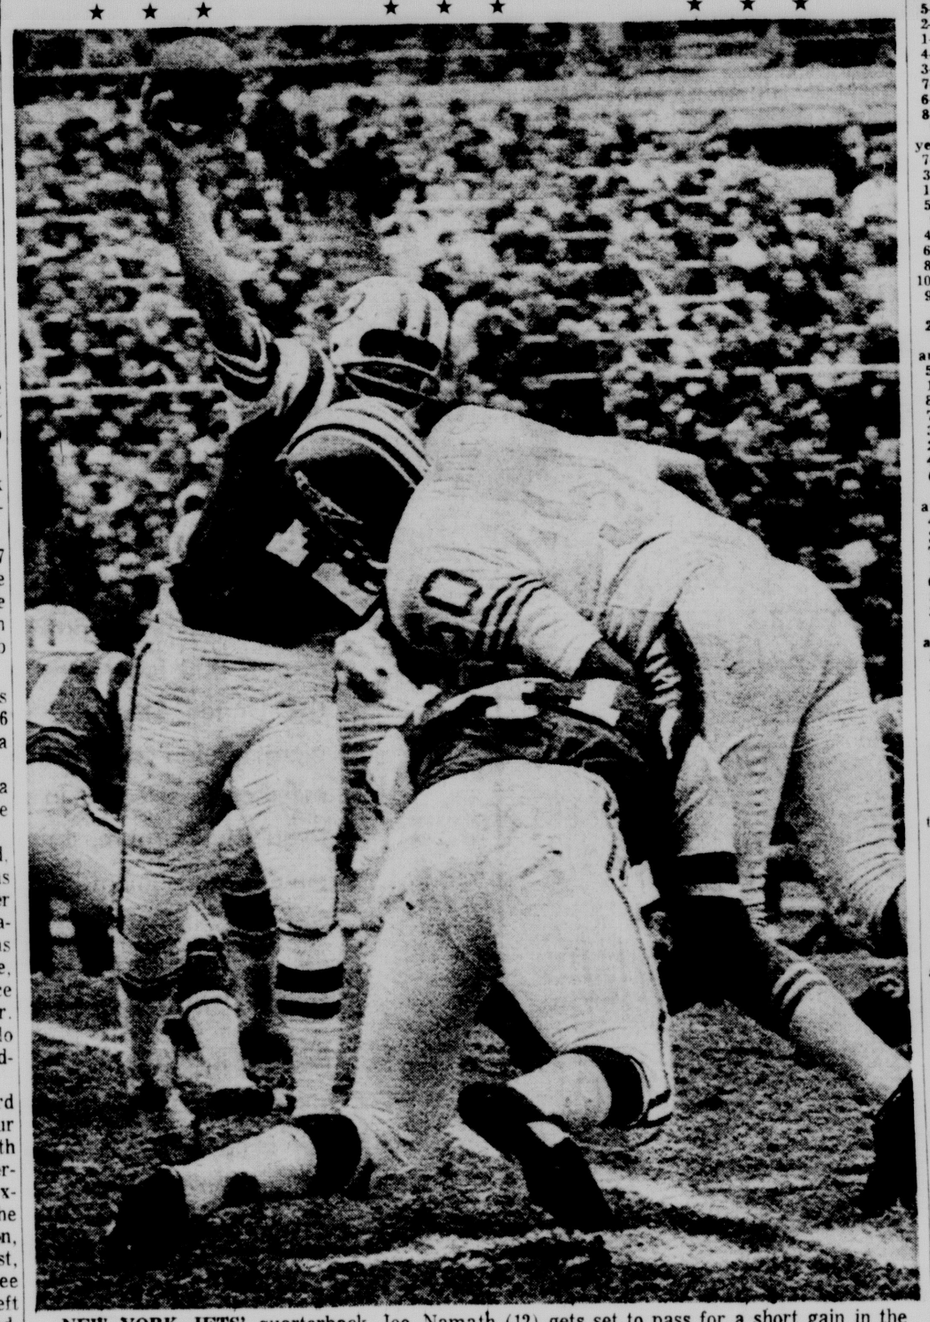

While Namath was cheered, Babe Parilli was booed, even as he passed for a fourth-quarter touchdown that brought the Patriots a 10-10 tie with Kansas City. In the only other game, Oakland took over second place in the West by downing Denver. The division leaders, Buffalo and San Diego were not scheduled.

Namath hit Don Maynard with touchdown tosses of four and 34-yards, connected with George Sauder on a play covering 20 yards and flipped a six-yarder to Curly Johnson as the Jets built a 34-0 lead. Johnson, the Jets' punting specialist, played tight end after Dee Mackey suffered a broken left collarbone in the second period.

Parilli, ignoring the hometown fans who chanted "We Want Wilson" in calling for second-string quarterback Eddie Wilson, directed an 80-yard drive in the final period. His 10-yard pass to J. D. Garrett and Gino Cappelletti's conversion with 6:07 left brought about the tie and dropped the Chiefs into third place in the West with a 5-4-2 record.

The Raiders took over the runner-up spot with a 6-4-1 mark to San Diego's 6-2-2 by snapping a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Gus Otto ran 68 yards with an interception of a pass by Denver quarterback John McCormick for the tie-breaker, then Dave Grayson put it out of reach by racing 47 yards with another steal.

NEW YORK JETS' quarterback Joe Namath (12) gets set to pass for a short gain in the first quarter of the Jets-Houston game Sunday at New York. The $400,000 quarterback passed for four touchdowns in leading the Jets to their fourth straight victory. It was Namath's best day as a pro and the first time in his career he ever passed for four touchdowns. (UPI Telephoto)

Meredith's Pass On One Saved Day For Cleveland

DALLAS (AP) — Cleveland beat Dallas 24-17 Sunday with Jimmy Brown and Frank Ryan handling the offense but it was the hawk-eyed pass defenders who really got the job done.

hat and the decision of quarterback Don Meredith of the Cowboys to pass on first down on the Cleveland one-yard line when Dallas could have tied the game with a touchdown.

Vince Costello intercepted the pass in the end zone and saved the day for Cleveland.

Dallas got the ball on the Cleveland one when there was pass intereference by Walter Beach of the Browns in the end zone. There were four minutes left.

The crowd of 76,251—largest ever to see a football game in the Cotton Bowl—thought Meredith would run for the touchdown. Don Perkins, the Dallas fullback, had been having a good day.

Pass interceptions were the despair of the Cowboys. Bernie Parrish intercepted a Meredith throw to set Cleveland up for the touchdown drive that actually won the game in the third period.

And after Costello's timely interruption of Meredith's train of thought, the Cowboys had still another chance before time ran out to get at least a tie.

Brown fumbled on the Cleveland 40 with 1:40 remaining on the clock and Meredith threw to Bob Hayes on the 23. But the next Meredith pass went into the hands of Ross Fichtner and he ran back to the Dallas 42. That settled it.

Meredith's passing set up the first Dallas score, a 10-yard field goal by Danny Villanueva, and accounted for the two touchdowns — a two-yard pass to Pettis Norman and a 45-yard bomb to Hayes.

Brown ran three yards for the first Brown touchdown, after Lou Groza had kicked a 46-yard field goal. Leroy Kelly scored with a 67-yard punt return to give the Browns a 17-3 halftime edge, and Frank Ryan tossed five yards to Gary Collins for the last Cleveland touchdown.

Dispute Over Goal Sets Off Brawl In NHL Tilt

NEW YORK (AP) — A gale of controversy is swarming around Arthur Reichert today. A few hours ago it was fists instead of words.

Reichert, a little man who has been pushing buttons for 30 years as a goal judge at National Hockey League games in New York, pushed one Sunday night. . .and set off a small war that started with Ranger General Manager Emile Francis trading punches with an over-zealous fan and ended with Ranger players battling paying customers in the stands.

The fireworks exploded in the third period of the Rangers' 3-3 tie with Detroit when the Red Wings' Floyd Smith got off a shot from a scramble in front of the New York cage and Reichert flashed the red light, signifying a score.

The Rangers and Coach Red Sullivan protested vehemently to Reichert, whose perch in the first row of seats directly behind the goal is separated from the playing surface by a 10-foot barrier of wood panel and unbreakable glass. The New York players claimed goalie Ed Giacomin had stopped the puck short of the goal line.

Reichert, however, stuck to his decision and Referee Art Skov backed him up.

While the argument appeared to subside, Francis, the peppery former NHL goalie, left his seat in the stands and approached Reichert. They exchanged angry words and an unidentified fan joined the hassle. Suddenly the fan and Francis began throwing punches and the crowd closed in.

The Rangers' Vic Hadfield saw Francis in the middle of the scuffle, scaled the wood and glass enclosure on his skates and jumped into the stands. At least six other New York players followed him over the barrier and it took a force of Garden policemen five minutes to separate them from the milling, swinging fans.

When order finally was restored, the fan who tangled with Francis was led out of the arena — and later released. Francis went to the dressing room for two stitches over a gashed left eye.

Play was resumed and, after a fluke, 80-foot shot by Earl Ingarfield caromed off the backboard, hit Detroit goalie Roger Crozier's pads and skipped into the net for a 3-2 New York lead, the Wings tied it on Bruce MacGregor's goal in the final 70 seconds.

Reichert, around whom the brawl raged, escaped unhurt and left the Garden immediately after the game. But he didn't escape the wrath of Francis and Ranger President William Jennings when they discussed the incident later.

Informed that the fan he battled had declined to press charges, Francis said:

"Reichert was the only one in the arena who thought the puck was in the net," he continued.

Deer Season Opens In 51 W.Va. Counties

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —Deer hunting season officially opened in 51 West Virginia counties at sunrise today, with the Natural Resources Department expecting 100,000 hunters to be out in the ensuing weeks.

Except for hunters' choice shooting in some counties Dec. 3-4, hunting is restricted to bucks only.

Four counties are closed for the season — Wayne, Lincoln, Cabell and Mercer. Portions of four other counties are closed—Kanawha and Fayette south of U.S 60 and the New River, McDowell east of W. Va., 16, and Boone west of U. S. 19.

The first picture to appear in a newspaper in this country was in the Jan. 19-26 issue of the Boston News - Letter of 1707-1708. It was a woodcut reproduction.

Ron Williams Gets 27 In WVU Blues Victory

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The West Virginia University Blues downed the Golds 83-75 in an intra - squad basketball game that was the first public appearance for the Mountaineers this season.

Sophomore Ron Williams, the high scorer in Saturday night's game, paced the Blues with 27 points. The WVU season opens in Charleston Dec. 1 against Virginia Military.

'We Won A Lot Of Close Ones,' Hays Says Of Team

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Don't look for an argument from head Coach Woody Hayes if you think the 1965 Ohio State football team was lucky.

The Buckeyes boss agrees.

"We have to be the luckiest team alive. . . we've won a lot of close ones," Hayes said Saturday after Ohio used Bob Funk's talented toe again to nip Michigan, 9-7.

"Iowa was the only team we really decissioned (38-0). Everyone else was right down to the wire," Hayes commented.

And the traditional tussle with Michigan was no different. Funk came off the bench with only 1:15 remaining and booted a 27-yard field goal, his eight of the season, as the Bucks equalled last year's fine 7-2 record.

It was Ohio's fifth straight success after splitting its first four and locked up second place in the Big Ten race.

Hayes paid tribute to Funk, whose kicking has won at least three games for the Ohioans this season.

"You know why we win the close ones? Because we're blessed with good kickers," Hayes added.

It was a brilliant windup to the 1965 campaign as the Bucks drove 80 yards in the final minutes with fullback Will Sander carrying the brunt of the attack. When the drive stalled on the Michgan 11, Funk was called upon and he delivered again.

In other windups, Miami, behind Bruce Matte's three touchdown passes, routed Cincinnati, 37-7; Marshall sealed Ohio University's worst season ever with a 29-14 beating; Kent State nipped Louisville 7-6; Denison shaded Ohio Wesleyan 35-28; Mt Union closed its finest season in 19 years by beating Westminister 20-6 Toledo had little trouble disposing of Dayton 21-7 and Texas Western walloped Xavier, 57-33.

Toledo (5-5) held Dayton's inept offense to five yards rushing handing the Flyers a 1-8-1 campaign.

Mickey Jackson scored his 15th and 16th touchdowns of the season and Alex Sansosti completed 15 of 19 passes in Marshall's win over Ohio. The Bobcats finished with an 0-10 mark.

Lucas Drops In 30, Paces Cincinnati

By The Associated Press

Cincinnati won and gained ground; Boston was idle and stood still, and New York suffered a setback without even playing.

The Royals, with Jerry Lucas netting 30 points and grabbing 21 rebounds, beat Baltimore 120-114 at Indianapolis, Ind., Sunday night and moved into a first-place tie with Boston in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

In the only other game, Wilt Chamberlain scored 32 points and picked off 33 rebounds as Philadelphia edged Los Angeles 110-104 at Los Angeles, snapping the Lakers' six-game winning streak.

New York got some bad news from its team physician, Dr. Kazuo Yanagisawa, who said 6-foot-10 corner man Willis Reed has a bone spur in his right foot and may be forced to limit his playing time for the rest of the season. Reed left Saturday night's game in the third quarter complaining of foot pains.

The Royals, running their record to 11-5, ran up a 15-point lead in the third quarter and then saw it dwindle to two points with four minutes left. Then Lucas sank a hook shot and got credit for another basket on a goal tending play, and Oscar Robertson sank a pair of foul shots to clinch it.

Robertson added 24 points, and Adrian Smith got 26 for Cincinnati. Don Ohl paced the Bullets with 26.

First Time He Ever Threw Four

Has Jets Joe Namath Come Of Age? Rich Passer Hits On 4 Touchdowns

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Joe Namath, the New York Jets $400,000 quarterback, stood in the dressing room peeling the tape off his knee brace as club owner Sonny Werblin leaned over and whispered:

"Joe, I'm ready to re-negotiate."

For Namath had just finished his first four-touchdown day ever—in high school, college or pro ball — and continued his rapid development by passing the Jets to a 41-14 victory over the Houston Oilers Sunday.

The triumph, their fourth in a row, moved the Jets into second place in the Eastern Division of the American Football League. But more significant was the fact that Namath had his best day as a pro and led the Jets to these notable achievements:

—Namath, who completed 17 of 26 passes for 221 yards before being relieved at the start of the fourth quarter, engineered an offense that gained a club record 522 yards over-all.

—Matt Snell gained 135 yards in 19 carries and Bill Mathis 126 in 14 tries as the team set a rushing high of 284.

—The Jets have won four in a row for the first time in the team's six-year history.

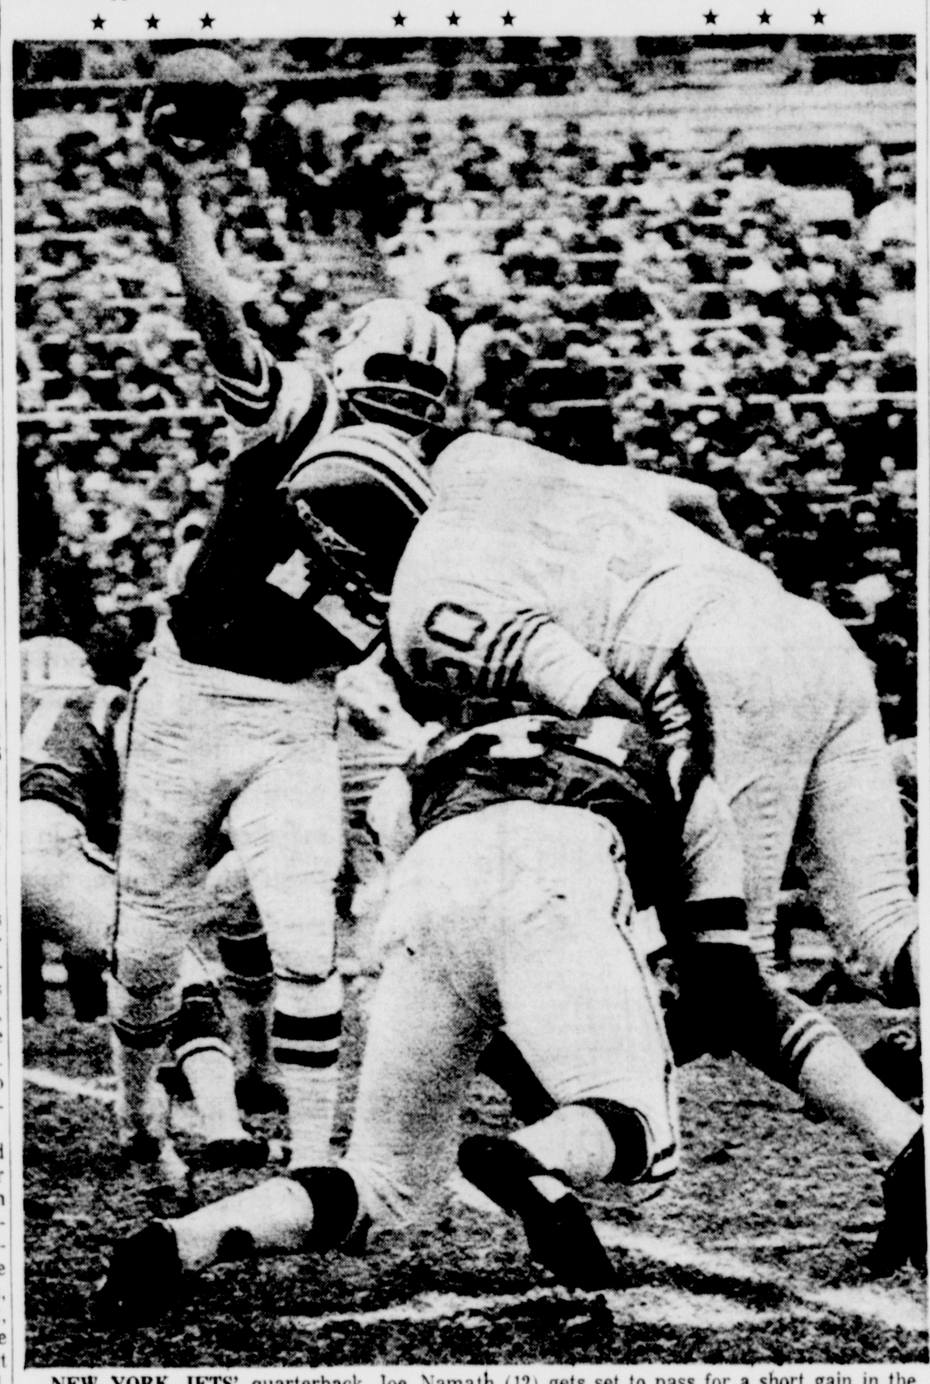

While Namath was cheered, Babe Parilli was booed, even as he passed for a fourth-quarter touchdown that brought the Patriots a 10-10 tie with Kansas City. In the only other game, Oakland took over second place in the West by downing Denver. The division leaders, Buffalo and San Diego were not scheduled.

Namath hit Don Maynard with touchdown tosses of four and 34-yards, connected with George Sauder on a play covering 20 yards and flipped a six-yarder to Curly Johnson as the Jets built a 34-0 lead. Johnson, the Jets' punting specialist, played tight end after Dee Mackey suffered a broken left collarbone in the second period.

Parilli, ignoring the hometown fans who chanted "We Want Wilson" in calling for second-string quarterback Eddie Wilson, directed an 80-yard drive in the final period. His 10-yard pass to J. D. Garrett and Gino Cappelletti's conversion with 6:07 left brought about the tie and dropped the Chiefs into third place in the West with a 5-4-2 record.

The Raiders took over the runner-up spot with a 6-4-1 mark to San Diego's 6-2-2 by snapping a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter. Linebacker Gus Otto ran 68 yards with an interception of a pass by Denver quarterback John McCormick for the tie-breaker, then Dave Grayson put it out of reach by racing 47 yards with another steal.

NEW YORK JETS' quarterback Joe Namath (12) gets set to pass for a short gain in the first quarter of the Jets-Houston game Sunday at New York. The $400,000 quarterback passed for four touchdowns in leading the Jets to their fourth straight victory. It was Namath's best day as a pro and the first time in his career he ever passed for four touchdowns. (UPI Telephoto)

Meredith's Pass On One Saved Day For Cleveland

DALLAS (AP) — Cleveland beat Dallas 24-17 Sunday with Jimmy Brown and Frank Ryan handling the offense but it was the hawk-eyed pass defenders who really got the job done.

hat and the decision of quarterback Don Meredith of the Cowboys to pass on first down on the Cleveland one-yard line when Dallas could have tied the game with a touchdown.

Vince Costello intercepted the pass in the end zone and saved the day for Cleveland.

Dallas got the ball on the Cleveland one when there was pass intereference by Walter Beach of the Browns in the end zone. There were four minutes left.

The crowd of 76,251—largest ever to see a football game in the Cotton Bowl—thought Meredith would run for the touchdown. Don Perkins, the Dallas fullback, had been having a good day.

Pass interceptions were the despair of the Cowboys. Bernie Parrish intercepted a Meredith throw to set Cleveland up for the touchdown drive that actually won the game in the third period.

And after Costello's timely interruption of Meredith's train of thought, the Cowboys had still another chance before time ran out to get at least a tie.

Brown fumbled on the Cleveland 40 with 1:40 remaining on the clock and Meredith threw to Bob Hayes on the 23. But the next Meredith pass went into the hands of Ross Fichtner and he ran back to the Dallas 42. That settled it.

Meredith's passing set up the first Dallas score, a 10-yard field goal by Danny Villanueva, and accounted for the two touchdowns — a two-yard pass to Pettis Norman and a 45-yard bomb to Hayes.

Brown ran three yards for the first Brown touchdown, after Lou Groza had kicked a 46-yard field goal. Leroy Kelly scored with a 67-yard punt return to give the Browns a 17-3 halftime edge, and Frank Ryan tossed five yards to Gary Collins for the last Cleveland touchdown.

NEW YORK (AP) — A gale of controversy is swarming around Arthur Reichert today. A few hours ago it was fists instead of words.

Reichert, a little man who has been pushing buttons for 30 years as a goal judge at National Hockey League games in New York, pushed one Sunday night. . .and set off a small war that started with Ranger General Manager Emile Francis trading punches with an over-zealous fan and ended with Ranger players battling paying customers in the stands.

The fireworks exploded in the third period of the Rangers' 3-3 tie with Detroit when the Red Wings' Floyd Smith got off a shot from a scramble in front of the New York cage and Reichert flashed the red light, signifying a score.

The Rangers and Coach Red Sullivan protested vehemently to Reichert, whose perch in the first row of seats directly behind the goal is separated from the playing surface by a 10-foot barrier of wood panel and unbreakable glass. The New York players claimed goalie Ed Giacomin had stopped the puck short of the goal line.

Reichert, however, stuck to his decision and Referee Art Skov backed him up.

While the argument appeared to subside, Francis, the peppery former NHL goalie, left his seat in the stands and approached Reichert. They exchanged angry words and an unidentified fan joined the hassle. Suddenly the fan and Francis began throwing punches and the crowd closed in.

The Rangers' Vic Hadfield saw Francis in the middle of the scuffle, scaled the wood and glass enclosure on his skates and jumped into the stands. At least six other New York players followed him over the barrier and it took a force of Garden policemen five minutes to separate them from the milling, swinging fans.

When order finally was restored, the fan who tangled with Francis was led out of the arena — and later released. Francis went to the dressing room for two stitches over a gashed left eye.

Play was resumed and, after a fluke, 80-foot shot by Earl Ingarfield caromed off the backboard, hit Detroit goalie Roger Crozier's pads and skipped into the net for a 3-2 New York lead, the Wings tied it on Bruce MacGregor's goal in the final 70 seconds.

Reichert, around whom the brawl raged, escaped unhurt and left the Garden immediately after the game. But he didn't escape the wrath of Francis and Ranger President William Jennings when they discussed the incident later.

Informed that the fan he battled had declined to press charges, Francis said:

"Reichert was the only one in the arena who thought the puck was in the net," he continued.

Deer Season Opens In 51 W.Va. Counties

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) —Deer hunting season officially opened in 51 West Virginia counties at sunrise today, with the Natural Resources Department expecting 100,000 hunters to be out in the ensuing weeks.

Except for hunters' choice shooting in some counties Dec. 3-4, hunting is restricted to bucks only.

Four counties are closed for the season — Wayne, Lincoln, Cabell and Mercer. Portions of four other counties are closed—Kanawha and Fayette south of U.S 60 and the New River, McDowell east of W. Va., 16, and Boone west of U. S. 19.

The first picture to appear in a newspaper in this country was in the Jan. 19-26 issue of the Boston News - Letter of 1707-1708. It was a woodcut reproduction.

Ron Williams Gets 27 In WVU Blues Victory

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The West Virginia University Blues downed the Golds 83-75 in an intra - squad basketball game that was the first public appearance for the Mountaineers this season.

Sophomore Ron Williams, the high scorer in Saturday night's game, paced the Blues with 27 points. The WVU season opens in Charleston Dec. 1 against Virginia Military.

'We Won A Lot Of Close Ones,' Hays Says Of Team

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Don't look for an argument from head Coach Woody Hayes if you think the 1965 Ohio State football team was lucky.

The Buckeyes boss agrees.

"We have to be the luckiest team alive. . . we've won a lot of close ones," Hayes said Saturday after Ohio used Bob Funk's talented toe again to nip Michigan, 9-7.

"Iowa was the only team we really decissioned (38-0). Everyone else was right down to the wire," Hayes commented.

And the traditional tussle with Michigan was no different. Funk came off the bench with only 1:15 remaining and booted a 27-yard field goal, his eight of the season, as the Bucks equalled last year's fine 7-2 record.

It was Ohio's fifth straight success after splitting its first four and locked up second place in the Big Ten race.

Hayes paid tribute to Funk, whose kicking has won at least three games for the Ohioans this season.

"You know why we win the close ones? Because we're blessed with good kickers," Hayes added.

It was a brilliant windup to the 1965 campaign as the Bucks drove 80 yards in the final minutes with fullback Will Sander carrying the brunt of the attack. When the drive stalled on the Michgan 11, Funk was called upon and he delivered again.

In other windups, Miami, behind Bruce Matte's three touchdown passes, routed Cincinnati, 37-7; Marshall sealed Ohio University's worst season ever with a 29-14 beating; Kent State nipped Louisville 7-6; Denison shaded Ohio Wesleyan 35-28; Mt Union closed its finest season in 19 years by beating Westminister 20-6 Toledo had little trouble disposing of Dayton 21-7 and Texas Western walloped Xavier, 57-33.

Toledo (5-5) held Dayton's inept offense to five yards rushing handing the Flyers a 1-8-1 campaign.

Mickey Jackson scored his 15th and 16th touchdowns of the season and Alex Sansosti completed 15 of 19 passes in Marshall's win over Ohio. The Bobcats finished with an 0-10 mark.

Lucas Drops In 30, Paces Cincinnati

By The Associated Press

Cincinnati won and gained ground; Boston was idle and stood still, and New York suffered a setback without even playing.

The Royals, with Jerry Lucas netting 30 points and grabbing 21 rebounds, beat Baltimore 120-114 at Indianapolis, Ind., Sunday night and moved into a first-place tie with Boston in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division.

In the only other game, Wilt Chamberlain scored 32 points and picked off 33 rebounds as Philadelphia edged Los Angeles 110-104 at Los Angeles, snapping the Lakers' six-game winning streak.

New York got some bad news from its team physician, Dr. Kazuo Yanagisawa, who said 6-foot-10 corner man Willis Reed has a bone spur in his right foot and may be forced to limit his playing time for the rest of the season. Reed left Saturday night's game in the third quarter complaining of foot pains.

The Royals, running their record to 11-5, ran up a 15-point lead in the third quarter and then saw it dwindle to two points with four minutes left. Then Lucas sank a hook shot and got credit for another basket on a goal tending play, and Oscar Robertson sank a pair of foul shots to clinch it.

Ia Drang Battle Brings Out Best In Yanks

Being Alive, Not Victory Stirred GIs In Viet Nam

AP correspondent Peter Arnett has been for a week with the Americans fighting in the Ia Drang Valley.

By PETER ARNETT

PLEIKU, South Viet Nam, (AP) — It was not the elation of victory that stirred the American cavalrymen in the Ia Drang Valley when the fighting subsided. It was elation at being alive.

The battle at Ia Drang is bringing out the best in a new generation of Americans.

There was the lieutenant who wiped out a machine-gun post with grenades, rifle and bayonet even though he had been shot through the mouth.

There was the company commander who led his men for five hours after he had taken two serious wounds himself.

There was the medic, caught in no-man's land, who radioed his platoon leader he would stay and treat five wounded men around him. He was found the next morning, dead beside his dying patients.

The fighting brought out other qualities in some.

One soldier shot every wounded enemy soldier who moved as his decimated unit policed up a battlefield. He had heard that two days earlier three American prisoners had been found bound hand and foot and shot through the head.

He said he was exacting revenge.

There was another reason to shoot the enemy wounded lying scattered among the trees. One blew himself up with a grenade as a squad approached him, nearly taking them with him.

Another tried to pull a pin from a grenade as a medic was taking his pulse, but he lacked the strength to remove it and fell back in a faint. He was shot.

By week's end, after four major actions that brought American bloodletting to a degree never before seen in the Viet Nam war, the consensus was that the green young men of the 1st Cavalry Division had fought as well as — and possibly better than — their older brothers in Korea and their fathers in World War II.

The young cavalrymen were faced with agonizing decisions.

One company was split down the middle by withering Communist fire. As the survivors crawled away to regroup, they had to leave some wounded behind. During the night, enemy troops came near the regrouped troops, and the decision was made to bring in close artillery fire.

The shells crashed among the enemy and the wounded Americans, killing at random.

Statistically, Ia Drang has been a victory for the U.S. forces. But the troops at Ia Drang use the word victory carefully. Fighting on jungle battlefields, defending bitterly for several days and then abandoning them, they are deprived of the satisfactions of occupation.

"I'll say we've won not when I see a thousand dead enemy bodies on the battlefield," one young soldier said. "I'll believe in victory here when they stop shooting at us."

Five Hunted Who Helped Push Car And Then Stole It

CLEVELAND (AP) — Police are seeking five men who helped Donald Mraz start his stalled car and then stole it.

Mraz, 31, Cleveland, told police that he and his brother-in-law, Marvin Bone, 31, were trying to start the stalled car Sunday night when a middle-aged man offered to help push. The man was joined by four others who offered similar help.

When efforts to start the car failed, the first helper and Bone left to get their own cars to provide a push. One of the other four helpers climbed behind the steering wheel of the stalled Mraz car.

The middle-aged helper was the first to return with his car. When a push started Mraz's car, the other helpers jumped in and rode off, followed by the first helper in his car. Mraz was left standing at the curb.

Canton Minister Named In Post At Calvary Church

The Rev. Charles Menough, pastor of the Nova and Ruggles Methodist Churches at Canton since 1962, has been appointed minister of the Calvary Methodist Church.

The assignment was made by Bishop Francis E. Kearns of Canton, resident bishop of the Ohio East Area of the Methodist Church.

Rev. Menough succeeds the Rev. Irwin Jennings, who was named associate minister of First Methodist Church at Elyria.

Born in Racine, Ohio, Rev. Menough attended God's Bible University in Cincinnati and received degrees from Ohio Northern University at Ada and Bexley Hall at Kenyon College in Gambier.

He served the Fredericktown Methodist Circuit prior to going to the Nova pastorate.

The change of appointment is to become effective next Sunday.

Cousins Same Age

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Two sisters married to two brothers had baby sons on the same day in the same hospital at Murgon, 100 miles north of Brisbane. Mrs. Ivan Rewald, 22, named her boy Bradley, and Mrs. Ken Rewald, 25, called hers Gavin.

Slogan of the first newspaper published in Ohio at Cincinnati in 1793 was "Open to all parties — but influenced by none."

Ohio Parolee, 25, Charged In Car Thefts, Murder

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—From car thefts around Newark, Ohio, to murder in this western New York territory little more than 24 hours later—that's the weekend story, police charge, of a 25-year-old Ohio parolee.

Sought for terrorizing several persons in a car-commandeering spree at gunpoint Friday night and early Saturday, Clayton A. Sinclair of Newark was believed to have taken a train "for New York."

Carrying a .22-caliber revolver when caught, Sinclair was charged with first-degree murder in a holdup killing of Stanley Gregory, 33, of nearby Ashville.

Police said Gregory refused to hand over his receipts to the armed man who confronted him. The gunman fired twice. One shot hit Gregory in the stomach and he died in a hospital three hour later.

A half-hour after the shooting, police arrested Sinclair. He was arraigned in city court and remanded to city jail.

Sinclair was the suspect in at least three car thefts in his home area of Ohio earlier in the weekend, two of them at gunpoint.

Newark police said he had been on parole for armed robbery.

The assignment was made by Bishop Francis E. Kearns of Canton, resident bishop of the Ohio East Area of the Methodist Church.

Rev. Menough succeeds the Rev. Irwin Jennings, who was named associate minister of First Methodist Church at Elyria.

Born in Racine, Ohio, Rev. Menough attended God's Bible University in Cincinnati and received degrees from Ohio Northern University at Ada and Bexley Hall at Kenyon College in Gambier.

He served the Fredericktown Methodist Circuit prior to going to the Nova pastorate.

The change of appointment is to become effective next Sunday.

Cousins Same Age

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Two sisters married to two brothers had baby sons on the same day in the same hospital at Murgon, 100 miles north of Brisbane. Mrs. Ivan Rewald, 22, named her boy Bradley, and Mrs. Ken Rewald, 25, called hers Gavin.

Slogan of the first newspaper published in Ohio at Cincinnati in 1793 was "Open to all parties — but influenced by none."

Ohio Parolee, 25, Charged In Car Thefts, Murder

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—From car thefts around Newark, Ohio, to murder in this western New York territory little more than 24 hours later—that's the weekend story, police charge, of a 25-year-old Ohio parolee.

Sought for terrorizing several persons in a car-commandeering spree at gunpoint Friday night and early Saturday, Clayton A. Sinclair of Newark was believed to have taken a train "for New York."

Carrying a .22-caliber revolver when caught, Sinclair was charged with first-degree murder in a holdup killing of Stanley Gregory, 33, of nearby Ashville.

Police said Gregory refused to hand over his receipts to the armed man who confronted him. The gunman fired twice. One shot hit Gregory in the stomach and he died in a hospital three hour later.

A half-hour after the shooting, police arrested Sinclair. He was arraigned in city court and remanded to city jail.

Sinclair was the suspect in at least three car thefts in his home area of Ohio earlier in the weekend, two of them at gunpoint.

Newark police said he had been on parole for armed robbery.

What Every Person Should Know

Dedicated to the Public Interest

WHAT DOES NSM MEAN TO YOU?

NSM stands for National Selected Morticians, a non-profit organization of over 800 funeral establishments in the United States, Canada, and in many foreign countries. Since only one member is selected in a community, to qualify a firm must maintain a complete establishment, operate in accord with fair business practices, have their own licensed personnel, and subscribe to the NSM Code of Ethics.

Regular inspection of our facilities and equipment is made, and NSM membership is continued through the approval of the Board of Control.

As East Liverpool's member in this organization, we are constantly striving to maintain the NSM standards.

Has New Hat, Hopes To Be 100

Ex-Vice President Garner Marks His 97th Birthday

UVALDE, Tex. (AP) — Former Vice President John Nance Garner celebrated his 97th birthday today with a brand new hat and a wish to be 100.

National and state officials gathered in this small South Texas town to honor the only man who ever served successively as speaker of the U.S. House and presiding officer of the U.S. Senate. Others sent birthday wishes by mail and wire.

Garner made his birthday wishes known late Sunday in an emotional visit with his son, Tully Garner, 67, prominent Uvalde businessman.

"Son, I believe you want me to reach 100 as much as I do," said the elder Garner.

"I want it even more, dad," Tulley said.

The former vice president's birthday presents began arriving as he talked to his son and a few visitors beneath the giant oak trees encircling the modest white house where Garner now lives.

Garner had to be reminded to go inside when dusk began to fall.

"These oak trees and me are partners," the bushy-browed Garner told visitors. "I have been sitting under this one old tree seems like maybe 70 years, and I bet it will last another 70 if I can last that long. That's all Ive got to do, now, is sit here under these old trees."

He reached out a hand and strained his weakening eyes to see each newcomer.

"You are as welcome here as these old oak trees," he said.

Cactus Jack, as he was known during much of his 46 years as a public official, bowed out of politics in 1940 when he caught a train to Texas and never returned to Washington.

He began his political career with election as Uvalde County judge when Grover Cleveland was president. He served two terms in the Texas Legislature and was elected to Congress in 1902. He served in the U.S. House 30 years and was elected speaker in 1931. In 1932, he lost a bid for the Democratic presidential nomination, but was picked as Franklin D. Roosevelt's running mate.

After two terms as vice president, he and Roosevelt broke up the partnership and Garner returned to Texas.

Kiwanis At Wellsville To Hear Pastor Speak

The Rev. Bruce Davis, president of the Wellsville Ministerial Association, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

He will discuss the Tri-State Hospital Chaplaincy Association, which is sponsored by the ministerial associations of the area.

The club will vote Nov. 30 on a proposal to increase the dues. The club agreed to invite members to make contributions to help make up the deficit in the administrative fund. Contributions should be paid to Tom Piatt, treasurer.

"The newspaper is parent, school, college, pupil, theatre, example, counselor all in one," Wendell Phillips once declared.

Crackdown On Reds Backed In Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Indonesian regional commanders Sunday night fully endorsed the army chief's crackdown on the Communists and pledged to carry it out in their regions, the official news agency Antara reported.

The army chief, Maj. Gen. Suharto, met with the commanders in Jakarta after they had met with President Sukarno at the Bogor presidential palace 40 miles south of Jakarta.

Sukarno in a speech Sunday appealed for an end to the campaign of "killing, destruction and hatred" against the Communists. He warned that if Indonesians continue to fight each other, the nation will destroy itself from within.

During Lisbon Meeting

3 Members Begin Terms With County's Fair Board

LISBON — Three county residents were sworn in for three-year terms on the Columbiana County Fair Board at the annual meeting Saturday night at the Wick Hotel.

Rolland Stryffeler of Beloit R. D. 2 was elected in October to succeed Fred Schoeni, also of Beloit, who did not seek re-election. Ike Skeels of Lisbon R.D. 4 and Richard Stockman of Lisbon were re-elected.

Edwin Thompson of Lisbon R. D. 5 was re-elected president. Other officers elected were Donald Elliott of Rogers, treasurer; P. R. Corey of Columbiana, concession manager, and Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, secretary.

Ben Weingart of Leetonia R.D. 2, was elected vice president, succeeding Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. 2. Greenisen also had the job of grounds manager and will be replaced by Skeels, Thompson said.

Other members of the board are Thomas Rudebock of Leetonia R. D. 2 and William Werner of Salem R. D. 2.

Dinner guests were wives and guests of members; County Commissioner and Mrs. James W. Boyd of East Liverpool; Robert Lewis, county 4-H agent, and Mrs. Lewis, and Ann Overturf, county home economics agent.

The Fair Board received regrets from County Commissioners R. Max Gard of near Lisbon and Frank C. Wilson of Wellsville, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Cope was authorized to order Agricultural Society membership tickets which will be available from members and the secretary from Jan. 1 to the final day of the 1966 Fair.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 16, to sign the annual financial report for the state auditor's office.

Widow Awarded $740,000 For Loss Of Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—A widow has been awarded $740,000 for loss of her husband, who died of a heart attack brought on by fright.

On May 7, 1958, in Whitestone, Queens, a car smashed through the front lawn of Salvatore Capossela, 53, and almost rammed into the house where he and his wife, Catherine, were sitting by a window.

Going outside to talk to the driver, Capossela experienced pains in his arms and chest. Returning to the house, he collapsed and was dead 45 minutes later.

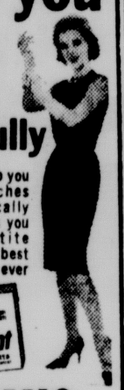

The award to the widow was made over the weekend by State Supreme Court Justice Nicholas M. Pette. The award was retroactive to the date of the man's death, plus interest charges, and based on his earning capacity as a toolmaker.

Defendants in the negligence suit were Bruce Kelley, 19, at the time of the accident, and his mother, Mary F. Kelley, owner of the car.

"The modern newspaper literally has its fingers reaching out toward every quarter of the globe and every finger is sensitive and every nerve brings back the treasures of the intellectual wealth that are stored up there, and a photograph of the occurrences of life that are there taking place."—C. Sentence Given District Youth In Forgery Charge

A 20-year-old East Liverpool district youth will be taken to the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield to begin serving a one-to-20-year sentence on a forgery charge imposed in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Rodney Gilkinson of Substation requested probation in October but withdrew that request Friday before Judge Joel H. Sharp. Gilkinson asked for immediate sentencing.

Two more forgery charges are pending against Gilkinson in Municipal Court.

He was before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff last week on two counts alleging that he issued fraudulent checks for $34 and $62. The judge had set the preliminary hearing for next Wednesday, but the counts probably will be continued indefinitely because of the sentencing at Lisbon.

LISBON—A total of 336 deeds involving a consideration of $1,428,938.24 were filed during October in the office of County Recorder John Wargo, according to his monthly report.

In addition, 276 mortgages were filed involving a consideration of $3,284,795.95 and 195 mortgage cancellations involving $1,433,671.34.

Also filed during the month were 38 mortgage releases, 32 leases, 32 certified copies of service discharges, seven mechanics' liens, six powers of attorney and eight unemployment compensation liens.

Three federal tax releases and 14 federal tax liens were filed as were 397 financing statements, 102 terminations of financing statements, one surety bond and one surety bond release.

Wellsville Driver Hurt In 2-Way Auto Mishap

A Wellsville man was injured when his car struck a parked vehicle Saturday night in one of two accidents investigated over the weekend by Wellsville police.

Charles Steward Farris of 605 17th St. suffered lacerations of the forehead and palm of his left hand when his car hit a parked car Saturday at 10:30 p. m. on Commerce St. He was treated at City Hospital. Police said Farris was headed east when he lost control and hit the car owned by Robert McGraw, 1014 Commerce St.

Farris was charged with reckless operation and will receive a hearing Saturday before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

A car owned by Chester E. Schoolcraft, 1225 Anderson Ave., Wellsville, drifted from a parking lot at 314 Broadway and hit the home of Gabriel Geordano of Broadway Sunday at 11:10 a. m. Police said minor damage resulted.

Dominican Rebellion Of Rightists Crushed

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Armed Forces smashed a small Rightist rebellion early today in the heart of the Dominican Republic without firing a shot.

Commodore Francisco J. Rivera Caminero, Armed Forces secretary, said 47 persons had been arrested. He added that no members of the military were involved.

The small band of conspirators captured a radio station at Tamboril, a small community south of Santiago.

3 Members Begin Terms With County's Fair Board

LISBON — Three county residents were sworn in for three-year terms on the Columbiana County Fair Board at the annual meeting Saturday night at the Wick Hotel.

Rolland Stryffeler of Beloit R. D. 2 was elected in October to succeed Fred Schoeni, also of Beloit, who did not seek re-election. Ike Skeels of Lisbon R.D. 4 and Richard Stockman of Lisbon were re-elected.

Edwin Thompson of Lisbon R. D. 5 was re-elected president. Other officers elected were Donald Elliott of Rogers, treasurer; P. R. Corey of Columbiana, concession manager, and Mrs. Velma Cope of Lisbon, secretary.

Ben Weingart of Leetonia R.D. 2, was elected vice president, succeeding Galen Greenisen of Salem R. D. 2. Greenisen also had the job of grounds manager and will be replaced by Skeels, Thompson said.

Dinner guests were wives and guests of members; County Commissioner and Mrs. James W. Boyd of East Liverpool; Robert Lewis, county 4-H agent, and Mrs. Lewis, and Ann Overturf, county home economics agent.

The Fair Board received regrets from County Commissioners R. Max Gard of near Lisbon and Frank C. Wilson of Wellsville, who is in the hospital.

Mrs. Cope was authorized to order Agricultural Society membership tickets which will be available from members and the secretary from Jan. 1 to the final day of the 1966 Fair.

The next meeting will be Thursday, Dec. 16, to sign the annual financial report for the state auditor's office.

Widow Awarded $740,000 For Loss Of Husband

NEW YORK (AP)—A widow has been awarded $740,000 for loss of her husband, who died of a heart attack brought on by fright.

On May 7, 1958, in Whitestone, Queens, a car smashed through the front lawn of Salvatore Capossela, 53, and almost rammed into the house where he and his wife, Catherine, were sitting by a window.

Going outside to talk to the driver, Capossela experienced pains in his arms and chest. Returning to the house, he collapsed and was dead 45 minutes later.

The award to the widow was made over the weekend by State Supreme Court Justice Nicholas M. Pette. The award was retroactive to the date of the man's death, plus interest charges, and based on his earning capacity as a toolmaker.

Defendants in the negligence suit were Bruce Kelley, 19, at the time of the accident, and his mother, Mary F. Kelley, owner of the car.

"The modern newspaper literally has its fingers reaching out toward every quarter of the globe and every finger is sensitive and every nerve brings back the treasures of the intellectual wealth that are stored up there, and a photograph of the occurrences of life that are there taking place."—C. D. Warner, author.

Sentence Given District Youth In Forgery Charge

A 20-year-old East Liverpool district youth will be taken to the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield to begin serving a one-to-20-year sentence on a forgery charge imposed in Common Pleas Court at Lisbon.

Rodney Gilkinson of Substation requested probation in October but withdrew that request Friday before Judge Joel H. Sharp. Gilkinson asked for immediate sentencing.

Two more forgery charges are pending against Gilkinson in Municipal Court.

He was before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff last week on two counts alleging that he issued fraudulent checks for $34 and $62. The judge had set the preliminary hearing for next Wednesday, but the counts probably will be continued indefinitely because of the sentencing at Lisbon.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Last night my husband and I joined another couple for dinner at a very good restaurant. A teen-age couple and their baby were at the next table. Midway through our meal I was horrified to see the young mother unbutton her blouse and proceed to breast feed her child right there in the dining room.

Two boys, about 14 and 15 years old, were seated at the next table with their parents. They didn't take their eyes off the nursing mother. Their parents finally changed seats with the boys so they wouldn't be facing the "floor show."

I expressed the opinion that nursing a child in public was in very poor taste. No one at our table felt as strongly as I did. Am I old-fashioned, crazy or what? — ALL ALONE.

Dear All: You are not alone. I'm with you. The person in charge of the dining room should have shown the mother to the women's lounge. People who don't know better need to be told.

Sons And Daughters

Dear Ann: A recent column about fathers' preferring male offspring to females goaded me into writing my first letter to Ann Landers.

Why do so many people assume that fathers want sons and not daughters? This theme has been driven into the ground on TV, in the movies, in jokes, novels and daily conversations — and it just isn't true. Many families yearn to have a girl and they get boys, boys, boys and more boys. But we never hear about them.

My husband tells me that very few men care one way or the other. He says the "I want a son" routine is a little game the boys play. Any psychiatrist will tell you that the father-daughter bond is stronger than the father-son bond. Fathers may respect their sons but they adore their daughters. — MOTHER OF BOTH.

Dear Mother: I've received a bale of mail on this subject and one little poem keeps cropping up — about 3,000 times. I'd like to pass it along.

Too Neighborly

Dear Ann: I was widowed when I was in my late 20s. I have been married to my second husband for 18 years. They have been the happiest 18 years of my life.

About a year ago an interesting and lively couple with three children bought the home next door. The woman is attractive and 15 years younger than I am. (I'm 50.)

At first I thought I might be imagining things but now I'm sure the neighbor woman is trying to throw me at her husband because she is interested in mine.

She sets up situations so her husband and I will be alone and she tries to get my husband to help her mix drinks in the other room. Last night she said, presumably kidding, "If you ever get tired of Bob send him to me and take Harold."

Should I play dumb and continue to be friendly or would it be best to chop the friendship at once? — J.A.G.W.

Dear J.A.G.W.: Even without the problem you describe it's always best to be on a lukewarm invitation - only basis with your neighbors. Under the circumstances, however, I strongly recommend a subtle cooling and finally a permanent freeze.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Traffic Takes Lives Of 15 In West Virginia

By The Associated Press

Fifteen persons lost their lives in traffic accidents between 6 p.m. Friday and 5 a. m. today for one of the deadliest 57-hour periods on state highways this year.

The fatalities raised the state's 1965 traffic toll to 418, compared with 413 on this date a year ago.

A car - truck collision on U.S. 60 near the eastern limits of Huntington early today fatally injured Larry Randon, and Keith Hargis, 18, both of Huntington.

Injured in the mishap were Gay Clay, 21, and William Pritchard, 22, also of Huntington.

Police said the accident occurred when a car slammed into a raised median strip in the center of the highway then careened into the path of a truck loaded with furniture.

Three young Mingo County men died Sunday when their car ran off W. Va. 49 near Sprigg south of Williamson and plunged 50 feet off a cliff Sunday.

They were Jack L. White of Ragland and Donnie Ray Yates of Merrimac, both in the Air Force, and Russell Lee Warrix of North Matewan. All were in their early 20s.

An elderly Monroe County couple died Sunday when a tractor-trailer truck jackknifed and crushed a car on U. S. 60 east of Lewisburg. The victims were Jerry Lester, 81, and his 76-year-old wife Anna Belle of Sweet Springs.

The other weekend victims: Judy Blevins, 11 - year - old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blevins of Paynesville, McDowell County, killed when the car in which she was riding skidded and hit a cliff near Bradshaw, McDowell County.

Sandra Danielson, 15, of Eureka, Pleasants County, who died when the car in which she was riding attempted to pass another auto and collided head-on with a pickup truck.

Samuel Lewis Nickleson, 82, of Martinsburg, struck and killed by a car Saturday on a Martinsburg street.

Leslie Trent, 17, of Mount Hope, who died when the car in which he was riding plunged over an embankment near Glen Jean, Fayette County Saturday night.

Danny Adkins, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Adkins of Midkiff, Lincoln County, hit by a car as he ran across W. Va. 10 near his home Saturday.

Clarence H. Kaltenback, 47, of Wheeling, whose car smashed into a utility ploe in South Wheeling Saturday.

Leldon E. Richmond, 36, of Pleasant Dale, Hampshire, who died in a two - car collision on U. S. 50 six miles east of Romney Friday night.

James P. DeFazio, 24-year-old West Virginia University student from Trenton, N. J., who died Saturday from injuries received when he was hit by a car in Morgantown Friday night.

120 Legislators At Kent Session

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Some 120 newly - elected councilmen from 13 counties in northeastern Ohio went to Kent State University Saturday to bone up on the ABC's of municipal government, finances and council duties.

They will return Dec. 4 and 11 for two more all - day sessions.

William B. Henry, executive director of the Cleveland-Seven County Transportation and Land Use Study, told the councilmen at a luncheon that the study was "the most ambitious planning program ever undertaken in this area by four levels of government."

Included are federal, state, county and local planners. Henry said the basic reason for the study was the population explosion in the seven - county area, which has produced a "spill over without regard to city limits and county lines."

He said this problem must be faced on a regional basis but emphasized the study should not replace planning at the local and county level.

Old cars today don't fade away — they just pile up. The 8,000 auto graveyards in the U. S. are heaped higher than ever with dead cars — more cars than the scrap dealers can use or want — and the problem of cars junked each year has soared from 3,600,000 to 5,300,000. Cars today are replaced earlier, junked sooner, than ever before.

The panel added a suggestion: Officials should "keep it free of loafers of the whittling and tobacco chewing variety."

Blaze Strikes Attic In Home

The attic of an East End home was damaged heavily in a blaze Saturday afternoon caused by a short circuit in an electrical extension cord, firemen reported.

Firemen said the blaze at the home of Ed Brown, 1807 Michigan Ave., started in the attic and spread to the stairway before they arrived.

Firemen spent nearly two hours fighting the fire. The alarm was received at 2:19. There was extensive damage to the attic and some water damage to other parts of the house, they reported. There was no estimate of the loss.

The department was called to Fairview St. at 7 p. m. Saturday by a fire in an auto operated by Lily Freeman. The lack of an air cleaner caused a carburetor backfire which started the blaze, but it was out when they arrived.

Auto Injures Woman's Hip; Driver Flees

Police today were searching for the driver of an auto that knocked down a woman pedestrian early Sunday night and then continued without stopping.

Miss Laura Gibson, 59, of the Mary Patterson Memorial was taken to City Hospital by police for an X-ray of the right hip injured in the mishap. She later was released.

Miss Gibson told police she was crossing Market St. from east to west at 5:45 p. m. yesterday. She said she looked both ways and the traffic signal was red for Market St. traffic when she started to cross. However, she didn't see the auto until it struck her, she said.

Patrolman L. E. Richard said two young boys were in the auto described as a 1955 or 1956 red and white Ford with the right front headlight rim missing.

No one was injured in two other collisions Sunday, police said.

A crash at 3:31 p. m. on Mulberry St. involved a stopped convertible operated by Batiste R. Manfredi, 33, of 751 Price St. and a northbound car driven by George F. Bright, 46, of 1307 Brightview Dr.

Manfredi said he was backing from a lot and halted to see if the way was clear when he was hit by the oncoming auto. Bright told officers Manfredi had backed into his lane and he swerved but was unable to avoid the other auto.

Bright's 1966 sedan and Manfredi's 1958 convertible were damaged.

The other crash, timed at 2:37 p. m. at Dresden Ave. and Webber Way, involved autos operated by Harvey Lee Lanphin Jr., 19, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 and Sheila Ann Flowers, 24, of 932 Florence St.

Lanphin told officers he was headed south and had halted for the traffic light. The woman, driving a car owned by Billy Storey of Charleston, S.C., said she developed a "catch" in her shoulder and was unable to straighten up the car after turning north onto Dresden from Webber Way.

Missing 'Power Pack' Found On North Side

A 60-pound "power pack" stolen from an auto wrecker Saturday night was found Sunday morning at Orchard Grove and St. Clair Aves., police reported.

Bob Williams, superintendent of Al's Atlantic Station on E. 3rd St., reported to police early Sunday that the unit, including an auto battery, battery charger and jumper cables, had been taken from the wrecker parked on Walnut St. between 9 and 10 p. m.

John Morrell called police at 7:37 a. m. Sunday to report he had found the unit at the North Side site. It was returned to Williams after he had identified it.

Payments Authorized By Franklin Trustees

Snow fencing has been erected at sites throughout the township, Forrest Thompson, chairman, reported. Brush has been trimmed along Rd. 842, Ernest Phillips, road supervisor, said.

Improvements have been made to a ditch near the Earl Beal farm, Phillips said. George McPherson was absent. The next meeting will be Dec. 4.

The man who discovered the telegraph in 1847, Samuel Finley Breeze Morse, was a world famous painter.

Rhodes Plunges Into Busy Round Of Work Today

The governor bounced into his statehouse office at 6:45 a.m. to check on accumulated mail and newspapers, confer with sleepy-eyed aides and get back into stride.

He called in cabinet members for a meeting Tuesday to review state objectives with foreign trade in mind.

Early next month he said top personnel will meet at the state fairgrounds to get a state program of increased efficiency under way. The session for possibly 500 was tentatively set for Dec. 9.

Rhodes and Finance Director Richard Krabach returned last Friday from a three-week European tour of nearly 60 Ohioans seeking foreign business. The main body of the mission will return to Cleveland late today.

Club At Midland Cancels Meeting

The weekly dinner meeting of the Midland Rotary Club will not be held this week because of the Thanksgiving holiday. The next meeting is set for Dec. 2.

At Thursday's dinner meeting at the New Riviera Restaurant, Edwin M. Moio, a pre-medical student at Geneva College in Beaver Falls, was the speaker.

Introduce by Joseph Jonas, he spoke on the history of his native country, Southern Rhodesia. Bill Yee, president, presided.

Leo Curto gave a report of the club's current attendance contest.

The president presented Rotary plaques to two seniors who have attended Rotary meetings during November — Cedric McClinton of Western Beaver High School in Industry and Ronald DeCostro, Midland High School.

Edgar Richards gave the invocation; Lloyd Deffenbaugh, group singing, and Lynn Gruber, a Midland High School student, was the pianist.

CIA Official Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj Gen. Harold M. McClelland, 72, for the past 14 years director of communications for the Central Intelligence Agency, died Friday.

COLD-SINUS Miseries?

Is your head pounding - nose running - are your eyes watering and are you sneezing - sneezing - sneezing?
Have you blown your nose until it is raw?
We're sorry you're suffering so because obviously you're not aware of our product SYNA-CLEAR and this is our fault.
SYNA-CLEAR is the original timed release tablet that gives up to eight hours of real relief from cold symptoms and clogged up sinuses.
We do not have millions to spend on T.V. to tell you about SYNA-CLEAR just this small ad. We do not gimmick our Advertising and product by offering twelve hours of medication. What is medication without relief?
SYNA-CLEAR is what we offer and it gives you eight hours relief per tablet or your money back in full.
We could go into detail how our product works and about the fine formula, but we would rather you ask the experts about SYNA-CLEAR. The druggist at the store listed below or your family doctor can tell you about the merits of our fine formula.
SYNA-CLEAR costs more ($1.50 & $3.00 sizes) because it does more. You're buying relief and not gimmicks.
Try SYNA-CLEAR as soon as possible — you know — all your miseries are all you can lose.
This little ad has an awful big job to do — to get you to try SYNA-CLEAR, so as a bonus cut me out and send in with an empty SYNA-CLEAR carton and we'll mail you a check for 50c for just trying SYNA-CLEAR. If you have time to tell us about the results SYNA-CLEAR gave you, we would be pleased to hear from you.

Ex-West Virginia Official Will Be Arraigned Today

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Jack Nuckols, state motor vehicles commissioner from 1961 to 1964, was to be arraigned in Kanawha County Intermediate Court today on a charge of falsifying records while in office.

Nuckols was indicted two weeks ago on charges of falsifying personnel and payroll records and expense accounts with the intent of enabling himself and others "to obtain money to which they were not entitled."

The grand jury indictment did not mention any specific amount of money.

A former employe of the Motor Vehicles Department, Fred Viness of Flat Top, Raleigh County, was charged with turning in a fraudulent expense account for $174.

Both men were to answer the charges last Monday, but arraignment was postponed at the request of their attorneys.

More Cars Damaged By Weekend Vandals

A new wave of vandalism involving antennas on parked cars was reported by police over the weekend.

Roy Clark, rear 684 Lincoln Ave., told officers the antenna on his 1965 auto was broken between 4 p. m. Friday and 9 a. m. Saturday.

Carol Chaffee, 707 Lincoln Ave., said vandals broke the antenna of her 1961 car between 9:30 and 10 p. m. Friday.

About two weeks ago, several East End motorists reported antennas broken on their cars parked on St. George St.

Over 700,000 news words were sent by teletype Jan. 20 at Truman's first inaugural in Washington by 1,200 newsmen.

Ohio Traffic Kills 19 More On Weekend

Traffic	19
Fires	0
Miscellaneous	3
Total	22

By The Associated Press

It was a safe Sunday on Ohio traffic routes, but a heavy Saturday toll put the weekend count at 19 known deaths in motor vehicle accidents.

A double-fatal truck crash in Dayton with two brothers the victims and a head-on auto collision near Pisgah in Butler County that killed a Cincinnati couple increased the tally.

Those were among 15 traffic deaths on Saturday alone.

The state had another three fatalities in miscellaneous accidents in the period 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. But after Friday's disastrous Akron fire, there were no reported fire deaths during the weekend survey.

The fatalities:

Friday night

Mrs. William Baetz, 70, Amherst, when her car rammed the rear of an auto that had stopped to pick up hitchhikers on Ohio 58 near Amherst in Lorain County.

Saturday

Dennie Chumney, 6, Lore City, in a fall into farm machinery on her family's farm in Guernsey County.

Mrs. Etta B. Altizer, 74, Bidwell, Gallia County, in a traffic collision on U. S. 35 west of Gallipolis.

Guy Mandl, 15, Upper Arlington, occupant of an auto that overturned along a road in Franklin County.

Charles A. Lough, 40, Salem, W. Va., when his car left Ohio 60 north of Marietta and sank in the Muskingum River.

Charles Walters, 54, Jamestown, when his car crashed into a cement culvert south of Clifton in Greene County.

Sunday

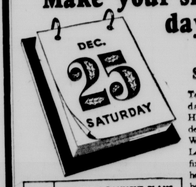

Mrs. Frances Johnson, 42, occupant of an auto that overturned on Interstate 70 in Clark County.

Mrs. Judy Cain, 43, Mogadore, when the car driven by her husband hit a tractor - trailer trying to turn around on Ohio 43 south of Kent.

Samuel Frazier, 64, Cleveland, of injuries suffered in a three-car crash in Cleveland Saturday.

Auto Injures Woman's Hip; Driver Flees

Police today were searching for the driver of an auto that knocked down a woman pedestrian early Sunday night and then continued without stopping.

Miss Laura Gibson, 59, of the Mary Patterson Memorial was taken to City Hospital by police for an X-ray of the right hip injured in the mishap. She later was released.

Miss Gibson told police she was crossing Market St. from east to west at 5:45 p. m. yesterday. She said she looked both ways and the traffic signal was red for Market St. traffic when she started to cross. However, she didn't see the auto until it struck her, she said.

Patrolman L. E. Richard said two young boys were in the auto described as a 1955 or 1956 red and white Ford with the right front headlight rim missing.

No one was injured in two other collisions Sunday, police said.

A crash at 3:31 p. m. on Mulberry St. involved a stopped convertible operated by Batiste R. Manfredi, 33, of 751 Price St. and a northbound car driven by George F. Bright, 46, of 1307 Brightview Dr.

Manfredi said he was backing from a lot and halted to see if the way was clear when he was hit by the oncoming auto. Bright told officers Manfredi had backed into his lane and he swerved but was unable to avoid the other auto.

Bright's 1966 sedan and Manfredi's 1958 convertible were damaged.

The other crash, timed at 2:37 p. m. at Dresden Ave. and Webber Way, involved autos operated by Harvey Lee Lanphin Jr., 19, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 and Sheila Ann Flowers, 24, of 932 Florence St.

Lanphin told officers he was headed south and had halted for the traffic light. The woman, driving a car owned by Billy Storey of Charleston, S.C., said she developed a "catch" in her shoulder and was unable to straighten up the car after turning north onto Dresden from Webber Way.

Missing 'Power Pack' Found On North Side

A 60-pound "power pack" stolen from an auto wrecker Saturday night was found Sunday morning at Orchard Grove and St. Clair Aves., police reported.

Bob Williams, superintendent of Al's Atlantic Station on E. 3rd St., reported to police early Sunday that the unit, including an auto battery, battery charger and jumper cables, had been taken from the wrecker parked on Walnut St. between 9 and 10 p. m.

John Morrell called police at 7:37 a. m. Sunday to report he had found the unit at the North Side site. It was returned to Williams after he had identified it.

More Cars Damaged By Weekend Vandals

A new wave of vandalism involving antennas on parked cars was reported by police over the weekend.

Roy Clark, rear 684 Lincoln Ave., told officers the antenna on his 1965 auto was broken between 4 p. m. Friday and 9 a. m. Saturday.

Carol Chaffee, 707 Lincoln Ave., said vandals broke the antenna of her 1961 car between 9:30 and 10 p. m. Friday.

About two weeks ago, several East End motorists reported antennas broken on their cars parked on St. George St.

Over 700,000 news words were sent by teletype Jan. 20 at Truman's first inaugural in Washington by 1,200 newsmen.

Ohio Traffic Kills 19 More On Weekend

Traffic	19
Fires	0
Miscellaneous	3
Total	22

By The Associated Press

It was a safe Sunday on Ohio traffic routes, but a heavy Saturday toll put the weekend count at 19 known deaths in motor vehicle accidents.

A double-fatal truck crash in Dayton with two brothers the victims and a head-on auto collision near Pisgah in Butler County that killed a Cincinnati couple increased the tally.

Those were among 15 traffic deaths on Saturday alone.

The state had another three fatalities in miscellaneous accidents in the period 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. But after Friday's disastrous Akron fire, there were no reported fire deaths during the weekend survey.

The fatalities:

Friday night

Mrs. William Baetz, 70, Amherst, when her car rammed the rear of an auto that had stopped to pick up hitchhikers on Ohio 58 near Amherst in Lorain County.

Saturday

Mrs. Etta B. Altizer, 74, Bidwell, Gallia County, in a traffic collision on U. S. 35 west of Gallipolis.

Guy Mandi, 15, Upper Arlington, occupant of an auto that overturned along a road in Franklin County.

Charles A. Lough, 40, Salem, W. Va., when his car left Ohio 60 north of Marietta and sank in the Muskingum River.

Sunday

Mrs. Frances Johnson, 42, occupant of an auto that overturned on Interstate 70 in Clark County.

Mrs. Judy Cain, 43, Mogadore, when the car driven by her husband hit a tractor - trailer trying to turn around on Ohio 43 south of Kent.

Farmer Due 38 Or 39 Cents Of 'Food Dollar' Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's railroads are expected to increase their share of the hauling of agricultural traffic in 1966.

An Agriculture Department report said rail carriers are making innovations to help make them more competitive with trucks and barges.

The railroad share of such traffic declined from 66 per cent in 1946 to 43 per cent in 1963.

The changes are said to include new and improved equipment and more lower freight rates.

WASHINGTON (AP) —The government's investment in farm commodities under price support programs declined about 10 per cent during the year ended Sept. 30.

The investment on this date totaled $6,233,896,000 compared with $6,924,386,000 a year earlier. Much of this decline reflected the sale of surpluses, mostly in foreign outlets, for less than cost, as well as the offer of government payments to farmers for holding land out of production of surplus crops.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today that the farmer's share of the consumer food dollar in 1966 will average 38 or 39 cents. It was 39 cents this year, and 37 cents in 1964.

The farm share was 43 cents in 1954. Shortly after World War I it rose to slightly more than 50 cents.

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. slaughter of hogs during the marketing year ending next Oct. 1 is expected to be one of the smallest in more than 10 years.

The Agriculture Department predicted today that total commercial slaughter of hogs during the current season will be 72 million head compared with 78 million during the previous season.

11 Uninjured In Auto Crash

Eleven persons escaped injury in a collision of two cars at Glenmoor Sunday afternoon at 5, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Both vehicles were damaged heavily in the crash which occurred as John Robert Schwartz, 28, of 133 E. 3rd St., driving a 1956 coach, turned toward a service station as Robert E. Yost, 25, of Willoughby attempted to pass him.

Schwartz and five passengers in his auto were shaken but apparently unhurt. They included his wife, Elizabeth, 26; son, Craig, 3, and Charles Bolton, 35, of Simmons St., Norma Bolton, 35, of Simmons St. and Michelle Bolton, 4.

Yost and four passengers in his auto also were uninjured, the patrol said.

"If a nation expects to be both ignorant and free, it expects what never was and never will be," Thomas Jefferson once said.

Penalty Given Motorist For Auto Collision

A city councilman was fined $15 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge filed as the aftermath of an auto collision Nov. 13 in the East End.

William E. Davis, 45, of 713 Edwards Ave. drew the penalty after pleading guilty to a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance filed by Patrolman S. E. Hayes.

Judge Chertoff questioned the patrolman and the owners of two vehicles which were struck by the auto operated by the Fourth Ward Democratic councilman.

They were George H. Allmon of the Y. & O. Rd., Glenmoor, owner of a pickup truck parked on Pennsylvania Ave. near Maryland Ave., and Bernice Vignovich, 736 Penn Ave., Midland, who was driving east.

Joseph William Hoppel of Stage Coach Rd. was ordered to pay the court costs on a charge of driving without an operator's license. He was cited early Saturday by the State Highway Patrol after an accident on County Rd. 435.

A bench warrant ordered by the court for Hoppel's arrest was withdrawn when the defendant appeared and explained he had been instructed by the patrol to report at 10 a. m.

A hearing for Thomas Lawrence, 1279 Sunnyside Ave., was continued until Nov. 30 when he pleaded not guilty to a reckless driving charge filed by Patrolman Hayes after an accident on Park Way.

Richard W. Shawke, 320 Campground Rd., Wellsville, is due for a hearing Tuesday morning on a charge of failing to obey a stop sign at Route 7 and Kountz Ave. He was cited Saturday by the patrol.

Donald J. Hoppel of R. D. 3 will be given a hearing next Monday on a charge of making an illegal right turn at E. 5th and Washington Sts. He was cited at 6:53 p. m. Saturday.

How Can I?

ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I use walnuts and figs for a filling in sandwiches?

A. — Grind and mix one cup of walnuts, one cup of dried figs, and one large apple. Add a teaspoon of sugar and moisten with a little butter.

Q. — How can I prevent tarnish when storing away silverware for awhile?

A. — Rub the silver well with olive oil, then wrap in old table linen. The silver will not tarnish, but of course it should be washed in hot water before using it again.

Q.—What can I do when I inadvertently get too much salt in my soup or gravy?

A. — Counteract it by adding a teaspoonful of sugar and a teaspoonful of vinegar, and then cooking a little longer. Or, drop a whole peeled raw potato into the soup or gravy, let it cook awhile, then remove the potato before serving. In the case of thick soup or gravy, grate in the raw potato and let it stay. In fact, grated potato can be used to thicken a soup when necessary.

Crash Hurts Area Woman

A 25-year-old Salineville woman hurt when her compact auto spun back and forth on Route 644 near Summitville, crashed through guardrails and went over an embankment Saturday was in "fairly good" condition today at Salem Central Clinic.

Martha Pearl Chidester of Schoolhouse Hill, Salineville, received multiple lacerations of the head and face when her 1965 auto veered off the road about 2:05 p. m.

There was heavy damage to the front and sides of the auto. She was charged with traveling at a speed in excess of safe conditions.

No Sign, No Stop

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Two motorists collided at an intersection in suburban Pleasure Ridge Park. It didn't take police long to spot the cause: vandals had stolen a stop sign on one of the streets.

Sky-Diving Santa Will Lead Lisbon Yuletide Parade

Discarding the reindeer - and-sleigh mode of transportation, Saint Nick will fly to Lisbon and bail out over the Public Square about 1:45 p. m., about 15 minutes before the official start of the parade.

Everyone in the main part of town should have a clear view of Santa parachuting with a pack full of treats, according to Allen Dickey and Alton Crotherss, co-chairmen for the annual event sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

According to the Jaycees, Santa intends to sky-dive over the square, despite such uncomfortable landing spots as the Courthouse spire, bare trees and telephone wires.

Farmer Due 38 Or 39 Cents Of 'Food Dollar' Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's railroads are expected to increase their share of the hauling of agricultural traffic in 1966.

An Agriculture Department report said rail carriers are making innovations to help make them more competitive with trucks and barges.

The railroad share of such traffic declined from 66 per cent in 1946 to 43 per cent in 1963.

The changes are said to include new and improved equipment and more lower freight rates.

WASHINGTON (AP) —The government's investment in farm commodities under price support programs declined about 10 per cent during the year ended Sept. 30.

The investment on this date totaled $6,233,896,000 compared with $6,924,386,000 a year earlier. Much of this decline reflected the sale of surpluses, mostly in foreign outlets, for less than cost, as well as the offer of government payments to farmers for holding land out of production of surplus crops.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today that the farmer's share of the consumer food dollar in 1966 will average 38 or 39 cents. It was 39 cents this year, and 37 cents in 1964.

The farm share was 43 cents in 1954. Shortly after World War I it rose to slightly more than 50 cents.

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. slaughter of hogs during the marketing year ending next Oct. 1 is expected to be one of the smallest in more than 10 years.

The Agriculture Department predicted today that total commercial slaughter of hogs during the current season will be 72 million head compared with 78 million during the previous season.

11 Uninjured In Auto Crash

Eleven persons escaped injury in a collision of two cars at Glenmoor Sunday afternoon at 5, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Both vehicles were damaged heavily in the crash which occurred as John Robert Schwartz, 28, of 133 E. 3rd St., driving a 1956 coach, turned toward a service station as Robert E. Yost, 25, of Willoughby attempted to pass him.

They said Yost attempted to pass Schwartz as the latter started to make a left turn toward a service station at the intersection of the Y. & O. Rd. and Route 267.

Schwartz and five passengers in his auto were shaken but apparently unhurt. They included his wife, Elizabeth, 26; son, Craig, 3, and Charles Bolton, 35, of Simmons St., Norma Bolton, 35, of Simmons St. and Michelle Bolton, 4.

Yost and four passengers in his auto also were uninjured, the patrol said.

"If a nation expects to be both ignorant and free, it expects what never was and never will be," Thomas Jefferson once said.

Penalty Given Motorist For Auto Collision

A city councilman was fined $15 and costs today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge filed as the aftermath of an auto collision Nov. 13 in the East End.

William E. Davis, 45, of 713 Edwards Ave. drew the penalty after pleading guilty to a charge of failing to stop within the assured clear distance filed by Patrolman S. E. Hayes.

Judge Chertoff questioned the patrolman and the owners of two vehicles which were struck by the auto operated by the Fourth Ward Democratic councilman.

They were George H. Allmon of the Y. & O. Rd., Glenmoor, owner of a pickup truck parked on Pennsylvania Ave. near Maryland Ave., and Bernice Vignovich, 736 Penn Ave., Midland, who was driving east.

Joseph William Hoppel of Stage Coach Rd. was ordered to pay the court costs on a charge of driving without an operator's license. He was cited early Saturday by the State Highway Patrol after an accident on County Rd. 435.

A bench warrant ordered by the court for Hoppel's arrest was withdrawn when the defendant appeared and explained he had been instructed by the patrol to report at 10 a. m.

A hearing for Thomas Lawrence, 1279 Sunnyside Ave., was continued until Nov. 30 when he pleaded not guilty to a reckless driving charge filed by Patrolman Hayes after an accident on Park Way.

Richard W. Shawke, 320 Campground Rd., Wellsville, is due for a hearing Tuesday morning on a charge of failing to obey a stop sign at Route 7 and Kountz Ave. He was cited Saturday by the patrol.

Donald J. Hoppel of R. D. 3 will be given a hearing next Monday on a charge of making an illegal right turn at E. 5th and Washington Sts. He was cited at 6:53 p. m. Saturday.

How Can I?

ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I use walnuts and figs for a filling in sandwiches?

A. — Grind and mix one cup of walnuts, one cup of dried figs, and one large apple. Add a teaspoon of sugar and moisten with a little butter.

Q. — How can I prevent tarnish when storing away silverware for awhile?

A. — Rub the silver well with olive oil, then wrap in old table linen. The silver will not tarnish, but of course it should be washed in hot water before using it again.

Q.—What can I do when I inadvertently get too much salt in my soup or gravy?

A. — Counteract it by adding a teaspoonful of sugar and a teaspoonful of vinegar, and then cooking a little longer. Or, drop a whole peeled raw potato into the soup or gravy, let it cook awhile, then remove the potato before serving. In the case of thick soup or gravy, grate in the raw potato and let it stay. In fact, grated potato can be used to thicken a soup when necessary.

Employment Of Women

U.S. To Enforce Ban On Sex Discrimination

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government detailed today some of its ideas about the employment of women. The basic theme: women can't be denied a job solely because they are women.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission set forth seven major guidelines to show employers how it will enforce the ban on sex discrimination which was included in the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Commission interpretations are subject to court challenge, and currently apply only to employers of 100 or more workers.

The employe limit drops to 75 next July 2, to 50 on the same day in 1967 and finally to 25 on July 2, 1968.

In general, the commission said its interpretations won't conflict with state laws intended to protect women against exploitation and hazard.

But it said many state laws now are outdated, and legislatures should take a fresh look at them.

The commission said it won't accept such discrimination excuses as men do a better job than women, that women quit their jobs sooner, that co-workers, clients or customers prefer men or that separate facilities would have to be provided for women.

The guidelines include several previously stated. Among them are ones affecting married women and job advertising.

The commission said married females can't be banned unless there is a similar embargo on married males. It did say there might be some exceptions, but made no effort to pinpoint them.

Wtih reference to advertising, the commission said no sex preference may be noted unless it is absolutely essential. A woman, it noted, obviously couldn't qualify as an actor.

It suggested that classified ads could be labeled "Jobs of Interest — Male," or "Jobs of Interest — Female." But the ad itself then must state that all comers are welcome.

Other guidelines:

There can be no use of separate promotion or seniority systems based on sex.

Employment agencies share responsibility with employer clients in filling jobs on the basis of ability, not sex.

Standards of equal pay for equal work will be applied to women as well as men.

Pre - employment inquiries may ask for the applicant's sex if the information is for a non-discriminatory purposes.

25 Face Court On Gambling

CHARLESTON (AP) — Court appearances are scheduled Nov. 29 and Dec. 13 for 25 men arrested in gambling raids Saturday in West Virginia and Ohio.

Seventy-five Internal Revenue Service agents made the arrests and confiscated $46,200 at taverns, pool rooms and private homes in Charleston, South Charleston, Dunbar, Huntington and Proctorville, Ohio.

Most of the men were charged with failure to purchase federal gambling stamps. Six were charged with failure to file supplemental tax returns listing persons working for them.

W. L. Butcher, chief of the IRS intelligence division for West Virginia, said $15,700 was confiscated in the Charleston area and $30,500 in Huntington.

All the men were freed on bond ranging from $500 to $1,000.

Bar Stool Bliss

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — Charles Turnbill and Marian Bolton picked a tavern for their wedding because "it was very appropriable to our good times together here." On top of that, no one had to go very far when it was announced that drinks were on the house after the "I dos" were exchanged.

Man Collapses, Dies At Wedding Party In Akron

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Gerald F. O'Flanagan, who went with his two brothers to play practical jokes on their newly married sister, collapsed and died when one brother was involved in a fight during a wedding party at the Yankee Clipper Inn, Summit County Coroner Dr. A. H. Kyriakides ruled Sunday.

The 25 - year - old Cleveland father of four died of a hemorrhage from a ruptured blood vessel in the brain, Kyriakides said and was not injured in the fight.

The sister, Carolyn, and her husband, Martin Gargano, were not registered at the motel, a clerk told O'Flanagan and his brothers, Emmett, 24, and Michael, 14. The couple was married Saturday in Peninsula.

The brothers learned of a wedding party on the seventh floor and went here, instead. A fight broke out and Emmett O'Flanagan was hit on the head with a whisky bottle. He suffered cuts.

During the melee, Gerald O'Flanagan collapsed. The youngest brother was not involved in the fight, deputies said. Deputies arrested three men at the party for questioning but they were released after the coroner's ruling.

The only two men not scalped by the victorious Sioux in the massacre at Little Big Horn were Mark Kellogg, reporter for the weekly Bismarck Tribune, and Gen. George Custer.

Oak Glen High Prepares For First Musical Show

The first musical show in the history of Oak Glen High School will be presented Dec. 16 and 18 in the Little Theater on the campus.

Featured will be such songs as "Bringing Home the Christmas Tree", Scrooge's scathing condemnation of the holiday season set to music; the tender ballad, "Very Long Ago," and Tiny Tim's famous "God Bless Us Everyone".

Linda Cordray, Susan Evans, Nancy Chaney, Barbara Hawkins, Barbara Wilson, Pam Baker, Lois Rice, Marilyn Finley, Nancy Price, Mark Eckleberry, Heidi Gogol, Kathy Jester, Dan Eckleberry and Jim Chaney.

Harry M. West, drama coach, will produce and direct the entire production. Miss Sondra Daugherty will direct the musical portions of the show. Other faculty members assisting with the production are William Owings, John Scott and Miss Jo Bonessi.

Backstage crews for the holiday production follow: Set and Stage, Gary Barnhart, Susan Barnhart, Rod Collins, Mike Ford, Benny Geer, John Oyster, Ike Pethtel; lights, Joe Narcavish, Bill Myers, Ike Pethtel, Charles Rayburn, Greg Todd; props, Cathy Coen, Dinah Hawkins, Vickie McDonald, Daisy Myers, Judith Summers, Patty Ward; makeup, Kathy McGeehan, Kathy Lee, Pam Ronan, Alicia Shilling, Marilyn Skavenski; student director, Bill McKnight; script girl Chris Abrams.

How Can I?

ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I make a better and more secure job of putting up shelves or hanging pictures on a plastered wall?

A. — It's a good idea to locate the studs, so that you can drive your nails into them for a more secure anchor. You can find these studs easily by aid of an ordinary compass, which will be attracted by the nails in the studs, thus showing the location of the latter.

Q. — How can I clean off old stains from leather upholstery?

A. — By coating with a mixture of powdered pipe clay and water, mixed to a paste. Allow this to remain for several hours, then brush off, repeating the process if necessary.

Q.—How can I keep my vacuum cleaner in good condition?

A.—Keep the motor oiled according to the manufacturer's directions, clean the brush regularly, and often, empty the bag after each using, turn off the motor immediately when you are not actually working — and the life of your vacuum cleaner should be lengthened.

Q.—How can I make my own wallpaper - hanging brush?

A.—Here's a good brush for the "do-it-yourself" paperhanger: Take a 20-inch length of 3/4-inch board about five inches wide, and along one edge of this nail a length of ordinary rubber garden hose. Then over this hose, tack on both sides of the board a strip of discarded long-nap carpeting. This will prove a handy tool for "ironing" out and eliminating the air pockets in your freshly - applied wallpaper.

Suspected A Still?

STERLING, Kan. (AP) — There were some quick questions when city officials were asked to approve a city purchase of 100 pounds of dry ice and two gallons of alcohol. A maintenance supervisor explained it would be used to freeze water mains briefly to keep water from escaping while some new fire hydrants are installed.

Suspected A Still?

STERLING, Kan. (AP) — There were some quick questions when city officials were asked to approve a city purchase of 100 pounds of dry ice and two gallons of alcohol. A maintenance supervisor explained it would be used to freeze water mains briefly to keep water from escaping while some new fire hydrants are installed.

Pool Player Makes Good

Why would Fred Astair want to get mixed up in four soapy, heart-tugging Dr. Kildare episodes about a nun and a pool shark, beginning on NBC - TV tonight at (8:30 p.m.

Hal Humphrey

Because Fred is a billiards player and shoots a fairly mean game — "In my own league," he always adds, modestly.

Not long ago Fred was holed up in Burbank, Calif., one afternoon watching a world's champion billiard tournament, and he was spotted by William Fay, who was there researching atmosphere for his Dr. Kildare script.

IN FAY'S STORY the pool shark has a daughter who is a nun (his own daughter is a nun, too, coincidentally), and the two of them wind up in Blair Hospital, she with only weeks to live and he with a very touchy heart (the terminal rate at Blair is always high).

"I guess he had been wondering whom they might get for the pool player when he saw me," says Fred, who may be the first pool parlor habitue in history to receive a legitimate offer of work.

He signed on for the job, but not before being assured by the Dr. Kildare producers that the pool sequences (there's a big tournament in episode No. 4) would be done honestly. In one big scene Fred virtually did the camera directing himself, to make sure the viewers would know that he made the shot.

"IN THE MOVIE, 'The Hustler,' they had Paul Newman and Jackie Gleason doing a lot of trick stuff, and they also faked some shots," reports Fred, disdainfully, "but I think we've got the best thing ever done on pool."

Besides the trick and fake shots perpetrated by Hollywood on film which offend Fred or any other true aficionado of the game, there have been those "long runs" where a contestant clears the table several times.

"That's really ridiculous," says Fred. "Billiards is a tough game, and to play long runs requires great skill. I can run 19 or 20 balls, and that's bloody good for an amateur. In Burbank at the tournament I told you about, Cicero Murphy had a 135-ball run, but that was championship play."

FRED'S OPPONENT in the final Dr. Kildare episode (to be seen Nov. 30) is Harold (Red) Baker, a former state champion in California. In the show he plays Ulysses (The Burglar) Jackson, but as in all good Hollywood games, whether it be racing or a Western shoot-out, the viewer should bet on the good guy. And this is Fred, whose alias is Joe Quinlan.

Fred never has taken his billiards lightly, and he insists he learned the game as a boy in a local YMCA, of all places. He plays several hours a week, usually with some illustrious movie star or producer.

Fred classes actor Eddie Ryder as the best in the film colony, although he takes nothing away from Jack Lemmon and Peter Falk in the amateur pool league.

IN HIS stately Beverly Hills home Fred has his pool table in a favored spot on the main floor and a rack of beautiful inlaid pool cues. He is a faithful subscriber and reader of the National Billiards News.

"I always will try to be better at billiards, and it requires a lot of practice," Fred adds, as he aims a few side-pocket shots with deadly accuracy.

"Did I tell you," he asks, "that I made all of my shots in the Kildare show? I mean really made them. Fay says I was the only one he could think of for this part. That's what Stanley Kramer told me, too, when he asked to play the scientist in his movie 'On The Beach.'

"I suppose they both did it to make me feel good," Fred adds, chuckling, "and it worked."

Tappan Will Control Firm In Guatemala

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — The Tappan Co. has completed, in principle, formation of a joint venture company in Guatemala in which the Mansfield firm will own two-thirds interest. The Central American enterprise, Industria Metalurgica Centroamericana, will make enamelware and gas cooskers.

W. R. Tappan, president of the major appliance manufacturer based here, told the directors that this year's sales will exceed $90 million.

Auto Wreck Fatal

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky. (AP) —A car driven by her husband ran off rain-slick U. S. 25 near here Sunday, hit a bridge, and Mrs. Clara E. Schroder, 52, of Cincinnati, Ohio was injured fatally. Henry W. Schroder suffered minor injuries but the crash threw his wife from the car.

Goodyear's Expansion Scheduled By January

Enlargement of the present store and construction of an eight-bay service center at the Goodyear Service Store on Walnut St. is expected to be completed in January, James Hoschar, store manager, announced today.

About eight more employes will be added when the improvement, estimated by Hoschar at an overall cost of $200,000, is completed. The completion date is dependent on the weather.

The store will be expanded from its present size of roughly 40-by-40 feet to 50-by-70 feet. The service center will have a lift rack in each of the eight bays and modern auto servicing equipment, including an engine and transmission, brake and alignment and tune up departments, Hoschar said, adding that no gasoline will be sold.

Ed Feighenbaum of Pittsburgh, who owns the property where the present store is located, purchased four pieces of property for the expansion and service center. The transaction was handled by Charles Sayre of the Cooper Insurance Agency.

Goodyear's Expansion Scheduled By January

Enlargement of the present store and construction of an eight-bay service center at the Goodyear Service Store on Walnut St. is expected to be completed in January, James Hoschar, store manager, announced today.

About eight more employes will be added when the improvement, estimated by Hoschar at an overall cost of $200,000, is completed. The completion date is dependent on the weather.

The store will be expanded from its present size of roughly 40-by-40 feet to 50-by-70 feet. The service center will have a lift rack in each of the eight bays and modern auto servicing equipment, including an engine and transmission, brake and alignment and tune up departments, Hoschar said, adding that no gasoline will be sold.

Ed Feighenbaum of Pittsburgh, who owns the property where the present store is located, purchased four pieces of property for the expansion and service center. The transaction was handled by Charles Sayre of the Cooper Insurance Agency.

Picture Still Bright

11 Area Indices Climb In October

Continuing a generally bright picture that has been the rule throughout 1965, 11 of 13 East Liverpool district business and industrial indices finished the first 10 months of the year at levels ahead of the points at which they stood at the same time in 1964.

The summary of conditions issued by the Chamber of Commerce as of the end of October also showed a generally upward trend last month, compared with September.

The gains in the 10-month comparison of 1965 and 1964 were shown for bank clearings and debits, postal receipts, industrial payrolls and employment, railroad carloadings, river freight tonnage, new car registrations and parking meter receipts. The brighter economic picture was accompanied by a decline in the city's relief case load.

THE GAINS in October, as compared with September, were shown in bank clearings and debits, river traffic and tonnage, new and used car sales and parking meter receipts. there also was a decline in the relief load in the comparison of the two months.

Payrolls at 11 industrial plants totaled $13,771,330 for the first 10 months of the year, an increase of 11.9 per cent from the $12,305,676 shown at the same time in 1964. The plants paid out $1,338,346 in wages in October, a drop of 3.2 per cent from the $1,382,329 shown in September.

Employment at the same plants averaged 3,690 monthly through October, a gain of 2.5 per cent from the 3,601 average shown at the same time in 1964. October employment was 3,785, virtually unchanged from the 3,786 in September.

In another reliable barometer of comparative prosperity, new car registrations in Columbiana County totalled 3,962 in the first 10 months of 1965, an increase of 11.3 per cent from the 3,559 shown at the same time in 1964. October's auto registrations hit 425, a gain of 50.2 per cent from the 283 in September.

THE CITY'S parking meter receipts totalled $56,196 for the first 10 months of the year, a boost of 6.1 per cent from the $52,977 shown at the same time in 1964. They hit $6,624 in October, up 2.9 per cent from the $6,440 of September.

The city's relief case load averaged 51 monthly through October, a drop of 46.9 per cent from the average of 96 shown at the same time last year. The October case load was 40, off 2.4 per cent from the 41 in September.

Bank clearings hit $43,752,516 for the first 10 months of the year, up 24.5 per cent from the $35,152,337 shown at the same time in 1964. They totalled $4,410,870 in October, an increase of 14 per cent from the $3,868,037 in September.

Bank debits averaged $32,211,501 monthly through October, a boost of 21.6 per cent from the average of $26,482,038 listed in the same time in 1964. They hit $32,933,014 in October, an increase of 1 per cent from the $32,593,329 in September.

Postal receipts hit $218,456 in the first 10 months of the year, a gain of 1.8 per cent from the $214,693 listed at the same time in 1964. They hit $21,838 in October, a drop of 2.3 per cent from the $22,345 in September.

Inbound railroad carloadings hit 2,479 in the first 10 months of 1965, climbing 2 per cent from the 2,430 at the same time in 1964. They reached 248 in October, off 8.5 per cent from the 271 in September.

OUTBOUND carloadings stood at 4,311 for the first 10 months of the year, a gain of 7.6 per cent from the 4,007 shown at the same time in 1964. In October, they totalled 359, down 18 per cent from the 438 in September.

District dams locked through 4,958 tows in the first 10 months of 1965, a decline of 1.3 per cent from the 5,025 shown at the same time in 1964. They hit 494 in October, up 3.8 per cent from the 476 listed for September.

The River traffic in the first 10 months of 1965 represented 17,177,160 tons of cargo, an increase of 3.8 per cent from the 16,549,100 tons shown at the same time in 1964. The October tonnage was 1,878,500, a boost of 20 per cent from the 1,566,000 in September.

Used car sales hit 10,250 in the first 10 months of the year, a decline of 2.4 per cent from the 10,497 listed at the same time in 1964. They hit 800 in October, a gain of 6.7 per cent from the 750 listed in September.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 29, 1965
AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE - SAFETY TO PURCHASE LAND IN LIEU OF LAND DESCRIBED IN ORDINANCE NUMBER 23, 1965, FOR THE PURPOSE OF OFF STREET PARKING FACILITIES.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Number 23, 1965, authorized the Director of Public Service - Safety to purchase the following tract of land, to-wit:

Known as and being the North West rectangular part of Lot number 62, Original Plat, fronting 40 feet on Church Alley and running back along the West line of said lot a distance of 70 feet, and

WHEREAS, a strip of land four (4) feet fronting on Church Alley on the westerly side of the above described tract and running along said westerly side for a distance of 35 feet is used in conjunction with property owned by Robert Johnson to the west thereof, who is also the owner of the above described tract sought to be purchased by the city and for said reason said owner is not agreeable to the sale of said four (4) foot strip, and

WHEREAS, Council hereby determines that said four (4) foot strip is not essential to the operation of the parking lot;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:

SECTION 1. That the Director of Public Service - Safety is hereby authorized for the purposes mentioned in Ordinance No. 23, 1965, to purchase in lieu of tract one described therein to purchase the following described premises for the amount of $7,500.00, to - wit:

Situated in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana, and State of Ohio, and described as follows: Known as and being part of Lot number 62, original addition, and beginning at a point on Church Alley which is four feet easterly from the North West corner of said lot and running thence Southwardly on a line which is parallel and four feet distant from the Westerly line of said lot a distance of 35 feet to a point; thence Westerly at right angles to said lot line to the Westerly line of said lot; thence Southwardly along the West line of said lot 35 feet to the South East corner of Lot 6; thence at right angles and parallel to the South line of Lot 62 a distance of 40 feet to a point; thence Northwardly parallel to the east line of Lot 62 and 20 feet distant therefrom a distance of 70 feet to the South line Church Alley; thence with the South line of Church Alley, westerly 36 feet to the place of beginning.

SECTION 2. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect and be in force immediately upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that additional parking facilities are urgently needed in the City of East Liverpool in order to control the traffic by providing means by which said traffic may be removed from the streets of said City, and this action is therefore necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety of the citizens of said City.

Johnson Rests At Ranch Following Political Trip

The excursion was in behalf of Democratic Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez of Texas.

The President told a shopping center crowd composed primarily of Mexican-Americans they had a right to be proud to have Mexican blood in their veins.

After the speech Johnson walked out into the crowd. Twenty minutes later he left the square and walked behind the buildings where hundreds were gathered behind barriers and in the yards of neighboring homes.

Striding briskly through the gate of one of these, he sat down at a wooden yard table to chat with Sebastian Saldana, 43, a Kelly Air Force Base employe and the father of seven.

Quickly they were joined by Gonzalez, Yarborough, and Cantinflas, the Mexican comic who had spent the previous night at the Johnson ranch and had accompanied the President to San

Picture Still Bright

11 Area Indices Climb In October

Continuing a generally bright picture that has been the rule throughout 1965, 11 of 13 East Liverpool district business and industrial indices finished the first 10 months of the year at levels ahead of the points at which they stood at the same time in 1964.

The summary of conditions issued by the Chamber of Commerce as of the end of October also showed a generally upward trend last month, compared with September.

The gains in the 10-month comparison of 1965 and 1964 were shown for bank clearings and debits, postal receipts, industrial payrolls and employment, railroad carloadings, river freight tonnage, new car registrations and parking meter receipts. The brighter economic picture was accompanied by a decline in the city's relief case load.

THE GAINS in October, as compared with September, were shown in bank clearings and debits, river traffic and tonnage, new and used car sales and parking meter receipts. there also was a decline in the relief load in the comparison of the two months.

Payrolls at 11 industrial plants totaled $13,771,330 for the first 10 months of the year, an increase of 11.9 per cent from the $12,305,676 shown at the same time in 1964. The plants paid out $1,338,346 in wages in October, a drop of 3.2 per cent from the $1,382,329 shown in September.

Employment at the same plants averaged 3,690 monthly through October, a gain of 2.5 per cent from the 3,601 average shown at the same time in 1964. October employment was 3,785, virtually unchanged from the 3,786 in September.

In another reliable barometer of comparative prosperity, new car registrations in Columbiana County totalled 3,962 in the first 10 months of 1965, an increase of 11.3 per cent from the 3,559 shown at the same time in 1964. October's auto registrations hit 425, a gain of 50.2 per cent from the 283 in September.

THE CITY'S parking meter receipts totalled $56,196 for the first 10 months of the year, a boost of 6.1 per cent from the $52,977 shown at the same time in 1964. They hit $6,624 in October, up 2.9 per cent from the $6,440 of September.

The city's relief case load averaged 51 monthly through October, a drop of 46.9 per cent from the average of 96 shown at the same time last year. The October case load was 40, off 2.4 per cent from the 41 in September.

Bank clearings hit $43,752,516 for the first 10 months of the year, up 24.5 per cent from the $35,152,337 shown at the same time in 1964. They totalled $4,410,870 in October, an increase of 14 per cent from the $3,868,037 in September.

Bank debits averaged $32,211,501 monthly through October, a boost of 21.6 per cent from the average of $26,482,038 listed in the same time in 1964. They hit $32,933,014 in October, an increase of 1 per cent from the $32,593,329 in September.

Postal receipts hit $218,456 in the first 10 months of the year, a gain of 1.8 per cent from the $214,693 listed at the same time in 1964. They hit $21,838 in October, a drop of 2.3 per cent from the $22,345 in September.

Inbound railroad carloadings hit 2,479 in the first 10 months of 1965, climbing 2 per cent from the 2,430 at the same time in 1964. They reached 248 in October, off 8.5 per cent from the 271 in September.

OUTBOUND carloadings stood at 4,311 for the first 10 months of the year, a gain of 7.6 per cent from the 4,007 shown at the same time in 1964. In October, they totalled 359, down 18 per cent from the 438 in September.

District dams locked through 4,958 tows in the first 10 months of 1965, a decline of 1.3 per cent from the 5,025 shown at the same time in 1964. They hit 494 in October, up 3.8 per cent from the 476 listed for September.

The River traffic in the first 10 months of 1965 represented 17,177,160 tons of cargo, an increase of 3.8 per cent from the 16,549,100 tons shown at the same time in 1964. The October tonnage was 1,878,500, a boost of 20 per cent from the 1,566,000 in September.

Used car sales hit 10,250 in the first 10 months of the year, a decline of 2.4 per cent from the 10,497 listed at the same time in 1964. They hit 800 in October, a gain of 6.7 per cent from the 750 listed in September.

Quickly they were joined by Gonzalez, Yarborough, and Cantinflas, the Mexican comic who had spent the previous night at the Johnson ranch and had accompanied the President to San Antonio.

Other neighbors got a handshake, a 7-year-old girl a kiss and the Johnson party was off in the presidential helicopter for the ranch.

Today, the President and Mrs. Johnson were to attend a memorial service at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Fredericksburg in memory of President John F. Kennedy.

Other activities were expected to include the dispatch of a complimentary message to President Charles de Gaulle of France on his 75th birthday.

The President and De Gaulle haven't been getting along too well on some international matters and staff aides regarded this as an opportunity to warm relations somewhat.

Press secretary Bill D. Moyers, who flew to the ranch early Sunday after conferences in Washington, reported it hasn't been decided where Johnson will meet Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany at a Dec. 3-4 conference. Moyers said he was flying back to Washington today.

Nord Re-Elected By Health Group

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Mental Health Association, Inc., observing its 35th anniversary at its annual meeting here Saturday, re-elected Watler G. Nord of Oberlin as president. He has been president for the past 10 years.

The association also established an awards program for student achievement in the study of psychiatry for students in Ohio colleges of medicine.

Dr. Richard H. Williams, special assistant to the director of the National Institute of Mental Health in Washington, was the principal speaker for the session. He assured the Ohio group that on the basis of a year - long study of similar programs, that the comprehensive mental health centers now being planned can be successful.

Mrs. John W. Donahey of Columbus was elected secretary of the association and Mrs. Marion S. Wells of Newark was retained as executive director.

Winnings Donated

LOUISVILLE (AP) — During the annual collection for underprivileged children, the Buechel Fire Department went around from door-to-door in their community. Part of the department's collection included three uncashed tickets from Churchill Downs race track. One ticket turned out to be a winner and $6.20 went to the fund.

The New York Daily Graphic was the first illustrated daily newspaper.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 30, 1965.
AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE TRANSFER OF REAL PROPERTY FROM GARBAGE DEPARTMENT TO PUBLIC PARKS DEPARTMENT FOR PARK PURPOSES.
WHEREAS, the City of East Liverpool purchased certain lands in St. Clair Township from Garbage Funds for use as a sanitary land fill site, and
WHEREAS, part of said land so purchased is no longer needed or satisfactory for said use, and this Council has determined that said land should be made available for recreational purposes as part of the public park system of the said City, and
WHEREAS, in the transfer of said property from land fill purposes to park purposes it is required by statute to reimburse the Garbage Fund from the General Fund for the true value of said property so transferred;
NOW, THEREFORE,
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, STATE OF OHIO:
SECTION 1. That the following property be transferred from the Garbage and Trash Department to the Public Parks Division of this City, and is hereby made a part of said public park system of the City of East Liverpool and shall be used for public park purposes:
Situated in the State of Ohio, County of Columbiana, and Township of St. Clair, and known as and being Lots numbered 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24, and adjoining vacated streets, located in Bloomfield Addition, in Section 28 of said Township.
SECTION 2. That said transfer shall be effective upon payment from the General Fund - Public Parks Division of the Service Department, to the General Fund, in the amount of Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00), which is considered to be the true value of the premises herein described.
SECTION 3. That this Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after the earliest period allowed by law.
Passed this 15th day of November, 1965.

LEGAL NOTICE
Revised Code Section 2603.17
John E. Fulmer, Sr., also known as Jack Fulmer, and Sylvia G. Fulmer, both of whom reside at 3439 Emerald Street, City of Torrence, State of California, will take notice that on the 30th day of April, 1965, The First National Bank of East Liverpool, at East Liverpool, Ohio, filed its petition against them in the Court of Common Pleas of Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being cause No. 50185 in said Court, for the marshalling of liens and sale of certain real estate and in said petition described, to-wit:
Situated in the City of East Liverpool, County of Columbiana State of Ohio, and known as and being Lot Number 2024, as the same is known and distinguished on the recorded plat of Creighton and Albright's Addition to said City.
Said premises are also known as 313 Grant Street, East Liverpool, Ohio.
Defendants, John E. Fulmer, Sr., also known as Jack Fulmer, and Sylvia G. Fulmer, acquired the foregoing real estate by Deed recorded in Deed Book 1000, Page 89, Columbiana County, Ohio, Deed Records.
The prayer of said petition is for the marshalling of liens and sale of said real estate and for other equitable relief. Said defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 14th day of December, 1965, or judgment will be taken against them.
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF EAST LIVERPOOL, at East Liverpool, Ohio, Plaintiff.
Francis H. Lang, Attorney for Plaintiff.

The entire want ad section of this newspaper is at your service. It's yours . . . for news of homes for sale or apartments people have for rent . . . information on the best person to fix your roof or your oil burner. It's yours if you want to hire help or find a job. It's yours if you want to sell used furniture or an automobile. It's yours if you want to buy or sell any items. The Want Ad columns are at your service. Read and use them for profit. To place a Want Ad simply Phone 385-4545.
If you are planning to use your Savings to pay for the extra needs . . . perish the thought. Here's an easier way . . . one which thousands have been using lately with good results. You have unused furniture in the attic, a piano or a bedstead, or you have a fur coat or a bicycle which no one is using. Why not sell them and get good hard cash in return? All you do is place an ad with what you have to sell listed under the proper classification. Our Want Ad taker will help you word your ad to appeal to the greatest number of people . . . Then watch the buyers begin to call.
The Review endeavors to print only truthful classified advertisements and will appreciate having its attention called to any advertising not conforming to the highest standard of honesty. Junior Editors Quiz on SOCCER

QUESTION: Did soccer develop from the football we play, or was it the other way around?

ANSWER: Soccer is the granddaddy of modern football games, being the original game from which the other versions came. It is said to have originated in Darby, England, in A.D. 217, when the Romans were in control. Today, soccer is played in almost every part of the world. In soccer you kick the ball, or butt it with your head, instead of carrying it. A round ball is used. Soccer is a rough, fast, lively game.

In 1823, a player from Rugby College in England picked up the ball and ran with it. This was against soccer rules, but other players like the idea, and "rugby" football soon developed. However, the London Football Association objected and in 1863 named the original game "association football." Shortened to "assoc." this name became soccer, by which we call the original game today.

The first American college football was of the soccer type, but players from McGill College of Montreal, Canada, introduced the rugby idea in a game with Harvard in 1875. Other American colleges took up rugby, and out of this grew American football, which introduced new ideas, such as a more pointed ball, forward passing, padded clothes and so on.

FOR YOU TO DO: The rules for American football are complicated, but you can understand them by looking them up in a book on sports or an encyclopedia. This knowledge will greatly increase your enjoyment when seeing football games or reading about them.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, Nov. 22, the 326th day of 1965. There are 39 days left in the year.

On this date in 1963, President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

On this date

In 1943, The Roosevelt-Churchill Kai Shek conference opened in Cairo.

In 1945, Americans celebrated their first peacetime Thanksgiving in four years.

Ten years ago—Six men were executed and two others sentenced to life in prison in Russia for conspiring to conceal the activities of Lavrenti Beria, the late minister of internal affairs.

Five years ago—A delegation headed by President Joseph Kasavubu was seated by the U.N. General Assembly as representative of the Republic of the Congo.

One year ago — President Charles de Gaulle warned West Germany against renouncing its alliance with France and becoming what he called an "auxiliary" of the United States.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Many times I had been intending to buy a radiator brush but kept forgetting.

In desperation, I took my husband's long-handled brush that he uses to clean the snow off the car.

It's better than a radiator brush, for it is much narrower, and slides in behind the radiators and cleans the mopboards.

It also fits under my stove, washer and dryer.

MRS. E. BECKWITH.

DEAR HELOISE: I have wallpaper behind my stove, and always got grease spots on it which usually are not removable.

Now I buy adhesive-backed plastic paper and apply it over the whole area.

When I tire of one design, I replace it with another.

I especially like the solid white, because I have white kitchen appliances but the paper comes in many colors and designs to suit one's tastes. It also comes in "clear," which allows the design of the wallpaper to show through.

CAROLE.

DEAR HELOISE: Whenever you use celery for salads, sauteing, etc. . . cut it in thin diagonal pieces as the Oriental cooks do. This gives an attractive slice of celery, rather than a chunk—it adheres to the other salad ingredients better, and does not fall to the bottom of the salad bowl. Also eliminates strings.

Try it, I'm sure you'll like it.

BERNICE DRAKE.

DEAR HELOISE: Ever try dumping a box of your favorite gelatin into a pint fruit jar, and pouring it half-full of boiling water, and stirring? Dissolves instantly.

All you have to do is finish filling the jar with cold water, and shake a bit. Saves energy stirring, and also my valuable time.

H.H.H.

DEAR CAROLE: Thanks for your hint. You really got the brains, gal!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I just finished washing my blinds, and found a way to remove any water spots or dust that might have been missed—and at the same time freshen my room:

After the blinds had been washed and re-hung, I took a clean cloth and dampened it with my favorite cologne. Just a few swipes and I had a spotless blind, plus a nice fragrance in my rooms.

M.L. GRAY.

Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters. She will answer readers' questions in her column whenever possible.

Speaker Named In College Award

STEUBENVILLE — Ralph Hancock, of Poway, Calif., author, lecturer, biographer and one of America's most prolific writers on Latin - American affairs, will be the principal speaker Dec. 5 when The College of Steubenville awards the Poverello Medal to Joe E. Brown at its annual Founders Day dinner.

In the last 30 years, Hancock has written 30 books, one of which, "Exploring American Neighbors," has sold over a million copies.

Joe E. Brown and Hancock collaborated on the life story of the actor, "Laughter Is a Wonderful Thing." They had not met prior to that time.

Born at Plainville, Ind., and education at Washington University, St. Louis, the author started his career while still in college as a roving reporter in Mexico, representing American journals. He spent 17 years in Central and South America as a journalist.

During World War II, he was senior economic analyst on the Board of Economic Warfare in the Caribbean area. He was later elected vice president of the Pan-American Foundation, Inc., and has served as Latin-American adviser for several publishing houses.

Lucky People, For 11 Years No City Taxes

For the last 11 years, the townspeople have paid no city tax of any kind.

Avert A Letdown And Get A Lift

It has been the heartening experience of this dietitian that dieters are eager to help each other and to pass along slimming techniques which have enabled them to reduce and be happy.

Ida Jean Kain

One dieter who repeatedly had failed in her attempts to lose because of her habit of indiscriminate nibbling, has now lost 12 pounds without going hungry.

"I feel that I must give a word of encouragement to other struggling dieters. I find the late afternoon energy pickup included in protective pattern is the life saving answer."

RIGHT. A purposeful snack can save the day for the dieter. Come the late afternoon and a letdown can be both unpleasant and unproductive. This need not be, for there are ways to cope with hunger and sustain energy without letting the calories get out of hand.

This is where the controlled snack plays its important and helpful role. The best hunger quencher consists of a protein to provide energy at a given rate, together with sufficient bulk to give purposes in mind. The pickup that helps to cut ahead of hunger and wards off overeating at the evening meal, is all to the good.

THE WORKING girl who does not have a late afternoon break, can have her pickup immediately on arriving home. Here are a few ideas for these sustaining pickups with calories limited from 55 to 115.

Cup of hot tea with ¾ oz. cube cheese and 2 crackers, 110 calories.

Cup of hot bouillon, lemon slice, two rye wafers, 65.

Send long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for Revised Calorie Chart. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review.

Why more motorists switch to the Tiger when it gets cold.

Many cars that ran just fine all summer get into trouble when ear-muff time rolls around — stalling at stoplights and coughing and chugging halfway into town.

That's when a lot of people switch to the Tiger. Winter-formula Enco Extra gasoline is blended to match the weather conditions in your area — including a special additive to help guard against icing. Result: easier starting, faster warm-up and a lot less worry about stalling.

You'll like the way new Enco Extra behaves on the open road, too. It's the High-energy gasoline with the: (1) cleaning power; (2) firing power; (3) octane power to help preserve the performance of new cars and restore lost power and mileage to many older cars.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: Many times I had been intending to buy a radiator brush but kept forgetting.

In desperation, I took my husband's long-handled brush that he uses to clean the snow off the car.

It's better than a radiator brush, for it is much narrower, and slides in behind the radiators and cleans the mopboards.

It also fits under my stove, washer and dryer.

MRS. E. BECKWITH.

DEAR HELOISE: I have wallpaper behind my stove, and always got grease spots on it which usually are not removable.

Now I buy adhesive-backed plastic paper and apply it over the whole area.

When I tire of one design, I replace it with another.

I especially like the solid white, because I have white kitchen appliances but the paper comes in many colors and designs to suit one's tastes. It also comes in "clear," which allows the design of the wallpaper to show through.

CAROLE.

DEAR HELOISE: Whenever you use celery for salads, sauteing, etc. . . cut it in thin diagonal pieces as the Oriental cooks do. This gives an attractive slice of celery, rather than a chunk—it adheres to the other salad ingredients better, and does not fall to the bottom of the salad bowl. Also eliminates strings.

Celery cut in this manner also can be added to sandwich fillers much better than chunks.

BERNICE DRAKE.

DEAR HELOISE: Ever try dumping a box of your favorite gelatin into a pint fruit jar, and pouring it half-full of boiling water, and stirring? Dissolves instantly.

All you have to do is finish filling the jar with cold water, and shake a bit. Saves energy stirring, and also my valuable time.

H.H.H.

DEAR CAROLE: Thanks for your hint. You really got the brains, gal!

DEAR HELOISE: I just finished washing my blinds, and found a way to remove any water spots or dust that might have been missed—and at the same time freshen my room:

After the blinds had been washed and re-hung, I took a clean cloth and dampened it with my favorite cologne. Just a few swipes and I had a spotless blind, plus a nice fragrance in my rooms.

Speaker Named In College Award

STEUBENVILLE — Ralph Hancock, of Poway, Calif., author, lecturer, biographer and one of America's most prolific writers on Latin - American affairs, will be the principal speaker Dec. 5 when The College of Steubenville awards the Poverello Medal to Joe E. Brown at its annual Founders Day dinner.

In the last 30 years, Hancock has written 30 books, one of which, "Exploring American Neighbors," has sold over a million copies.

Joe E. Brown and Hancock collaborated on the life story of the actor, "Laughter Is a Wonderful Thing." They had not met prior to that time.

Born at Plainville, Ind., and education at Washington University, St. Louis, the author started his career while still in college as a roving reporter in Mexico, representing American journals. He spent 17 years in Central and South America as a journalist.

During World War II, he was senior economic analyst on the Board of Economic Warfare in the Caribbean area. He was later elected vice president of the Pan-American Foundation, Inc., and has served as Latin-American adviser for several publishing houses.
